—Limehouse Civic Holiday July 14th.

—Canadian Foresters insurance rates will not be raised for a year.

—Mary had a little lamb—which is more than most of us can afford.

—Band Concert on Thursday evening at 8 o'clock at the Band Stand.

—The farmers will begin haying in a few days. A very fair crop is promised.

—John C. Snell, of London, at one time a prominent resident of Peel, is dead.

—Have you read the report of our new Food Controller? It is your duty to eat Strawberries.

—Some of Georgetown's sweetest little girls are picking the Strawberries offered at Grandy's.

—The best road is undoubtedly the straight road. But take care that you don't exceed the speed limit.

—Mr. John Ballantine had three fingers of his right hand severely lacerated on Tuesday, when a stone pile collapsed.

—Unless something is done to our Main Street soon, it may be said of it the same as the Buffalo man said about the Norval Road.

—Russia begins to look more like the chap who had taken a couple of plain a-dse and a turkish bath after a week's spree.

—The quaint old log cabin, which was located on the 6th line, has been taken down and re-erected on Georgetown Bowling Club's new green.

—You get quality and promptness in watch repairing when you have Foster do it. Leave it with L. V. Hourigan, local agent. tf.

—Mr. King Cooper has disposed of his farm in Nassagaweya to Robert Linham, Stewarttown. Sale was made by E. A. Benham, Georgetown.

—Toronto residents continue to move out to Halton, locating mostly at Oakville. Georgetown has many advantages and is not too distant.

—During the Ottawa races, a horse belonging to H. Glidding's, Oakville, closed a winning race lame. It will likely be his last but he had earned $30,000 for his owner.

—An enthusiastic back-yard gardener in Toronto, it is said, was seen planting potatoes that he had carefully peeled in the hope of securing a skinless variety. Why did he not boil the seed, and get a crop of ready-cooked?

—They do claim that in Germany they have a new substitute for chicken soup, and they call the thing "eselbutwurst." The Hon. Bill Hanna, our new food controller, will surely have to go some to put one over on that.

—What did your best cow earn for you last year? A seven-year-old grade in a herd near Oxford Mills, Ont., that milked from March 30, 1916, to Jan. 30, 1917, gave 863.0 lb. fat, which at 45 cents per equals the substantial sum of $163.78.

—A poetic contributor recently submitted to a newspaper an effusion entitled "The Lay of the Lark." It was returned with this note:

"Rejected with thanks. Send a few specimens of the lay of the hen just now. We will gladly accept them."

—After Bill Hanna gets on the job our daily menu will look like this owing as how there's lots of oatmeal in the country:

LATEST NEWS ABOUT HOME

Cattle Brought Big Prices

At a sale of pure bred short horns last week, the property of Mr Waite of Elora, 61 head brought $47,125, or an average of $772.54 per head. At Burlington Mr. Taylor sold 40 head for $34,125 or an average of $853 each.

Base Ball Games

Two interesting and keenly contested ball games were played at the High School grounds on Monday between the Pastimes of Toronto, winners of the Spalding League, and our local team. Both morning and afternoon games were won by the home team, the scores being 10-8 and 5-2, respectively. There was a good attendance at both games.

Write It Out

A circular notifies all relatives and friends of soldiers at the front that when writing to them or sending parcels they must be addressed either "Battalion" or "Battery." Many people have got into the habit of simply writing "Batt," and failing to spell the word out to its full length. This to a certain extent shortens the address and takes up less space, but it is impossible for the postal authorities to determine whether the letter is addressed to a battalion or a battery.

Child Poisoned

Mr. and Mrs. Donald S. McDonald, of Nassagaweya, formerly of Milton, lost their son, George Alexander, a year and four months old, last week in a shocking manner. On Monday Mrs McDonald was washing, with the little one close by. Something went wrong in the yard, in a flock of geese and she ran out for a minute. While she was out the child got at a cup of condensed lye which she had been using and drank it. He died after great suffering.

Grand Garden Party

A garden party under the auspices of Limehouse Junior Relief Red Cross Society, at the home of Mr. A. E Chalker, lot 21, fifth line, on Friday evening, July 6th, 1917. A splendid program will be provided by the following artists assisted by local talent: Mr. Duncan Cowan, the popular Toronto Entertainer; Miss Johnston, a brilliant Elocutionist of Toronto; Misses Mildred and Erma Brownscombe, the Child Singers of Uxbridge. Admission 25c & 15c. Refreshment booths on the grounds. Everybody will be there. Proceeds for Red Cross Work.

Good Program Appreciated.

The garden, party at Stewarttown, last evening, under the auspices of the Improvement Society was largely attended and the excellent program highly appreciated. Those who took part were Miss Maude Buschlen, the celebrated violinist, who proved a host in herself and her numbers were well worth the price of admission alone; Miss Violet Ruddy whose vocal selections are always appreciated; Miss Bochman, accompanist, and Mr. Wilson, Comedian. The cake weighed 17 lbs. 10 oz., and was won by Walter Lawson and F. Sykes, who donated it to Red Cross. It was auctioned by Mr. Will Little and purchased by Mr. L. E. Flick for $10. Rev. Dr. Smith occupied the chair.

Successful Patriotic Party

One of the best garden parties ever held in town or vicinity was that which took place last Friday evening at the home of Ex-Warden and Mrs. L. E. Flock. It was under the auspices of the Women's Patriotic League and the spacious grounds were crowded with people from the town, country and surrounding villages. The decorations which were the handiwork of Mr. Oliver McKay, were the best we have seen in this section and called forth many complimentary remarks, as did also the excellent program which was rendered by the following artists who so kindly contributed their talent free of charge: Misses Jean and Inez Stuart, Hamilton; Misses Mason, Acton; Misses Leavitt and Barber, Miss Ruddy, Miss Helen Ross, Miss Jean Adams, Mr. Carl Adams, Bert and Jack Thompson, five little highland dancers, viz: Marion McKay, Doreen McQuaig, Helen Lawson, Lillian Watson and Grace Forster; the 30th Regt. Band. Dr. Nixon, M.P.P., made an excellent chairman. The proceeds amounted to over $300.

We wish to specially mention the excellent numbers rendered by the Misses Stuart of Hamilton in their songs, recitations and dancing, they were a host in themselves. Also the Misses Mason of Acton who are always appreciated by a Georgetown audience.

Will Sue for Arrears

On the advice of Sir Herbert Ames, of Montreal, honorary secretary of the Canadian Patriotic Fund, that "there should be no hesitation in pressing for payment," the committee of the fund in Stratford will engage a solicitor to collect arrears in last year's pledges. About twenty per cent of the money promised has not been paid, while in most places only about four per cent is outstanding.

New Rules for Standard Hotels

New regulations for standard hotels require the keeping of plenty of cold water for the use of guests, a candle in each bedroom to facilitate the escape of the occupants in case of fire and the lighting system being put out of working order. Storm windows for bedrooms are forbidden and fire escape ropes must be fastened from the sides of window, at least two feet from the sill.
