THE SURVIVAL OF THE FITTEST

While the very smartest sets
Dull their brains with cigarettes
And fashion life to jazz and the bon ton,
Nature sits serene and smiles;
She can circumvent such wiles—
The survival of the fittest still goes on.

When the youth perverse and gay
Thinks that vice and folly pay,
He will find himself a drifting wreck anon;
Vice does pay, but pays in dross,
Pays in failure, shame and loss—
The survival of the fittest still goes on.

If the boss in politics
Stoops to underhand tricks,
And expects to win the game with honor gone,
He will sometime understand
He has played a losing hand—
The survival of the fittest still goes on.

When fanatics would bark back
To a narrow weed grown track,
And shut their eyes upon a brighter dawn,
Let them grope if they think best,
Truth alone will stand the test—
The survival of the fittest still goes on.

"Many think I'm out of date,"
Nature smiles, "but let them prate;
For my simple scheme has worked since men were spawn,
Let defectives play the fool,
Let the victims scorn my rule—
The survival of the fittest still goes on."

Appeal for Children

Spring has passed and summer is here, With it the call of nature has become more insistent and those who can are leaving the city to go to the country—so green, pure and wholesome. There are thousands of people who cannot leave the city. We find the hot, dusty streets crowded with little childrtn who are doomed to spend an enervating summer here.

The Fresh Air Exchange appeals to the farmers on behalf of these little ones of the city, and asks that those who live within a reasonable distance of Toronto open their homes to two of the children for two weeks or more.

Last summer 286 enjoyed holidays given in this manner. Due to the unemployment of last winter, the incomes of many families have been so reduced that vacations are impossible for a much larger per cent of city dwellers than in other years. The Neighborhood Workers Association arranges for the payment of railway expenses, but cannot pay board. The children are all thoroughly examined by a doctor so that they will not carry any contagious diseases to their new friends.

We fully realize that the addition of two to a family means added work to the housewife, but in view of the great need of city children we ask that those who are interested and would care to open their homes to such children communicate with Mr. F. Stapleford, General Secretary Neighborhood Workers Associatson, 71, Grosvener St., Toronto, giving particulars, age and sex of children who would be welcomed and during what periods of the summer the little visitors might depart for their holiday in the country.

Trout Fry in Credit

The Erin Advocate of last week says:—"Mr. W. A. Burchell, manager of the Union Bank here, received a shipment of ten thousand trout fry from the Dominion hatcheries, and on Friday last, with the assistance of others, placed them in the cool waters of the Credit. Of course it will be from three to five years before these will be a source of real joy to the angler, but without such sportsman-like interest it would only be a few short years when the Credit would be void of the much coveted brook trout. Mr. Burchell is worthy of much praise for his interest and success in securing the large number of fry.

Rod and Gun

A number of notable features are contained in the June number of Rod And Gun in Canada. George L. Catton, a Canadian short story writer of prominence, contributes "Flapjacks," a short story masterpiece. There is an article entitled "Shore bird Migration Along N.S.," by that famous naturalist, Bonnycastle Dale, while Robert Page Lincoln contributes "Random Casts," in addition to his usual Fishing Notes department. The Guns and Ammunition department in this issue is perhaps the big feature. The Kennel Department resumes with this issue, under the editorship of Frank H. Walker, of Windsor, an authority on dogs, and one of Canada's leaders in kennel circles. A. Bryan Williams contributes his usual hunting notes in B.C., and there are other features which go to make up a well-balanced, attractive magazine, which will be found particularly interesting to all. Rod And Gun in Canada is published monthly at Woodstock, Ontario, by W. J. Taylor, Limited

Liberal Convention

The annual meeting of the Halton Reform Association was held in the G.W.V.A. rooms at Milton on Friday, June 9th. There was a large attendance of delegates from all parts of the county. Mrs. Fred Dewar, Milton, Vice-President, presided in the absence of Dr. H. A. McColl, President.

Officers were elected as follows: Dr. H. A. McColl, Milton, President; Paul Fisher, Burlington, 1st Vice-President; LeRoy Dale, Georgetown, 2nd Vice-President; Fred Dewar, Milton, Secretary-Treasurer.

The speakers were J. D. Peck, Toronto, General Secretary of the Ontario Liberal Association and W. F. W. Fisher, Burlington.

The retiring Secretary, Charles D. McGregor, received a vote of thanks and appreciation for his valuable services for a number of years.

A resolution was passed that in future the association be known as the Halton Liberal Association instead of the Halton Reform Association.

A resolution of confidence in Wellington Hay, Liberal leader in the Ontario Legislature was carried unanimously as was also the following:

Moved by W. F. W. Fisher, Burlington, and seconded by Mrs. Fred Dewar, Vice-President, of Milton. "That the Halton Liberal Association, assembled at their annual meeting in Milton, express their unbounded confidence in our esteemed Leader in the House of Commons, Right Hon. W. L. Mackenzie King. We believe he will uphold all the best traditions of the Liberal party and, as far as conditions permit, will implement the principles forming the foundations of that great party representing the growth of democratic government in Canada. We further couple with his name in this connection that of our veteran Minister of Finance as being the fullest expression of the minds of the Canadian people in matters of tariff and finance."

County Court And Sessions

The County Court and General Sessions for Halton opened on Tuesday before his Honor, Judge Elliot. There were more cases on the list than usual, two of them criminal. The first disposed of was

Dunbar vs. Bentley

The claim was damages for an automobile collision. One car was on the Toronto-Hamilton Highway, near Oakville and the other cut in on the highway from a lane. The jury found that the collision was purely an accident, dismissed the case and ordered that each of the two parties should pay his own costs. G. W. Bea, K.C. for plaintiff, S. F. Washington, K.C., for defendant.

The King vs. Brown

Jas. Brown was indicted for two offences, the first perjury at the March sittings of Division Court here in the case, Brown vs. Gunby, and second, conspiracy. In the perjury case the evidence was what has been reported in the Champion, that given before the magistrate. The verdict was guilty, with a recommendation to mercy. Sentence was deferred until this morning, when Brown was fined $75 and released on suspended sentence. The conspiracy charge was dropped. Crown Attorney Dick for Crown, Mr. Macdonald for defence.

Milton

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Leach, of St. Paul, Minn., are visiting at the home of his sister, Mrs. G. A. Hemstreet.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Inman and children, of Dundas, spent Sunday here with her parents, Postmaster and Mrs. Stewart.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Shields, Milton, announce the engagement of their daughter, Nellie Isabel, to Mr. Ewart McKinnon, only son of Mr. and Mrs. Archie McKinnon, Erin, the marriage to take place in June.

W. J. Hartley, the well known fruit grower near Milton, holds the record of being the first man to market home-grown strawberries in Milton. The berries were put on the market Monday morning, June 12th.—Reformer.

Erin

Mr. and Mrs. W. Bingham spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Alva Kentner, at Ballinafad.

The Erin Turf Club have completed arrangements for a big day's sport on Saturday, July 1st, at Stanley Park. The program consists of three horse races, a lacrosse match and a dance at night.

Mrs. Thomas Cook, who underwent an operation about three weeks ago in the Victoria Hospital, London, is, we are pleased to say, progressing favorably and it is expected will be able to return home about the end of this week.

We were pleased to see Mrs. McKechnie able to be out, after being confined for so long from an attack of neuritis.—Advocate.

Notes and Comments

WHY NOT a lacrosse team for Georgetown? Lacrosse is Canada's national game. There is no town with a better class of young men and boys, physically fit, to uphold the standard of our national game than has Georgetown. There are still a few of the "old boys" who were members of the team that won the intermediate championship of Ontario two years in succession, 1895 and 1896, living in town, who would like to see the game flourishing again and will assist in any way to re-organize a club here. Organize now, have a few exhibition games this season and then we should have a team ready to enter the league in 1923.

IT IS NEARING THE TIME for the annual vacation and it is a pity that so few people realize the value they can receive from a real vacation. It is a pity that we all take such infinite care to keep our automobiles, our farm tractors, our presses, our tools, in the best condition and let our bodies get along as best they can. We tear about like mad, breaking down the tissues and never give a thought to how they are going to be built up. We let our minds get full of the sordid thoughts that come naturally from living too close to material things and we never get away where any kind of a spiritual uplift has any chance with us. Right thinking is the secret of all happiness, for if you think rightly you are bound to live rightly, and right thoughts are always manifested in a strong body full of vitality, and in a happy frame of mind. By wrong thinking, we do not necessarily mean wicked thinking. But often we allow our minds to travel in the wrong direction instead of always holding them in the path where God directed they should go. We get habits of thought regarding the number of clothes we must have, the kind of an automobile we must have to keep up with our friends, the number of parties we must give until it is one mad rush to keep up and to make both ends meet. Because we allow these habits of thought to grow on us, we begin to regard these things as the most important things in the world, and we do not allow the really big things to reach us. The worth while things of this world cannot reach us when we keep ourselves, constantly surrounded by so much that is trivial, and it is only by getting out where God is more manifest than man that we can hope to get a real "look in" on reality. It is only on a regular, old fashioned vacation that we get acquainted with our ideals and ideals are the real staff of life.

Big New Features Added to Colossus

Ringling Bros. and Barnum & Bailey Bring Entire Shipload of Novelties From Europe

Made even more tremendous than in 1921 by the recent addition of many more trained wild animal displays and the purchase of Europe's biggest horse show, Ringling Brothers and Barnum & Bailey combined will exhibit at Toronto, Ont., July 7-8, 1922.

All who glance over the cable news or who read the magazines must have noted the many contracts entered into by the Ringling Brothers for foreign talent last winter. A special ship was chartered this spring to bring the hundreds of human performers, trained animal-acts and equine displays to America. More than a million persons saw the mammoth new circus of 1922 during the weeks that it exhibited in Madison Square Garden, New York. Now this marvellous exhibition is touring the country aboard five great railroad trains. It is a third bigger than the Ringlidg Brothers and Barnum & Bailey show of last season.

Big as is the wonder circus of 1922—with its more than twenty trained wild-animal displays in steel arenas, fully 150 wonderfully schooled trick horses, 700 men and women performers, 100 clowns, and scores of features—the price of admission is no more than before. And although the trained animal numbers and the immense horse show were circuses in themselves while touring Europe, they are not offered as separate attractions by the Ringling Brothers and Barnum & Bailey combined shows. Instead all are on one gigantic program. Everything is in one mammoth main tent. One ticket admits to all and includes admission to the tremendous double menagerie. There are more than a thousand animals in the zoo of this circus and these include a tiny baby hippopotamus only recently born, and accompanied by its three-ton mother. Another remarkable zoological feature is an armored rhinocerous, the only one known to exist and for which the Ringlings recently refused an offer of $80,000.

—Some time soon will be a good time to clean out the cupboard under the stairs where all the old newspapers, cardboard boxes and other rubbish has accumulated. Don't procrastinate! Good intentions are said to pave the road to destruction.
