It is just half-past eight

The dinner dishes are washed, the children are in bed, and Mrs.——has settled down to a night's darning.

A hundred miles away, in the Hotel, Jim——has finished dinner, written the day's report and looked over the local paper. Time hangs heavy till, happy thought, he remembers Long Distance.

"Hello Mary! How are the children? How are you?"

Just three minutes at home, and yet it makes all the difference. The hotel seems brighter. And Mary——well, the holes in the socks don't seem quite so large. Just the effect of a voice you love to hear.
