Harvest Thanksgiving

Rev. Wm. Burt Preached to Large Congregations at St. Georges

The Harvest Thanksgiving services at St. Georges Church, took place on Sunday last, and were attended by large congregations. The day commenced with a celebration of the Holy Communion at 8 o'clock, and at 10 o'clock there was a special Children's fruit and egg service with an address by the Rector. The whole of this service was taken by the Sunday School members. Mr. Fred McNally, superintendent, read the scripture lesson, Mr. Charlie Kirk presided at the organ. The fruit and eggs given by the children were donated to St. Johns Hospital, Toronto, and consisted of over 60 jars of preserved fruit, and about 50 dozen eggs. At 11 o'clock Choral Matins was sung, and a splendid sermon preached by the Rev. Wm. Burt, L.T.H. Rector of St. Pauls church Fort Erie, and a former Rector of St. Georges Church. Mr. Burt was warmly welcomed by the Rector who also took the opportunity of thanking everyone who had donated fruit, flowers and vegetables and assisted in decorating so beautifully and artistically the whole of the church.

The evening service at 7 o'clock took the form of choral evensong with a very helpful and inspiring sermon by the Rev. Wm. Burt, taken from the 125th Psalm and the second verse "The hills stand about Jerusalem even so standeth the Lord round about his people, from this time forth, even for evermore."

Harvest Hymns and Psalms with special prayers of thanksgiving made the services very bright and helpful. The choir, under the leadership of Mr. Wm. Bradley sang splendidly a very nice setting of Te Deum, and new anthems at both the morning and evening service, Mrs. S. Kirk taking the solo in a very able manner.

Mrs. Bradley presided at the organ, and was assisted by Mr. Jack Thompson with the violin.

The Rector was assisted by Mr. Joseph Beaumont who read the lessons both morning and evening.

Stampede and Rodeo

Western Canada's battle cry "Ride 'em, cowboy!" will resound through the exhibition grounds in Toronto next week when 100 cowboys from Western Canada and the western states will gather to battle for prizes totalling $15,000.00 at the big Western Stampede and Rodeo, which opens September 25th, and continues until October 2nd. Performances will be held every afternoon and evening.

Every ranching district in Alberta and British Columbia is sending a cowboy to represent them at the championship cowboy contests, and with her eye on another championship title, the United States is also sending a contingent of cowboys, the pick of the land.

It will be no "drug store" cowboys contest but a contest for real hands, for 300 head of the best bucking horses that have ever come out of the west are in Toronto right now, being fitted up for the big show. The herd is headed by the famous four bucking horses, "Midnight," "Tumbleweed," "Gravedigger," and "Bassano," the four horses who have left a trail of bruised and broken cowboys in their wake from Vancouver, B.C. clear east to the Atlantic.

With these bucking horses are 100 head of real wild range steers from the hills around Fort Macleod, Alberta, and these wild cattle will be used in the wild cow and wild steer riding contest and the wild cow milking contest, which will be held daily as part of the regular Stampede performance.

Special chutes, pens and corrals are being built in the centrefield in front of the grandstand and the field will take on the appearance of a real western ranch.

Some of the best cowboys in the world will ride at the Stampede, including Pete Vandermeer of Calgary, known the world over as "The Prince of Wales cowboy," Pete Knight of Crossfield, Alberta, former world's champion, Slim Watrin of High River, Alberta, who won the big prize at Ottawa, Bobby Askins of Fort Worth, Texas; the world's champion, Hugh Strickland of New York, Howard Tegland of Edgeroon, Wyoming, former champion, Jesse Couts, Jerome Idaho, Perry Ivory of Tulare, California, Mike Stewart, Tulare, California, Norman Stewart, Lewiston Idaho, George McIntosh, High River, Alberta, Herb. Matier, Wallachine, British Columbia, "Casey" Patterson the Mayor of Garlsby, Alberta, and scores of others.

The daily program will include bronk riding with saddle, bronk riding bare-back, wild cow and wild steer riding, wild cow milking, wild horse race, trick and fancy riding, trick and fancy roping, chuckwagon races, relay races, Roman standing races, pony express races, high jumping and other events.

The seat sale open at the Brooks Steam Motors, 146 King St. west, Toronto. Rush seats; 50c. reserved seats, $1.00., Box seats, $1.25. Children, afternoons, 25c.
