

PHENOM VISITS CTK Stjepan Curic (24) of Christ the King's Jaguars had the unenviable task of trying to cover Corpus Christi's 6-foot-8 sensation Simisalo ('Simi') Shittu (11) during a Halton Secondary School Athletic Association senior boys' AAAA basketball contest Tuesday afternoon in Georgetown. Shittu is considered the top Canadian high school basketball prospect by NCAA Division I colleges and he's actually still only a junior by age, a Grade 10 student who just turned 15 two months ago. Curic held Shittu to nine first-half points and dropped in a couple of baskets himself, but the 9-0 Longhorns rolled to a comfortable victory over the winless Jaguars. In Tuesday's junior matchup, CTK upped its mark to 6-4 after a 41-36 triumph over the Longhorns in the Tier I loop. The Georgetown Rebels returned from the exam break Tuesday with a 68-36 home loss to Milton's Bishop Reding Royals and are now 4-7 in the HSSAA Tier I senior standings, with another contest at home Thursday against Jean Vanier S.S. at 3:30 p.m.

Raiders clinch conference

Anthony Marra tallied twice, including the winner on the power play 27 seconds into overtime, as the Georgetown Raiders defeated the visiting Buffalo Jr. Sabres 3-2 Saturday evening at the Alcott Arena.

The victory clinched the Ontario Junior Hockey League's South/West Conference championship for the 32-5-3-5 Raiders, who still have nine regular season games to play over the final two weeks of the campaign and have won six straight starts.

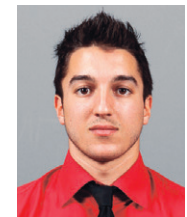

Defenceman Eric Eustace added a shorthanded marker in the second period for Georgetown that evened the score at two. The Raiders outshot the Jr. Sabres 31-23 and rookie netminder Jack LaFontaine earned the win in goal to improve to 18-4-0 in 2014-15.

Next up for the Raiders is a home date with the 34-11-1-3 Cobourg Cougars Saturday at the Alcott Arena beginning at 7:30 p.m.

Georgetown holds a 13-point lead over the South Division-leading Toronto Patriots and a 25-point advantage over the Orangeville Flyers in the West Division tables.

Raider head coach & GM Greg Walters said it shouldn't be a problem keeping his players interested and focused over the next few essentially meaningless games.

ANTHONY MARRA

"Our game plan is to get better every day no matter where we are in the standings," Walters said recently.

"We've started preparing for the playoffs now and our guys know that whether we're up 6-0 or we're down 2-1, we're going to play the same way and get better every night. It's easy with the character in our dressing room."

The Raiders remain in 15th spot amongst Jr. A teams in the country according to the weekly Canadian Junior Hockey League rankings released Monday.
