METHODIST

The League held a delightful meeting last Monday night. The topic "Citizenship," was well taken and the relation of the church to it was well defined. If God is to have a place and say in Government he can only have it through christian men.

NORVAL METHODIST

BAPTIST.

The trip the B.Y.P.U made to Brampton Monday evening was a delightful affair. About forty members and friends of the Union went down, and were welcomed by about an equal number in Brampton. The program, which was furnished by our young people, was a very commendable one, and was very greatly enjoyed by everybody. Refreshments were served, in a most bountiful manner, by the Brampton young people, after which a couple of hours were spent in social intercourse, and games, of different sorts. What if we were tired and sleepy before we reached home? We are glad we went, and hope our hosts will return our visit sometime in the near future.

All those who have articles of clothing, or other goods for the mission box are requested to bring or send them to the church Thursday afternoon. Those in charge of the box wish to pack it this week.

The pastor expects to preach Sunday morning on "Things which Cannot be Shaken," and in the evening on "A Prophet Denouncing a Kaiser." Strangers and visitors always welcome.

The annual Thank-offering meeting of the Mission Circle is to be held next Tuesday evening, Dec. 12. Miss Ellis, of Moulton College, has been secured for the evening.

MRS. WM. G. MCKAY.

After an illness of some weeks duration, Frances Barber, beloved wife of W. G. McKay, passed away at her home on Charles Street on Friday last. Deceased was a daughter of the late Joseph Barber and was born in Georgetown 60 years ago. She spent her entire life here and was one of our most highly esteemed and respected citizens. Her many friends sadly regret her demise. In religion she was a life-long congregationalist and took a deep interest in the welfare of the Church here until it was closed a few years ago. She was a devoted and kind and affectionate mother who loved her family and home above all else earthly. Besides the bereaved husband a family of two daughters, Mrs F. H. Moore, of Vancouver, Miss Frances at home and one son Mr O. T. McKay, survive, also two sisters Mrs J T Smith, Vancouver; Mrs. W. A. Fraser, Toronto, and two brothers, Mr Fred Barber of Seattle, Wash., and Mr. Walter Barber of Toronto.

The funeral took place on Monday afternoon, the service being conducted by Rev Mr Margaret of Toronto, assisted by Rev R F. Cameron. The remains were interred in Greenwood cemetery. The floral tributes were many and very beautiful.

The pall bearers were—J. J. Allen, Dr. Reid, H. M. Wetherald, Major Grant, E Cole and J. M. Moore.

Besides his widow he is survived by one daughter Marita, of Duluth, four sisters and one brother in Ontario, Canada, Mr. Graham's birth place. One sister, Miss Martha Graham, arrived here five weeks ago, and was with him when he died. Deceased was a member of Central Link Lodge, No. 175, I.O.O.F., also of Court Duluth No. 734, I.O.F.
