A Painful Accident

While operating a rip saw in J. N. O'Neill & Son's on Friday morning last Mr. W. G. Marshall met with a painful accident. He was ripping a narrow strip off a sleigh tongue when a portion of the strip was caught by the saw and shot back with such force that a sliver about a half inch wide and quarter inch thick penetrated the palm of his right hand going completely through it. After receiving first aid Mr. Marshall was taken to Guelph General Hospital where the sliver was removed. Although he has suffered severely with the injured hand, Mr. Marshall is progressing quite favourably and was able to return home last evening.

Price—DeCou

Charming in its simplicity, the marriage at 11 o'clock Feb. 16th, in St. Paul's Presbyterian church, Simcoe, of John David Price, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Price of Georgetown, and Miss Norma E., younger daughter of the late A. R. DeCou and Mrs. DeCou, was solemnized by the minister, Dr. A. L. Howard in the presence of 20 guests and an attendance of friends of the contracting parties. The bride was given in marriage by her mother and was dressed in bois de rose froust crepe with fox ruff and carried a bouquet of butterfly roses. There were no attendants. Mr. Leslie Hearts, organist, played the processional and recessional and accompanied Miss Margaret Sharp's rendition of "Because" while the contracting parties, witnessed by Miss Edna DeCou, sister of the bride, and Mrs. Harry Rous, Hamilton, sister of the groom signed the register. After the ceremony, the bridal party and guests returned to the home of the bride's mother, where amid most chaste decorations a couple of hours were spent over a most dainty prepared and epicurean breakfast. The esteemed young couple left by the Wabash for Buffalo and points east. They will reside in Simcoe on their return from their honey moon. Among the guests were Mrs. Price mother of the groom, and his two sisters, Miss Irene Price of Toronto and Mrs. Harry Rous of Hamilton, Mr. and Mrs. A G. Anderson and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Anderson of Port Dover, Dr. and Mrs. W. M. McGuire and Dr. and Mrs Geo. McGuire, Miss Biggar, Dr. and Mrs. A. L. Howard, Mr. and Mrs. L. Hearts, Miss Margaret Sharp, Mrs. J. W. McInally, Mrs. B. B. Baillie, Miss L. Kelly. The bride was for some years a valued member of the soprano section of the church choir and a most highly esteemed member in a wide circle. Brantford Expositor.

—Little Ada—"Mother, shall I run out and post this letter?" Mother—"No, child, certainly not. Its raining in torrents and not fit to turn a dog out of doors. Let your father go."
