BUSH HORSES

Every Tuesday during March and April we will sell 100 bush horses. Horses are in excellent condition owing to favourable weather conditions this Winter.

These horses are right out of hard work and anyone requiring seasoned horses ready to go right to work should not miss this opportunity to fill their requirements, as each and every horse will be sold by auction without reserve.

THE REPOSITORY

18-28 Nelson St., Toronto, Ont.

Collier Bros. Proprietors.

—I have no left over's, such as not called for C.O.D.'s, properly speaking misfits. Having long experience in the clothing business I can assure each and every man, young and old, perfect satisfaction. Come and be convinced.—J. T. Collier, Georgetown.—1t

TERRA COTTA

A number of our young people were very kindly entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. Eaves, Railway Ave. The event was held in honor of their eldest daughter, Miss Lillian, she having reached her twentieth birthday on Thursday evening. Miss Eaves was also made the happy recipient of many valuable and also useful presents. The Terra Cotta orchestra very ably supplied the music while Messrs. J. McLeod and Norman. J. Cain very ably performed the duties as Masters of Ceremonies. They all report a good time.

Mr. R. J. Stringer is spending a few days with Mr. and Mrs. C. McKewon of Acton.

Miss Albein Best of Toronto spent a few days with her aunt, Mrs. J. Eaves.

Auction sales are still the general order of the day.

Our merchants all report trade quite brisk at present.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Burgess are moving to their new farm recently leased from Mrs. J. Watkins near Norval Station.

Mr. H. Logan is busy these days shipping stone from here.

Fire at James Mullholland's.

About 2 o'clock last Thursday afternoon the firemen were called out to a blaze at the home of Mr. James Mulholland. Fortunately the fire was extinguished before much damage was done and it was not necessary to turn on the hydrant water.

Prof. Duxbury Coming.

The United Church has been fortunate in securing Prof. John Duxbury, England's Eminent Reader, for both services on Easter Sunday. In the morning he will give his masterly interpretation of that wonderful poem, "The Book of Job"; and in the evening he will recite passages of Scripture which he has woven together to make a complete story of the mission of "The King of Kings", while among men. Rev. Dr. Parkes Cadman, New York, says "Nothing of its kind has been given in my church in the last 24 years which in any way equalled Prof. Duxbury's really wonderful rendition of the Book of Job." No admission—Silver Collection.

Successful St. Patrick's Tea.

Marigolds and Irish decorations made the hall of the Library look very bright for the Annual St. Patrick's Tea given by the Local Council of Women. The President, Mrs. F. A. Harley, and Mrs. H. W. Kennedy received the guests. The tea was in charge of Mrs. H. R. Mimms, Miss H. Lawson, Miss Ruston and Mrs. Whitmee who were assisted by the Misses Constance Deans, Margery MacKenzie, Aileen Glass, Mary Reeve and Madeline Erwin. Mrs. A. N. Frith and Mrs. Henry Dickie presided at the tea table. The home-made cooking was in charge of Mrs. A. Reeve and Mrs. B. Leslie. A delightful musical program was given as follows: piano solos by Miss Jean MacKenzie, Miss Aileen Moore and Mr. John Crichton; duetts by the Misses Doris Sykes and Helen MacDonald; the Misses Maisie and Maude MacDonald; Miss Margaret Dickie and Master George Dickie.

Fined for Cruelty to Animals.

Inspector Alleway of the Ontario Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals, accompanied by the Inspector of the Georgetown Branch of the Humane Society made an inspection recently of some of the more serious cases of ill-treatment and neglect of horses reported to the Georgetown Branch. They visited in all five different premises and in the majority of cases found conditions very bad. One owner was ordered to clean up and repair his stable. In another case the horse had already died or been destroyed. These two cases were in Acton. In Esquesing one crippled animal was humanely destroyed and at the same premises another horse is under observation. In the case where the animal was destroyed, the owner was summoned before Police Magistrate Moore, found guilty and fined $5.00 and costs or a term in jail at hard labor. Two compalints at Terra Cotta were further investigated and in both cases the animal was found in such a condition that it was destroyed. The owner of one of these animals appeared in court, pleaded guilty, and was let off on suspended sentence with a warning and upon payment of costs. The Society trusts that the above report may serve as a warning to others who may be ill treating and underfeeding their animals.

More Hydro for Esquesing.

A well attended meeting of farmers of the neighborhood was held in Ashgrove Church on Friday night when Hydro Engineers discussed the installing of Hydro in that part of the township. In all probability seven or eight miles of power line will be built this year to accommodate thirty or more farmers in this neighborhood.

Barn and Contents Burned.

On Saturday morning about 5.30 the barn in the rear of Erwin & Coldham's butcher shop, belonging to J. J. Gibbons, was discovered to be on fire. The flames had made much headway before anyone noticed it and the building and contents were completely destroyed. The splendid work of the fire brigade and the falling rain and snow saved the surrounding buildings. Erwin & Coldham's new delivery truck which was destroyed was only partly covered by insurance. On the other contents of the barn they had no insurance. The building was partly covered by insurance.

Very quietly at the United Church parsonage, Norval on March 12th, the marriage took place of Miss Edith Maud Caseley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Caseley, and Mr. John Murray Marshall, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. James Marshall, of Norval, the ceremony being performed by Rev. N. D. McKinnon, in the presence of immediate relatives. The bride wore a beige travelling costume, with silver hat, beige coat trimmed with kolinsky, and was unattended. Following the ceremony a supper was served at the home of the bride, the young couple leaving afterwards for their new home at Mount Pleasant.

On the eve of their marriage, Edith Caseley and James Marshall were feted at a banquet given in their honor Monday night, when a party of seventy residents of the village waited on the bride-elect at her home to convey felicitations to the couple. Mrs. Gordon Brown, together with the Misses Clara Bignell, Eva Day and Dorothy Watson presented a musical programme, accompanied by Mrs. J. King at the piano, while an interesting account of a trip to Florida was given by Miss Marion Gray.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Gurney, Wingham, announce the engagement of their only daughter, Marjorie Wilhelmine, to Mr. R. Eidon McKinney, of Toronto, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. J. McKinney, of Bluevale, the marriage to take place early in April.

Mr. and Mrs. N. F. Moore received word last week from Major Clyde R. Scott, Assistant Director of Military Record, that after careful and systematic search of the earea, it has been found impossible to locate and register the grave of their son, Cpl. John L. Moore, who was killed in action in the Great War. Arrangements have been made to have the name of Corporal Moore engraved on "The Canadian Memorial to the Missing," now in course of erection at Vimy Ridge, France. This memorial will commemorate some 11,400 Canadian soldiers whose graves cannot be located.

GLENWILLIAMS

The Credit was on its annual rampage on Thursday last. It ruined the roads and also some property.

The sympathy of the community is extended to the Norton family in their recent sad bereavement.

David Joseph Halpin, for some years official reporter of the Senate at Ottawa, has been appointed editor of Senate debates in succession to the late Albert Horton. Mr. Halpin has been many years in the government service and previous to taking his position in the Senate, was a member of the staffs of the department of Labor and the department of agriculture. Mr. Halpin is a son of Mr. and Mrs. William Halpin, Glenwilliams.

Taken suddenly ill three weeks ago with a mysterious malady, thought at first to have been caused from infection received while working about his garage at Norval, Charles Wellington Norton died in Guelph Hospital on Tuesday morning, March 12th. He was in his thirty-third years and was a son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred W. Norton, well-known residents of Glenwilliams. His father resided in this district over forty years ago and was head spinner with McMurchy & Hillis, Huttonville.

The late Mr. Norton was born at Glenwilliams and had lived there continuously until a year ago, when he purchased a garage business at Norval. Two weeks ago he noticed a swelling on his arm and complained of feeling ill. Three days later he was rushed to the hospital at Guelph, where it was learned that his condition was hopeless as the poison had spread through his system, the disease from which he suffered being the second one of its kind to be treated at the Guelph Hospital. Mr. Norton was a returned soldier and a very likeable young man, held in high esteem by a large circle of friends. He enlisted with the 55th Battery, C.F.A., at Guelph, and went overseas in 1916, serving in France with the 1st Canadian Heavy Howitzer Battery. He was with the army of occupation at Cologne as a member of the military police. Mr. Norton was a devoted member of L.O.L. No. 346, Glenwilliams, his father being Halton County Master. He was a Conservative in politics and a member of St. Paul's Anglican Church, Norval. He is survived by his wife, who was Beatrice Norton, two daughters, Aileen and Wilhelmina, and one son, Jimmie; also his parents, five brothers, Fred, Hamilton; Sandy, Paulsborough, N.J.; Roy and Allan, Georgetown, and Thomas, Glenwilliams; and three sisters, Mrs. Roy Hiltz, and Mrs. Joseph McMeekenny, Glenwilliams, and Mrs. James Dolby, Guelph.

The funeral on Friday afternoon to Glenwilliams Cemetery was semi-military and there was a large turn-out of members of the Canadian Legion who acted as escort. Rev. R. S. Boyd, also a member of the Legion officiated, with others, at the home and grave. The pall bearers were: William Roney, Henry Shepherd, Andrew Hunter, Thomas Grieve, Thomas Allen Sr., Wesley Breman. There were beautiful floral tributes from Mr. and Mrs. F. Varey; Mrs. Sutherland and Josephine; Mr. and Mrs. D. Tracey and family; Mr. L. E. Black; Canadian Legion; Mildred, Grover and Mary Norton; Employees of Provincial Paper Mills; Levina L.O.B.A. No. 555, of Guelph; Ladies' Aid, United Church, Glenwilliams; L.O.L. No. 346, Glenwilliams; J. L. Norton and family; Mrs. S. Morris; brothers and sisters; father and mother; I.T.B. Lodge, Glenwilliams; Mr. Oscar Huntley; Alliance Paper Mills; Mr. and Mrs. T. Dobbie. Among those from out of town who attended the funeral of the late C. W. Norton were:—Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Norton, Paulsborough, N.J.; Mr. T. Dobbie, Valleyfield, Que.; Mr. H. Dobbie, Sr. and Jr., Toronto; Mr. F. Norton, Hamilton; Mr. and Mrs. J Dobbie, Mrs. T. Marshall, Mrs. T. Lappin, Mrs. J. Wyles, Acton; Miss Martin, Hanover.
