Successful Lawn Social.

The beautiful home and grounds of Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Fleck, on Glen Road were thrown open on Saturday afternoon when the "Royal Circle" of which Mrs. Fleck is leader entertained the congregation of Knox Presbyterian Church, and their friends. Ideal weather and the grounds gorgeous with peonies, iris, violets and pansies in profuse bloom, made a perfect setting for a lawn social. Tea was served on the lawn, the tables being decorated with English violets and yellow violas in crystal holders. A sale of aprons and cake was held but these quickly disappeared. Mrs. Fleck and the Circle wish to thank their many friends for helping to make the afternoon both happy and profitable.

Hall Re-Union.

Members of the Hall clan, early settlers of the Churchville district, held their annual reunion on June 5th at the home of Victor Hall, Trafalgar, at the homestead, settled 62 years ago by George Hall. Members of the family were present from Guelph, Toronto, London, Georgetown, Churchville, Acton, Streetsville Milton and Kitchener. A pleasant day was spent in the open, and supper was served on the broad verandah to seventy guests. Mr. Allan Houghton, Toronto, was elected president and Miss Myrtle Wilson will be secretary-treasurer. George B. Hall, 81 years of age, was the oldest male member of the family present, and Mrs. Byard McCurdy, 86, the oldest woman member, while Baby Adele, 9 months, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Hall, Hornby, had the distinction of being the latest arrival in the family.—Banner.

Halton Presbytery.

The new Presbytery of Halton met for organization in Palermo United Church on Friday afternoon, the 14th inst., when the following officers were elected: Chairman, Rev. P. O. Farrel, Bronte; Secretary, Rev. G. S. Cassmore; Treasurer, Rev. J. W. Crawford; Convenors were also chosen of the various committees in connection with the work of the Presbytery. The enlarged Presbytery of Guelph came together for the first time in Norfolk St. Church, Guelph, on Tuesday, June 18, at 10 a.m. The following officers were chosen: Chairman, Rev. R. S. E. Large B.D., Fergus; Secretary, Rev. W. A. Bradley D.D., Aberfoyle; Treasurer, Mr. E. L. Robinson, Gowanstown. Standing committees with their respective Convenors were struck, and routine business of various kinds was dealt with. The next meeting will be held in Drayton between the middle and end of September, the exact date being left to the decision of the chairman and Secretary.

Townsend—LaGrow.

A wedding that united two very popular young people of Cheltenham, took place in the United Church in that village on Tuesday, when Mr. George Edward Townsend, son of Mr. Townsend and the late Josiah Townsend, of Cheltenham, and Miss Mary Elizabeth (Mayme) LaGrow, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William P. LaGrow, were married by Rev. Dr. J. H. MacVicar, pastor of the church. Members of the congregation had beautified the church with masses of tall ferns, spirea and snowdrops, creating a lovely effect. The lovely young bride was brought in and given away by her father, and was wearing a handsome gown of white taffeta, made in period fashion, and draped with chantilly lace. She wore a silk net veil, bordered with chantilly and caught at either side of the face with a cluster of orange blossoms, and her bouquet was of pink roses and lily of the valley, in a shower. Miss Dorothy Carter, was bridesmaid, and made a charming attendant in blue taffeta overlaid with tulle, white shoes and stockings, large white picture hat and long white gloves. Her bouquet was of pink sweet peas and carnations. Mr. Fred Near, nephew of the groom, was best man, and the ushers were Messrs. Joe Dinwiddie and Clarence Lyons. Following the ceremony, the guests, numbering ninety, motored to Ferndale Park, where a reception and dejeuneur were held in the pavilion.
