Obituary

MARY ROSS TODD

The remains of Mary Ross Todd, relict of the late Robert John Todd of Peterboro, and daughter of the late Samuel and Mrs. McMaster, Glenwilliams, were laid to rest in the Glen cemetery on Tuesday, September 5th. Deceased was born in Glenwilliams in 1859 and for the past twenty years has been a highly respected resident of Peterboro. The memory of a loving christian mother is cherished by her two sons and daugheer, William J., Kitchener; Robert S., Montreal; and Grace, Peterboro; also by her mother, sisters and brothers, viz:—Robert, Samuel, Thomas, Glenwilliams; Joseph A., Regina, Sask.; Wm. John, Vancouver, B.C.; Mrs. R. Vance, Brandon; Mrs. Wm. Rennie, Melita, Man.; Mrs. Geo. Guthrie, Toronto; Miss May, Glenwilliams.

The funeral service was conducted by Rev. J. H. Moore. The pall bearers were:—A. Owens, J. Thompson, A. Murray, W. J. Mullin, D. Reid, Jos. Marchment.

—Owing to the high price being asked for wood, Acton Council is having a by law prepared which will require that all transactions in wood shall be upon the basis of 128 cubic feet to the cord. Every vendor offering wood for sale in that town will be required to make all sales on this basis.

Masons at Toronto

Several car loads of the members of Credit Lodge A.F. & A.M. paid a visit to Rehoboam Lodge at Toronto last Thursday evening. Worshipful Master E. Y. Barraclough and his officers conferred the first degree on a candidate and were highly congratulated on their work by the city brethren. A banquet followed, at which a most enjoyable program was given. All returned home feeling glad of the visit paid the city brethren.

Lawson—Peden

A pretty wedding was solemnised on Wednesday September 6th at the home of the bride's parents Belwood, by the Rev. W. J. Booth, when Flora McDonald eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Peden was united in the bonds of holy matrimony to Mr. Walter Lawson elder son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Lawson, Stewarttown. The bride escorted by her father entered the drawing room to strains of Mendelsons wedding march played by Miss Ada Johnston of Belwood. She looked charming in her gown of Ivory crep tronbodour with seed pearl trimming and wearing a hand embroidered veil. She carried a shower bouquet of cream roses, lily of the valley and maiden hair fern. Miss Mildred Peden was her sister's bridesmaid, dressed in orchid crep de chine and carried deep pink roses. Mr. William Lawson was his brother's best man. The groom's gift to the bridesmaid was a platinum and pearl pin and to the groomsman a platinum and pearl tie pin. The happy young couple left later on their honeymoon trip down the St. Lawrence, the bride wearing a navy blue tricotine suit with mohawk hat and Russian squirrel fur the gifts of the groom. On their return they will reside in Stewarttown.

Runaway Accident

Mr. and Mrs. Neil Gillies Receive Painful Injuries

While Mr. and Mrs. Neil Gillies of Esquesing township were on their way to attend the funeral of the late Peter Campbell, which took place from his late residence, base line, Trafalgar, Monday afternoon, Mr. Gillies' spirited horse took fright and ran away on the third line, Esquesing, throwing the occupants of the buggy into the ditch. Mr. Gillies was badly injured, several ribs being broken, while Mrs. Gillies was knocked unconscious. Fortunately, she escaped serious injuries, although badly bruised.

Norval

Dr. and Mrs. Webster, Mrs. Black and Miss Maguire were at Toronto last week attending the Jones-Black wedding.

On Sunday last, Rev. R. R. Hare took as his text the verse that pictures a famine—not a famine of things to eat and drink, but of religious conviction in our common life, and every-day conversation. He deplored the absence of painstaking prayer in the programme of the rising generation, saying that when the current of prayer is shut off, the power of the church can be easily ignored. No Sunday School has a right to look for its teachers outside of itself, unless it is rearing leadership that will supply a need elsewhere. One of the chief reasons our young people are growing up without the ambition to be spiritual leaders is that they see so few examples among the fathers. The only way to successfully keep the children in the Church at the critical age in their life is to fill up the gap between them and the door with men! Rev. Hare believed the famine was here, but would soon be rolled back in the wake of a revival. Next Sunday at two of the appointments, the speaker will be Professor Arthur W. Beall, M.A., of the Provincial Department of Education.

Glenwilliams

Wouldn't it be a nice thing if someone would start community singing in Glenwilliams for the winter months? It would provide many pleasant evenings if the trustees would allow the citizens the use of the hall. We would suggest that a collection be taken up to defray expenses for fuel, light, etc., and it wouldn't cost much to put a second-hand piano in the hall. Let's call a public meeting and organize a community choir and appoint pianist, conductor, etc. Many a pleasant winter evening could be spent in sing song and good fellowship. We would like to hear what the trustees of the hall think of this suggestion.

Acton

On Sunday last Mr. Alexander Waldie was taken with a serious attack of kidney trouble. Relief was not obtained from the customary treatment and the old gentleman was removed to Guelph Hospital. An operation was successfully performed last week and he is now making good progress toward recovery. There has been much anxiety here respecting this fine old gentleman's condition during the week and it will be a great relief to many to learn of his encouraging condition.

Acton carpenters and builders are crowded with work. The Georgetown Lumber Company is also taking building contracts here now.—Free Press.

Milton

Rev. W. M. Mackay and his family got home on Monday from their vacation at Rosedale, near Lindsay.

Dr. McColl has returned after a two months' trip to Europe. He spent most of his time in the London hospitals.

The town council met on Tuesday evening. The most important business transacted was the fixing of the tax rate for 1922. It is 38 mills.

On Tuesday the fire brigade received its new $8500 fire truck, which was brought here by Edward McJannett of Woodstock, a Milton boy, who gave a demonstration which satisfied the town council and E. F. Earl, chief.

Judge Elliot and his family returned on Tuesday to their Milton home after spending the summer at Bronte.—Champion.

Don't Worry About Coal

Just the thing for the winter. You can see it work any time at Blythes, Queen Street; it takes the place of coal or wood. In a test made with four different fuels, this was the cheapest. I am giving a demonstration on Thursday 14th from 3.30 to 5 p.m. and 7 to 9.30. Come and see it work, it costs you nothing and you will be delighted—W. R. Bridge.

—Why buy risky made boots when you can get improved Dayfoot and Macpherson boots that have stood the test for 50 years made specially for us. Men's sizes from 6 to 12, also boys of all sizes. We have other makes at low prices, the Williams and W. B. Hamilton; also the Hurlbut pussy foot shoes for children. We undersell all others and sew all rips free. I have two men repairing. Women's boots solid oak soles and rubber heels $1.00; girls 75c; boys $1.00 to $1.25. Get your work home with you. Call and look over our stock and then buy where you get the best for your money. Taylor the foreman of the waterworks says the Dayfoot is the best boot he ever wore. —J. Roney, the man that has made a name for Georgetown.

Six Injured In Auto Smash

A serious automobile accident occured near Milton about midnight on Sunday night, in which one of the victims may die. Six young men from Acton started out with the intention of making a circuit from Acton to Campbellville to Milton and home again. On their way from Campbellville to Milton they failed to make a turn opposite A. Anderson's farm on the Nassagaweya and Esquesing town line, while going at a fair rate of speed and crashed into a telephone pole.

All the occupants of the car were injured, Cameron Johnston seriously, having his leg broken and sustaining internal injuries. He was also cut about the head. Dr. McColl of Milton, was summoned to the scene of the accident, and after dressing the wounds of the injured, ordered Johnston to be removed to Guelph Hospital at once, as it was feared his injuries would prove fatal. The other five members of the party, two of whom were very badly injured, were taken to their homes at Acton, where they are now under the doctor's care. The car was completely wrecked.
