Milton

Mrs. (Dr.) B. Gollop of Georgetown has been spending a few days at the home of her brother, Mr. F. Pearen.

Councillor M. E. Nixon, who underwent a rather painful operation about four weeks ago, is making good progress towards recovery, and is able to be out again, we are pleased to say.

Elgin Ford, manager of the Walker store at Amherstburg, formerly of the Milton branch, spent Sunday with relatives in town.

This winter, so far as Milton is concerned, has been a most unfavorable one for curling and hockey, the changing weather rendering it very difficult to carry out the scheduled games.

The Mansewood Euchre Club entertained the Milton Business Men's Association at R. Joyce's last Monday evening. We understand the visitors lost out by a small margin, but were royally treated by the victors after the contest.—Reformer.

Make the Garden Pay

From its branches situated in every part of the Dominion, the Bank of Montreal, in the past few years, has distributed to its customers and to others approximately a quarter of a million copies of free handbooks on farming subjects. As a productive garden is a desirable adjunct of a profitable farm, booklet "Make the Garden Pay" is now offered. The booklets previously distributed deal respectively with cows, hogs, sheep, poultry and diversified farming, the last-named being suitable only to conditions in the Prairie Provinces. A limited number of these booklets are still available and a copy of any of them may be had on application at any branch of the Bank.

An Irish Night

An Irishman was walking down the street when he was met by a distinguished looking man who asked for a match. "Thank you," said the man, taking the match from the Irishman. "You know I'm a man of importance at home. I'm Sir John Burley, Knight of the Garter, Knight of the Iron Cross, Knight of the Golden Eagle, Knight of the Eagle. And what's your name, my man?" To which query the Irishman replied: "Me name is Michael Murphy, night before last, last night, to-night, to-morrow night, and every other night."

Wanless—Cation

A very pretty wedding took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Cation, Jessie Street, Brampton when their daughter, Miss Annie M. C., became the bride of Mr. Melville Wanless, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Wanless, Inglewood. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Dr. W. J. Smith, the young couple standing before a white arch decorated with white 'mums. An aisle to the arch through which the bridal party passed was formed by white ribbons held by the nephews of the bride, Clure and Hunter Cation. The bride, who was unattended, was brought in and given away by her father. She wore shell pink georgette, trimmed with pink ribbon. Her veil was draped in Spanish fashion and she carried a shower bouquet of Richmond roses, orchids and lily of the valley tied with ribbon. Lohengrin's Wedding March was played by the bride's sister, Miss Sadie Cation. A wedding dinner was served, the decorations being in Valentine colors of red and white. After cutting the cake, the bride donned a rose ensemble, with hat in the same tones and a muskrat coat, leaving with the bridegroom for a honeymoon trip, on returning from which they will reside at Ashgrove, Ont.

Obituary

Try California This Winter

Here are Reasons Why it is so Popular for the Winter Vacation

Right now Californians are enjoying summer climate. There are 5000 miles of motor roads. You are always near the beaches. You can visit dozens of Hot Springs—see the old Missions of the Spanish Padres—see Mexico in a train or motor journey in a few hours.

Popular itinerary is to California via Chicago and back by way of Vancouver and Victoria—or vice versa. In this way you cover more territory and see more varied sights.

Any agent of Canadian National Railways will be glad to help you plan your itinerary, furnish you with costs and give you any other information you desire. 2t

Notes and Comments

ONTARIO is now the only province in Canada in which creameries supply free cans for shipping cream; and if creamerymen stick together in the matter it seems likely that soon Ontario will follow the others. At the Western Ontario Dairymen's Convention in London the other day the creamerymen who were present held a meeting of their own, and decided to support a movement for the withdrawal of free cans. There are far too many holdouts, speakers said, cans which should be transporting cream are holding maple sap or syrup, gasoline or home brew, and one said that one of his cans had been employed in delivering swamp whiskey.

THE Retail Merchants Association is campaigning for the removal of one or other of the two five-cent pieces now in circulation. The larger five-cent piece of nickel is probably in the nature of an experiment, and that may be the reason why the smaller coin of silver is still allowed in circulation. But surely there is no need to continue the experiment indefinitely. Probably by this time the Government knows which it prefers. Nobody else does. The silver coin is so small that it is apt to get lost in the shuffle, and the nickel coin so large that the cashier is apt to mistake it for a quarter. The two together are a nuisance. One should be taken out of circulation.

WE DO not know that Mr. Bowes of Chatsworth, can lay much claim to success in his weather predictions for the month of January. He prognosticated the first ten days would be very cold; strong winds; heavy snowfalls; balance very mild and calm. The first part of the month was anything but severe, while the latter half started off with a very perceptible drop in the temperature and was extremely cold in the final week. The fact of the matter is we cannot see how Mr. Bowes has any hope of foretelling climatic conditions when the most skilled weather forecasters with telegraphic knowledge of the direction of wind and wave thousands of miles away with all scientific appliances to boot are unable to make accurate calculations more than a few days ahead. We imagine it would be as easy to guess the names of individuals in an unknown crowd as to forecast the brand of weather a year ahead.—Kincardine Review-Reporter.

THE council of every municipality should take note that it is required under The Public Health Act, as amended at last session of the Legislature, to enter into an agreement with the medical officer of health or some other doctor for the medical care of indigents who, in the opinion of the head of the municipality or its relief officer, are unable to pay for the necessary attendance, and who are not cared for in a public or private hospital. The agreement is to provide for fair and reasonable remuneration for the service rendered. If the municipality does not enter into such an agreement, the medical officer of health is deemed the indigent medical officer, and is to be paid accordingly, aside from his salary as a medical officer of health, and where the medical officer of health claims that either his salary or remuneration for care of indigents is not fair and just, and the corporation takes no action, he may apply, as provided by section 52 of The Public Health Act, to the County or District Judge, who may by his order determine the amount to be paid.

Chicken Thieves Jailed

Hugh Wilcox and Gordon Hunter of Esquesing and Nelson Osborne, Chinguacousy, found guilty of stealing chickens, were sentenced by Judge Elliott on Monday of last week. Wilcox and Hunter were each given one year in the Ontario Reformatory at Guelph, and Osborne one month in the county jail at Milton.

Driver's License Suspended for Life

A Stratford man, Alfred Meeks, pleaded guilty before Judge Gillovan recently to a charge of reckless driving, the result of which was that bodily harm was caused to Alfred Kreis, of Fullarton. Meeks was given suspended sentence, but his motor driving license was suspended for life and as a result he will no longer have the privilege of driving on the public highways of Ontario.

Beer by the Glass

According to one of the Toronto daily papers, George Hillmer, M. P. P. for Halton, said, in reference to the sale of beer by the glass, as is being advocated in certain quarters by certain interested individuals, that when the Government introduces such a measure he would vote for it. Perhaps our local member is pretty sure that the Government will never introduce such a measure, hence he is pretty safe in saying what he did—Reformer.

Extract from Criminal Code

The Humane Society wishes to draw attention to the following quotation from the criminal code:—

"Every one is guilty of an offence and liable, on summary conviction, to a penalty not exceeding one hundred dollars over and above the amount of injury done, or to three months' imprisonment with or without hard labour, who wilfully kills, maims, wounds, poisons or injures any dog, cat, bird, beast, or other animal. . . . . but being either the subject of larceny at common law, or being ordinarily kept in a state of confinement, or kept for any lawful purpose."
