Acton Again Defeated

Not satisfied with two defeats Acton hockeyists again challenged the Georgetown team to a game at Ravina Rink, West Toronto, on Friday evening last. The challenge was accepted and the two teams with their supporters journeyed by special Radial cars to West Toronto where the game was played and resulted in another victory for Georgetown by a score of 11 to 7, notwithstanding the fact that their opponents had a picked team from Erin, Milton, Toronto and Acton.

The line-up was as follows:—

ACTON		GEORGETOWN
Kennedy	goal	Sachs
Durno	def.	Deveraux
Malone		Cleave
Bond	for.	Cole
Bush		Blackburn
Brush		Graham
Beardmore	subs.	Armstrong
Beardmore		Chisholm
Garden
Hynds

Score 11 to 7, allowing Acton 3 disputed goals.

"Midget" Cole, Blackburn and Graham starred for Georgetown.

"Jerry" Cleave and Devereaux played their usual effective game.

Armstrong and Chisholm were used three or four times for three minute periods and showed splendid bursts of speed.

All Acton's ringers played good hockey, Bush starring.

Joe and Walter missed the special to West Toronto.

"Bob" Hynds and Holmes handled the game very satisfactory as judge of play and referee.

Georgetown Hockey Club thank their many supporters who helped them make the trip a financial success.

Had Narrow Escape

While in the act of repairing a large tank connected with the Provincial Coating Mill drainage system one evening last week, Messrs Nelson Tuck and Angus Duncan were overcome by the fumes. Duncan, who was finally rescued by Tuck, remained unconscious for some time. Mr. Tuck was around in a couple of days and Mr. Duncan has now nearly completely recovered.

Saturday—"Stella Maris" with Mary Pickford; Big V two reel comedy.

Tansley Bridge

The Tansley bridge tangle is practically ended. The county council spent Tuesday afternoon discussing, clause by clause, a proposed new contract, W. I. Dick, county solicitor, and Messrs. Bell and Connor assisting. After a few changes had been made the contract was submitted to Mr. McLeod who raised no objection to anything in it and said he was ready to sign it on behalf of his company. It will be signed within a few days. He is anxious to complete the work so that the standing of his company may not suffer.—Champion

Moody—Cole

A very quiet wedding took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Cole, East Garafraxa, on Wednesday afternoon, March 12th, at 2.30 o'clock, when their youngest daughter, Lily J., was united in marriage to Mr. John Buie Moody, eldest son of Mrs. Wm. Moody, of Glenwilliams. Rev. T. R. White, of Alton, performed the ceremony. The bride, who was given away by her father, was dressed in a navy blue serge suit with blue velvet hat and veil. After congratulations a buffet luncheon was served. The young people left later for Glenwilliams where they will reside.

Women's Civic Association

At the last meeting of the Women's Civic Association the sum of one hundred and twenty five dollars was voted to the Public Library. The following ladies were added to the Executive: Mrs. Hutt, Mrs. Oliver McKay, Miss Pierce and Mrs. W. A. Bailey.

The Association would like to be able to donate a good sum towards the Soldiers' Memorial Fund and in order to do it will make another collection of paper this Spring. Every citizen is asked to help by tying securely into bundles all newspapers and magazines. The collectors will call for them later in the Spring.

Bradley—Robertson

At St. Andrew's Church, Toronto, Saturday, March 15th, a quiet marriage was solemnized when Alexandrina Isabel, daughter of the late Alexander Robertson and Mrs. Robertson, Georgetown, was married to William F. Bradley, Georgetown. The ceremony was conducted by Rev. R. F. Cameron of Georgetown, in the presence of the immediate relatives of the bride and groom. The bride, who was unattended, wore her travelling suit of dark blue, black hat with French flowers and black fox furs. After the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Bradley left for New York and Atlantic City.

Trustees Meeting

J. M. Denyes, Public School Inspector, Halton and Wentworth, has called meetings in the four Halton townships to discuss educational questions. Esquesing meeting will be held in the Public Library, Georgetown, on Friday, March 21st. Among the subjects to be discussed will be consolidation of schools, proposed township boards of trustees, medical and dental inspection and truancy. Urban trustees will meet in Milton on 28th inst., to consider manual training and household science and the possibility of their introduction in the public schools. Dr. Albert J. Leake, Provincial Inspector of Manual Training and Household Science, and Inspector E. E. C. Kilmer, B.A., of Brantford, will address the Milton meeting, which will be open to the public and to which rural trustees are specially invited.
