LOCAL NEWS

—Christmas two weeks from next Tuesday.

—Have you done your Christmas shopping yet?

—The Salvation Army will hold a Sale of Work on Saturday, Dec. 8th, in the Town Hall.

—How about the Community Christmas Tree? There are a lot of kiddies looking forward to it.

—Ashgrove United Church Sunday School entertainment will be held on Wednesday evening, Dec. 19th.

—From now until Christmas we are going to cut prices to a finish. Look in our window.—J. Roney.—1t.

—The Canadian Legion are getting their club rooms in shape. They have secured the premises above Carroll's grocery.

—The theory that Santa Claus is everywhere is no longer a theory but a reality these days, and until after December 25.

—Read what our local merchants are offering you in their advertisements in the Herald before you think of buying out of town.

—Big preparations are being made for the Firemen's Annual Ball and Supper on December 31st. Keep this date open and be there.

—The Esquesing Women's Institute will hold their regular meeting in the Council Chamber, Stewarttown, on Tuesday, Dec. 11th, at 2.30 p.m.—1t.

—It doesn't seem to matter who you meet or talk to these days; it's the same story that "Business is good," and the prospects are that it will be even better.

—Esquesing Township Council will hold its last regular meeting for the year on Saturday, Dec. 15th. Nominations will take place on Monday, December 31st.

—Hunters report big jack-rabbits on the increase in Halton county, and a ten or twelve-pounder is frequently bagged. As a delicacy the humble little cotton-tail still has the call.

—While chopping down trees in the Cemetery last week Wesley Booth had the misfortune to cut his left foot severely with the axe. The wound is healing nicely and he is getting around again.

—The Bell Telephone Company of Canada is publishing a series of interesting advertisements giving the people an insight into the business of this great company. The ads are appearing in this paper.

—Have your eyes examined by O. T. Walker, Eyesight Specialist, at Watson's Drug Store, Georgetown, the second Wednesday of every month. Phone 76 for appointment. —tf.

—First in the list of Canadian Farm papers is the Family Herald and Weekly Star, Montreal. It's only $1 a year or three years for $2. It is attracting world-wide attention.

—Wesley Piggott, Guelph Road, Nassagaweya, will hold a Clearing Sale of his entire herd of choice Jersey Cows on Wednesday, December 5th, at 2 o'clock. R. J. Kerr, Auctioneer.—2t —Dufferin School S. S. No. 10, Esquesing will hold their Christmas Concert Thursday evening, December 13, at 8 p.m. Talented artists of Acton will take a leading part in the programme. Admission 25c. and 15c.—1tp.

—If Santa Claus takes on many more forms and appears many more places at the same time, with different voices this phenomenon is going to take some real ability to furnish an explanation that will pass.

—The Family Herald and Weekly Star of Montreal is not only a money maker but a money saver to the farmers of Canada, while the farmer's family circle, in the accompanying magazine, gets what is admitted to be the best of all.

—Two more newspapers have been forced to amalgamate as the result of the high cost of publishing a newspaper. The amalgamation of the two weekly papers in Tweed, the News and the Advocate, took place this week, the News absorbing its competitor.

Fell and Broke Thigh.

Mrs. O. T. Coo met with a painful accident on Sunday night last when she fell and broke her left thigh. Mrs. Coo was just recovering from a severe illness and had been sitting up for a short time. In rising from a sitting position on her bed to take a step she fell with the above result. She has the sympathy of many friends in her affliction, and all hope for her speedy restoration to health.

Rex Theatre.

Wednesday, Dec. 5—"The Docks of New York", a gusty drama of waterfront life, starring George Bancroft. No. 7 "Tarzan The Mighty". Comedy, "Should Married Men Go Home?"

Friday, Dec. 7—"The Smart Set" comedy: "Companionate Marriage". Fox News.

Saturday, Dec. 8—Matinee at 3 o'clock. "The Patsy" a picture for the whole family, starring Marion Davies. Comedy "The Gloom Chaser". Rabbit Cartoon "The Sky Scrappers" "The Pleets In" with Clara Bow.

Moore—Morrow.

At the home of the bride, on Saturday, Miss Marjorie Morrow, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Morrow, Brampton, was married to Mr. Geo. Moore, son of Mr. and the late Mrs. Joseph Moore, Brampton; the ceremony being performed by Rev. Mr. Laing, Bellwood. After a honeymoon trip in Western Ontario, they will reside in Brampton. The office staff of the Williams' Shoe Co., with which the bride was connected, gave them a handsome floor lamp, and associates of the shipping room at the Dale Estate gave the groom a mantel clock.

The Findlay-Stalker Wedding.

On the fiftieth anniversary of the marriage of the late Mr. and Mrs. John Stalker, their daughter, Minnie, was united in marriage with Mr. Joseph Findlay, of Toronto, at the Presbyterian Manse, Acton, on Thursday, the 22nd inst. After the marriage ceremony, which was performed by the bride's pastor, Rev. A. C. Stewart, M.A., and which was witnessed by a few intimate friends, a reception was held at the Stalker homstead, where about forty relatives and friends of the bride and groom, mostly from Toronto, where present to offer congratulations to the happy couple. For fifty years the Stalker home has been noted for its hospitality, and on this occasion, true to former tradition, a very lavish lunch was served. The one thing that marred the pleasure of the hour was the absence of the only brother, William Stalker, who as the result of an accident, is lying in the General Hospital, Guelph. In his absence, as host, Mr. Hazen Graham, a brother-in-law, in a few well-chosen words, welcomed the guests. A wonderful array of presents, among which were several substantial cheques, testified to the high esteem in which the bride is held. Congratulatory cablegrams were received from relatives and friends of the groom in the Old Land. The bride was charmingly gowned in biege georgette and wore a handsome fur-trimmed travelling coat with hat, shoes and hose to match. After the reception the bride and groom motored to Toronto, where they took train for Montreal, leaving on the S. S. Laurentic for the groom's home in Glasgow, Scotland, where they will spend a few months, before returning to take up their residence in Toronto.—Free Press.

ELECTORS OF GEORGETOWN

Kindly accept my sincere thanks for the support tendered me in the election on Monday last. May you all have every happiness in the coming holiday season, and your prosperity as well as the prosperity of our town be greater in the year to come. Sincerely, LeRoy Dale.

To the Ratepayers of Georgetown

I wish to thank the electorate of Georgetown for the signal expression of confidence which you gave me on Monday, and take this opportunity to say that during 1929 your interests shall be my interests.—D. McIntyre.

Thanks to Electors

I hereby sincerely thank all those in Ward One who supported me in the election on Monday and shall endeavor to serve you faithfully in the office to which I have been elected.—W. C. Bezsey.

Thanks to Electors

To all those who supported me in the election in Ward One on Monday last, I convey my sincere thanks, and shall endeavor to look after the best interests of all in my office as Councillor.—Harold Cleave.

To Electors of Georgetown

I sincerely thank the electors of Ward 2 for electing me by acclamation to the position of Councillor for the year 1929. I shall endeavor to perform my duties in the best interests of all concerned.—Geo. W. Davis.

To the Electors of Ward Three

I beg to extend to my friends and supporters at the recent nominations and polls, my hearty thanks; that their support and votes were not entirely misplaced is shown by the very narrow majority of the winners. To the successful candidates I extend congratulations.—L. F. Denison.
