How to Have Beautiful Walls

THE most economical and satisfactory way is to paint them with Mellotone—a flat wall paint made by Lowe Brothers.
Mellotone is easily applied with a brush. Dries quickly with that soft, dull velvety finish that is so much desired.
Using it, you can have a different color scheme in every room, yet all will be in perfect harmony.
Mellotone colors are as soft as the tints of the rainbow.
Easily cleaned with soap and water.
Come in and see the sample panels and ask for literature.

THE STATESMAN

The statesman throws his shoulders back and straightens out his tie,
And says, "My friends, unless it rains the weather will be dry"
And when this thought into our brains has percolated through,
We common people nod our heads and loudly cry, "How true!"

The statesman blows his massive nose and clears his august throat,
And says, "The ship will never sink so long as it's afloat."
Whereat we roll our solemn eyes, applaud with might and might,
And slap each other on the back, the while we say, 'He's right!'

The statesman waxes stern and warm, his drone becomes a roar,
He yells, "I say to you, my friends, that two and two makes four!"
And thereupon our doubts dissolve, our fears are put to route,
And we agree that here's a man who knows what he's about.

Local Council of Women

The Local Council of Women meets in the Bank of Montreal Rest Rooms on Tuesday evening, May 16, at 8 o'clock. A good attendance is hoped for as important business is to be considered.

At the regular meeting of the Local Council of Women on Tuesday, April 25th, in the Bank of Montreal Rest Rooms, Mayor Dale gave a most interesting address on Laws affecting women and children. A goodly number of ladies were present but the Rest Room could have held a few more.

Mayor Dale began with conditions 2000 years ago and said that at that time women were treated as inferiors. During the last hundred years women have made very marked progress and the greatest progress in women's freedom has been made in the Anglo-Saxon nations. Women are now in possession of the franchise and on the whole are on an equality with men.

Laws regarding property—When a woman marries she enters into her dower or her interest in her husband's property. A man can not dispose of his real estate without his wife's signature. At her husband's death a wife is entitled to one third of the rents and profits of his real estate and his children get the remaining two thirds. She has no claim on money invested in stocks, victory bonds or in the bank. If a man dies without children his wife is entitled to $1000 and one half of the balance and the remainder goes to his parents or his brothers and sisters. No matter how much money a man may possess, apart from real estate, at his death, his wife can claim none of it unless it is willed to her.

Joint ownership of property and joint bank accounts were touched on.

Laws affecting children—Parents must provide for their children and educate them. If they do not the children may be taken from them and placed in a children's home. The Mothers' Pensions law is a fine piece of legislation. A widowed mother without means and having at least two children under sixteen years of age receives a pension according to the number of children she has. The deserted mother, though her husband cannot be found or brought back from another country, receives no pension.

A lively discussion followed the address and all questions were answered satisfactorily. A hearty vote of thanks was tendered the speaker and Mayor Dale replied with his usual courtesy, expressing his interest in the work of the Local Council of Women and his willingness to help them at any time.—Com.

Obituary

MRS. JOSEPH DOUGLAS

Some readers of THE HERALD will remember Miss Tena Kennedy a daughter of the late Andrew and Mrs. Kennedy who, forty years ago or more, were residents of Glenwilliams. From here the family went to Hamilton and later to Detroit where Miss Kennedy became Mrs. Joseph Douglas. Mr. Douglas died eighteen years ago and Mrs. Douglas, after a long and trying illness, passed away at her home in Detroit on Friday, April 28 th. As a girl the deceased was a great favorite, as a wife and mother she was greatly esteemed.

The burial took place in the family plot at Hamilton on Monday of last week, when many friends came to pay their last respects.

Deceased leaves two step daughters, three sisters and three brothers.

At the funeral service the following was quoted as the sentiment of the deceased during years of confinement through illness:

Since Christ my soul from sin set free
This world has been a heaven to me,
And mid earth's sorrow and its woe
'Tis heaven my Jesus here to know.
What matters where on earth we dwell?
On mountain top or in the dell,
In cottage, or in mansion fair,
Where Jesus is, 'tis heaven there.

Ballinafad

Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Farnell and son, Graham, visited friends in Norval on Sunday.

Miss Annie Gennery has secured a position in Brampton and is leaving this week and we are sorry to lose a good citizen.

Mr. M. Campbell and his employee built a nice piece of fence last week and it has improved the place greatly.

Mr. Bert Rodgers of the garage, and the Ferguson Brothers, are doing a rushing business.

Master Freddie Ferguson who was hurt on Tuesday, April 11, with a circular saw, is able to be around again.

Notes and Comments

THE ONTARIO STATUS regulating the vexed questions of transient traders in a municipality where they pay no taxes, has been found of little protection to the resident merchants. At a meeting of the London business men the other day the question of Transient Traders' Licenses was discussed at considerable length, and it was finally held that under the present administration of the Act it was possible to do business in direct opposition to merchants paying taxes, by having this type of license transferred to a permanent resident. This scheme has been adopted in various towns in order to evade the fees imposed by the transient traders' by-law. Our legislators should so amend the Act as to render this evasion ineffective.

PEOPLE WHO USE the railway tracks as a convenience in walking from one point to another will in future take chances of appearing in the Police Court, as well as the risk of accidents. The Board of Railway Commissioners have appealed to the Attorney-General to assist in enforcing the law. They point out that following the last effort to put a stop to trespassing there was a marked diminution in the number of accidents, 296 trespassers were killed and injured in 1915, against 155 in 1921. In the latter year 72 of the accidents, including 30 deaths, occurred in the Province of Ontario. The Board believes that still further improvement can be brought about, and suggests renewed "co-operation to discourage trespassing on rights-of-way," and "the strict enforcement of the provisions of the Act to protect life."

Milton

At a largely attended meeting of Milton L.O.L. No. 2885, on Monday night, Rev. A. Marshall, pastor of the Milton Methodist Church, was presented with a valuable umbrella and an address by the members of the Lodge on the occasion of his coming departure for Tilsonburg where he has accepted a call.

The town assessor has returned his roll, and from it we gather that the population is about 1900; there are 75 dogs in town; the total assessment is $845,617, last year it was $821,686, an increase of $23,981.

Word was received here this week, that Mrs. Richard Partridge, matron of the House of Refuge, who has been a patient in St. Michael's Hospital for several weeks; is not improving as was hoped for, and a consultation of specialists is to be held, in hopes of alleviating her condition.—Reformer.
