Obituary

David Swackhammer

A figure long familiar in the vicinity of Limehouse and Churchill and throughout the Township, passed on when David Swackhammer died at his home at Limehouse Wednesday evening of last week. About two weeks ago Mr. Swackhammer suffered a paralytic stroke from which he only partially recovered. He was able to be about and his sudden passing came as a district shock to his family. David Swackhammer was born in Erin Township on December 23, 1844, a son of the late David Swackhammer. On March 26, 1873, he was joined in wedlock to Mary Dukes, who, with a family of four daughters and two sons, is left to mourn his loss. The couple have always lived in Erin or Esquesing Townships, and deceased was well known throughout the countryside as he had travelled over much of the ground with his threshing outfit or on mill work. About fifteen years ago he had the misfortune to lose an arm while operating a cutting box. Of a family of eight, six members survive: Mrs. Laura McKechnie, Toledo, Ohio; Miss Margaret Swackhammer, Limehouse; Frederick, New Westminster, B.C.; Vernon of Albany, N. Y.; Miss Nellie, Detroit, Mich.; and Mrs. Lila Drefenthal, Hollis, L. I., New York. One daughter, Mrs. Minnie Adams, and one son, Robert, predeceased him. The funeral was held on Saturday afternoon and was largely attended. The services at the home and at Churchill United Church were conducted by the pastor of the deceased, Rev. H. Caldwell, assisted by Rev. Mr. McLean of the Presbyterian Church. The large number of floral contributions bore mute testimony to the regard in which Mr. Swackhammer was held by his family and a wide circle of friends. Interment was made in the family plot at Churchill Cemetery.

Erin

At an early hour on Sunday, July 1st, there passed to the Great Beyond, one of Erin's most highly honoured and best known citizens in the person of John Paul Bush. The late Mr. Bush was taken suddenly ill of angina pectoris on Wednesday, June 27th. He rallied for a time but the end came suddenly at one a.m. Sunday morning. Deceased was a son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Jefferson Bush and was born at Brisbane, Erin Township, 66 years ago.

Miss Margaret Bingham of Georgetown, is spending her vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Bingham.

Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Armstrong of Mayfield, and her mother Mrs. D. H. Cation, of Brampton, visited on Sunday with Mr. R. S. McClure and his sisters, eighth line.

Mr. John Bingham and his son Master Fred of Ottawa; Mrs. Mary Bennett and daughter Miss Minnie of Acton, visited Erin friends on Sunday, July 1st.—Advocate.

Milton

Messrs. L. J. Maude of Toronto and his father-in-law, J. B. Scott, of Milton, leave to-day on a trip to Winnipeg, Brandon, Edmonton, Calgary, Vancouver and Victoria, B.C. They expect to be away three months.

The following people from Milton attended the Houston reunion at Guelph on Monday: Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Norris, Mr. and Mrs. Victor Morris and family, Mr. and Mrs. Max Norris and family, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon McNabb and family, Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Nixon, Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Dawson, Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Brownridge and family, Mr. and Mrs. P. Hartley, Mr. and Mrs. George Lush, Mr. and Mrs. R. Anderson and family, Mrs. and Miss Myrtle Boyd and Mrs. Calvin Fleming.

In the trotting events at Newmarket on Monday, Irene Private, owned by Dr. C. H. Heslop of Milton, won first prize in the 2.30 class. In the first heat, when the trotters rounded the back stretch, Harry Parker tripped in the hobbles, throwing the driver, R. Ballantyne, from his seat in such a way as to completely entangle the runner up, Irene Private, who threw Dr. Heslop, the driver well over fifteen feet in the air. He came down on the shaft and sustained several broken ribs and a badly lacerated face.—Champion.

Ballinafad

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Shortill and children spent the holiday at Mrs. Shortill's home at Brighton.

Mrs. C. A. Wright of Toronto, spent the holiday at the home of her cousin Mrs. Alfred Soper.

Mr. Jarvis is still confined to his bed, but is improving slowly.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Shortill of London, spent Sunday with Mr. Shortill's brother, Mr. H. Shortill.

Mrs. Frank Binnie returned home from Parry Sound after spending five weeks at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Tait.

July 5th.

Card of Thanks

Mrs. D. Swackhammer and family desire to express their appreciation of the kindly and neighborly deeds and words of sympathy expressed during their recent bereavement when the beloved husband and father was called home

Jack Speill Again

Here I am again. Did you read my letter last week? Did you go to W. R. Watson and did he tell you what splendid results Gallagher's Blood Purifier and Gallagher's Kidney Remedy gave for many common ailments? Did you get a copy of "An Interesting True Story?" Did you notice the Blue Carton and Label which characterizes all our goods? Better still, did you BUY? Just get a bottle of Gallagher's Cough Syrup, note its purely herbal contents, its pleasant taste, that it contains no poisonous drug or narcotic, and tones the digestive system instead of hurting the stomach as most cough syrups do. Thank you. See you next week.

Yours truly,
Jack Speill

Lacrosse

Hamilton defeated Georgetown by 5 to 3 in an intermediate O.A.L.A. fixture at the H.A.A.A. grounds, Hamilton, on Saturday afternoon, but the locals had to go through 20 minutes of overtime play before obtaining the verdict. The first ten minutes of overtime failed to produce a counter after the teams had finished the regulation time with three goals each, but in the final ten minutes, Hamilton ran in two, Oliver and Louth registering the winning tallies. The game was close throughout, but it was far from being high-class contest. The evenness of the struggle maintained the interest for a small crowd

For Hamilton, Brown, Oliver and Louch were best, while Gordon, who played goal in Rohmer's absence, played a strong game. Jacques, goal, and Hill, Walsh and Graham for the visitors were outstanding. The teams:—

Georgetown—Jacques, goal; Harris, point; St. Clair, cover; Smith, third defence; Hill, second defence; Stapleton, first defence; Casey, centre; Claridge third home; Graham, second home; Ingram, first home; Halpin, outside; Walsh, inside; Gibson, Salmon and Townsend, spares.

Hamilton—Gordon, Goal; Connell, point; Yeates, cover; Gannon, first defence; Black, second defence; Hewitt, third defence; R. Copperthwaite, centre; Oliver, third home; L. Copperthwaite, second home; Thomas, first home; Louch, outside; Brown, inside.

Referee—McDonald.
