BORN

Davidson—In Georgetown, on Tuesday, June 20, 1916, to Pte. and Mrs. Wm. Davidson, a son.

THE GEORGETOWN HERALD

WEDNESDAY EVE'G, JUNE 28th, 1916

THE CLERGYMEN in the Presbyterian Church over the question of church union has all the appearance of being a serious one, for a portion wants to go full to the union and another portion refuses absolutely to do anything of the kind. The result, unless a settlement is arrived at—and that will be difficult—will be more ruinous than the projected church union will do good.

THE NAVAL EXPERT of the London Telegraph, whose opinion, backed by reliable data, should be of weight, asserts that the German navy is "too tame and blind to move," as a result of the recent battle. Its subsequent inactivity in a securely sheltered area gives every warrant for this belief, despite the bombastic utterances of the kaiser and the German press at the time.

THERE ARE TWO LITTLE words, simple enough in themselves, that introduce untold trouble in the world and are responsible for more gossip, scandal and harm than any two words in English language. These two words are nothing more than, "They say." They have done more to ruin reputations than all other things. If you never quote what "they say" you may be quite certain you are not a gossip.

THAT 80 PER CENT. of the delinquency among girls brought to the attention of the Industrial Schools' Association is directly due to bad homes, that the majority of boys committed are between the ages of 14 and 16 years, and that 65 per cent. of them are committed for housebreaking and theft, were points brought out in the reports submitted on Saturday at the annual meeting of the association held at Victoria School Mimico

Utility Keynote of C.N.E. Prize List

Greater Encouragement to Breeders of the Useful Types of Live Stock.

A glance over the Premium List for 1916, just issued by the Canadian National Exhibition, shows a marked tendency throughout to give encouragement to utility breeds and types and with this object in view the Dominion Government has again contributed $5 000 to the prizes the Exhibition has added another $1,000 and the Hereford Society a similar amount. A full class for all in has again been given to all breeds and for the first time a reserve ribbon will be given in all classes of live stock.

Among the new classes in the horse section are two for aged Standard Bred stallions to harness, one for trotters and one for pacers

In the Poultry section the breeding pens, added for the first time last year, will be repeated and liberal treatment is again assured the utility breeds

Several changes are noted in the Fruit Section including the addition of two extra classes in apples and pears in 10 box lots and a 9 x 21 display of Canadian fruit. For the latter prizes amounting to $400 will be given

The Honey men will again have a chance for competition. They retired about two years ago, but have again asked for representation.

The butter making competitions will be repeated. Among the changes in the Dairy section is a class for standard creamery packages of 56 pounds in place of the obsolete "not less than 50 lbs" classification.

The Live Stock buildings, barns, stables and pens have all been disinfected and approved by the Department of Agriculture at Ottawa and exhibitors need fear no evil results from the recent occupancy by the Military horses.

Fruit Prospects.

The Fruit Branch of the Department of Agriculture has to day received the following information, by telegram, regarding the condition of small fruits in various parts of Canada:—

Nova Scotia,—Prospects are exceptionally good for a large strawberry crop The fruit will not be marketed in any large quantities before July 5th

New Brunswick,—Strawberries will be at their best between July 12 and 18 The acreage is about the same as last year. Raspberries will be about one month later in maturing. All small fruits promise normal yields.

Quebec,—Strawberry season will be at its height about June 24 and raspberries two weeks later. All plants have wintered well.

Ontario,—Strawberries maturing very rapidly. The fruit made its first appearance on the Hamilton market on June 13. Heavy shipments will be made from the Niagara Peninsula next week. The quality promises to be very high.

British Columbia, Strawberries maturing rapidly. Small lots now being shipped daily to Prairie markets. Gordon Head district will ship first car on June 17. Okanagon and Kootenay berries will be shipped next week. The crop is heavy. Raspberries will be at their best between July 12 and 21.

Norval

The beautiful home of Miss Olive Laird presented a very bright and gay appearance, on the afternoon of Saturday 17th, inst. On that day, twenty young girl friends of Miss Charlotte E. Hunter, (who is to-day being married to Mr. R. N Carter, of Brampton), gathered and showered her with many pretty, and useful presents, accompanied by their best wishes for her future happiness and prosperity.

Articles, numerous, useful and valuable were showered on Monday evening last, upon Miss Charlotte E. Hunter, at her home; by her neighbors and friends. These represented the esteem and respect entertained toward one who while spending her childhood and early womanhood days in our midst, has endeared herself to all. A short programme of instrumental and vocal music, recitations, speeches, etc., was much enjoyed, and a dainty lunch served before dispersal. "May her blessings over increase."

Glenwilliams

Glenwilliams enjoyed a rare musical treat on Friday evening, June 23rd. It was the occasion of the first public recital by the pupils of Miss May McMaster. Eighteen pupils took part in the program which consisted of solos, duets, and trios and the fact that it was impossible to select one who did better than the others, showed the excellent training which the pupils had received. The spirit of mutual trust and comradeship which exists between Miss McMaster and her pupils was evident throughout the evening; the pupils showing their appreciation of their teacher by presenting her with a bouquet of American Beauty roses

The assisting artists were Miss Eula Price, Toronto, elocutionist, and Mr. Carl Adams, Georgetown, baritone. Miss Price made her first appearance here and her numbers were greatly enjoyed. After her last number she was presented with a bouquet of carnations. Mr. Adams needed no introduction to the audience and his popularity was shown by the rounds of applause which greeted his first appearance

Miss McMaster cannot be given too much credit for the success of the evening. Her pupils all showed the result of careful and painstaking training In thanking the people for their interest and attendance Mr. Beaumont said that the study and appreciation of music tended toward the uplift of the individual, and as a result, of the community at large. For this reason Miss McMaster was deserving much praise for her work. The proceeds of the evening were turned over to the Red Cross Committee,

Military Notes

Lieut. B. G. Arnold of the 164th Batt., was home for the week end.

Sgt. W. Bilbie of the 164th Batt., Niagara Camp, visited Mr. D. J. Sinclair over Sunday.

Gunners Will Rob and Harold Collen were home from Kingston over Sunday. They left for Petawawa Camp on Monday.

Lc -Corp. John Peace of Georgetown, a member of the old 4th Batt., is reported wounded.

Mrs. Algert of Georgetown has received word from Ottawa that her son, Thomas Algert, has been wounded and was admitted to Boulogne hospital on June 16.

Pte. Robt. Gardiner, son of Mr. and R. D. Gardiner, Georgetown, who enlisted at Vancouver, has been wounded in the hip and is now in the hospital in England. Pte. Gardiner was wounded twice before.

Pte. Harold Beckett and Harry McJannett of Milton are reported wounded.

Lt.-Col. Thos. Bradley of Barnia is reported to have taken unto himself a wife at London last week.

On Thursday, June 15th, a number of Oakville citizens went over to the military camp at Orangeville on a special mission, to witness the presentation of a cheque for $700 toward the acquisition of a field kitchen for the 164th Battalion as a gift from the ladies of the county. Those who went were Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Davis, Mrs. O. Green, Mrs. C. Armstrong, Mrs. Bath, Mrs. (Rev.) Woodcock, and Captain (Rev.) H. P. D. Woodcock, chaplain, and Mrs. C. Armstrong president of the local war auxiliary. Mrs. (Lt.-Col) Domville, Mrs. McLaren and Mrs. Alexander, wife of quartermaster Capt. Alexander, were also present. The presentation was made by Mrs. Davis to Lt. Col. Domville in an exceedingly neat little speech and the Col. made a graceful acknowledgement on behalf of the Battalion. A committee of ladies of the Orangeville auxiliary were present as well. The ladies were later entertained to tea in the officers' mess room, the band meanwhile rendering an excellent programme.

The Halton-Dufferin Battalion is now nearly 800 strong. Thursday was horse-fair day at Orangeville and the town was crowded with people. In the afternoon the Battalion marched through the principal streets and were then dismissed, that officers and men alike might canvas the crowd for recruits. There is plenty of available material in Dufferin, but that county has lamentably fell short in the recruiting game.—Oakville Record.

Correspondence

The following is a letter from "Billy" Watson, an old Georgetown boy, to his brother John:

Dear Brother—Your letter received and pleased to hear from you I am certainly having a fine time and enjoying life in the high speed. We are all tickled to death over the news we get from our Col. to-day We are to go to France in less than two weeks, so that means the firing line. We are in the best of shape and all A1 shots. I may be picked for a sniper. I hope so Don't you worry, the 58th has got to eat first in Berlin. We have a swell band, also a football, baseball and lacrosse team We play all over. We have moved nearer Dover since I wrote. This place is called Shorncliffe A very pretty place beside the English Channel. We can hear the big guns in France quite plain, although it is twenty-one miles away. I have seen two aeroplane raids. This soldiering is some life

Well, John, answer to the same address, as all our mail is delivered no matter where we are. By the time you get this I will be in the trenches doing my bit. Remember me to all, and don't forget the paper I will send you something from France Give my best wishes to all and tell them I will drink to their health in Berlin, Germany, as we are going to march in there soon.

From your brother,
Will

Mrs Dr. Smith occupied the chair and after opening the meeting called on the secretary for a list of the things which were ready for the bale.

Mrs. Henry Wilson and Mrs. James Wilson, sang duets, Miss G. Thompson gave a reading and Dr. Smith a short address. A lunch was served by the ladies to all present. The number being over sixty.
