BATTERIES STOLEN FROM TRACTOR-TRAILER

Batteries and some wiring, valued at $3,750, were taken from a tractor-trailer parked at a business on Armstrong Ave. in Georgetown last week. Halton Regional Police said the theft occurred after business hours Tuesday and was discovered Wednesday morning. Anyone with information is asked to call 905-878-5511 ext. 2410.

LOCAL RESIDENTS HAVE FALLEN PREY TO TAX SCAM

Halton police are warning the public about a tax-related phone scam that has resurfaced, primarily targeting the Southeast Asian community. Police say the fraudsters claim to be members of the Canada Revenue Agency (CRA) and are making phone calls advising unsuspecting victims they owe the government large sums of money in taxes. Victims are told that if the taxes aren't paid immediately they will be arrested. The fraudulent callers instruct the victims to purchase prepaid credit cards in the amount owed and to forward them immediately to the 'CRA agent'.

Police say they have received one to two fraud reports per week from victims who have fallen prey to the scam with losses from $2,000 to $5,000 each. An investigation conducted to date has quickly led to overseas suspects.
