Wrigglesworth—Stephens

"Naulahka," Clearview Farm, Hornby, was the scene of a pretty wedding on Saturday, Sept. 10th, when Margaret Evelyn Stephens, Reg. N., eldest daughter of the late Mr. John H. Stephens and Mrs. Stephens, was married to Clifford Sifton Wrigglesworth, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Wrigglesworth of Hornby. Rev. John A. Neill conducted the ceremony. To the strains of Lohengrin's Wedding March, played by Miss Elsie Neill, the bride entered the parlor with her uncle, Mr. Jasper B. Howes. She was lovely in her wedding dress of ivory radium lace and georgette, with tulle veil, held in place with orange blossoms. She carried Butterfly roses and lily-of-the-valley and wore a white gold pendant, the gift of the groom. The bridesmaid, Miss Isabel Stephens, sister of the bride, wore a flowered dress of pussy willow satin and carried pink talisman roses. Miss Lois Merry made a sweet little flower girl, dressed in pale blue silk crepe de chine and carried a basket of pink carnations. Mr. Howard Wrigglesworth attended the groom. During the signing of the register, Miss Isabel Stephens sang. Mr. and Mrs. Wrigglesworth left for a motor trip to the Western Provinces, the bride wearing a mahogany colored knitted suit, with velvet hat and accessories to match. They will reside on the Wrigglesworth homestead at Hornby.

Bludd—Wright

The home of Mrs. Harry Wright of Georgetown was prettily decorated with flowers for the marriage on Saturday last of her eldest daughter, Kathleen Elnor, to Mr. Edward Bludd of Glenwilliams, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Bludd. Rev. W. G. O. Thompson officiated and Miss Aileen Glass played the wedding music. The bride who was given in marriage by her uncle Mr. T. C. Goodeck wore a graceful gown of white point d'esprit over white satin, her veil of Brussel net edged with sweetheart embroidery formed a cap, held in place with orange blossoms. She carried a bouquet of pink roses and baby's breath. She was attended by her sister, Miss Dorothy Wright, who wore a pale velvet brocaded taffeta with chiffon velvet cap and turban to match, and carried a bouquet of pink roses and baby's breath. The groom was attended by Mr. Harry Jeffery of Toronto. The bride's mother was hostess at a reception after the ceremony, when she received in brown chiffon and lace, wearing a corsage of roses and lily of the valley. The groom's mother who assisted, wears in a smart figured crepe. Leaving for their honeymoon the bride looked pretty in a grey crepe dress and matching accessories with maroon hat and coat, the coat being trimmed with grey squirrel. On their return they will reside in Georgetown.

Concert at Limehouse

Last Thursday evening a full house heard a "play" of rare, historical and instructive character, entitled "Homing Doves." This play was staged by the Girls' Look-Out Club of Limehouse, and was splendidly interpreted.

The caste was: Miss Olive Marshall, as Lady Simcoe; Miss Lorena Mitchell as wealthy I.O.D.E. visitor; and Miss Nellie Lane, as Missionary Nurse; Miss Tuxitala (real name Miss Mary Ellis); Miss Nellie Scrymgeour as Dr. Jack Doig; Mr. Wm. Newton as Dr. Daniel Doig (Olmond); Miss Beatrice Lane, as Mary Jane Thompson, companion of Miss Simcoe; Mr. Harry Knight, as Og the well-known wit; Miss Olive Given, as Lady Winington, and Mr. Wilfred Mino, as Lord Winington; Miss Eva Sinclair, as Patroness of the hospital; Mr. Herb. Sinclair, as Mayor of the Town; Miss Marjorie Cross, as the Matron and Miss Jean Given as nurse; Miss Ella McDonald, speaking for the I.O.D.E.; Miss W. Price as I.O.D.E. attendant; Mr. Bob Lane, and Mr. E. Given as Orderlies.

This little drama has commended itself very highly within the community. A few have sought that it be reproduced elsewhere.

The rest of the programme, which consisted of music and recitations, was selected from Canadian artists. The whole evening's programme was of Canadian art. Others taking part were: Mrs. A. W. Norton, Mrs. Sam Gisby, Miss Willa Price, Miss Grindell, Mrs. A. L. Howard and Lillian Howard. Accompanists were Mrs. Howard and Miss Nellie Lane.

GENERAL NEWS

Dr. Abraham Groves of Fergus, oldest family doctor and modern scientist, a leader in newest surgery, celebrated his 85th birthday on Sept. 8th. He is still going strong, bright and cheery and about daily.

After observing daylight saving for over four months, Guelph reverted to standard time last Sunday. It was originally planned to continue on fast time until Sept. 25, but the decision to go back earlier was made by the city council at its first meeting after the summer vacation.

Exports of Canadian condensed milk in July registereed an increase of 33 per cent over July, 1931, exports of evaporated milk were practically doubled and milk powder exports increased by 27 per cent.—Department of Agriculture.

Thomas McBeath, Bruce County's oldest pioneer resident, died last Thursday at Paisley. Until a few weeks ago Mr. McBeath had been in the best of health and had retained full possession of his faculties, but he was forced to take to his bed about a month ago. Since coming to this country in 1852, deceased had lived all of that time with the exception of two years in or near Paisley.

About eight-thirty Tuesday morning, fire of unknown origin broke out in the large bank barn, the propetry of D. R. McDonald, Lot 3, 5th Line, West Caledon. The building which was practically new, was of wood frame and steel cover throughout and contained all of the season's crop. This is the second heavy loss by fire to Mr. McDonald; in the spring of 1915, his barn was destroyed by fire, when struck by lightning.

Frederick George Atkinson, K.C., of Battleford, son of the late George Atkinson, for many years Warden of Peel County, License Commissioner and Reeve of Caledon township, and the late Jane Glassford Atkinson, of Caledon, Ont., died on Aug. 31st. in the Saskatoon Hospital, where he was receiving treatment for an affection of the heart.

Arrival of an experimental shipment of cherries in England from Western Canada may open a new market for the fruit. The shipment arrived at its destination in perfect condition. Arriving just at a time when the best of the British crop of black cherries had been hard hit by heavy rains, with consequent bursting of the local production on the trees, it got a break which should go a long way toward establishing an important new outlet for this crop.

When a rear tire on the fruit truck of Brown's Fruit store blew out the other day on the highway, the machine went out of control and turned over in the ditch. The accident occurred just outside of Georgetown. Fortunately Mr. A. Brown, who was driving, was not injured and the truck was not seriously damaged. Little damage was also sustained to the load of fruit.

T. O. Dolson, prominent Holstein breeder, Brampton, won grand junior championship and a first prize with his yearling Holstein bull at the Toronto exhibition.

D. E. Galloway, Montreal, recently appointed assistant vice-president in charge of Canadian National telegraphs and telephones, has taken the Frederick Nichols homestead, lakeshore west, Oakville, for a term of years.

CREAMERY BUTTER PRODUCTION

A report just published by the Dominion Bureau of statistics statts:—"The production of creamery butter in Canada in 1931 amounted to 225,862,635 pounds, valued at $60,168,738, compared with 185,751,061 pounds, valued at $56,670,504 in 1930. The decrease in value is due to the lower prices prevailing in 1931, the average price per pound having dropped from 30.51 cents in 1930 to 22.22 cents in 1931. The quantity of creamery butter produced in 1931 is the largest ever recorded by the dairying industry of Canada and exceeds the previous high year of 1930 by 40,051,574 pounds, or 22 per cent. Production figures for Ontario and Quebec are fairly close, the former showing 77,366,710 pounds and the latter 69,653,540 pounds."

Dogs were kept as pets in Gt. Britain some 10,000 years ago, according to discoveries made by excavators near Avebury, Wilts.

HERE AND THERE

The first Royalty to broadcast in Gt. Britain was the Prince of Wales, who spoke from his desk at York House.

The total population of the world is now estimated at 2,012,000,800 of whom 506,000,000 live in Europe.

There are more spinsters in the Hornsey district of London (Eng.) than in any other part of the country.

Horse traffic in London is heaviest at Tower Bridge, where it still forms more than a third of the total.

Something like 15,000 people, men and women, of the British Isles, went to prison last year for "wilfully refusing to pay" their debts.

Russia is growing rapidly in population, the present figure being 127,000,000, an increase of 3,000,000 on last year.

There are still curious industries in London. Fishing finds work for ninety men and ten women, while 2,040 men and sixty women are employed in mining.

Built 400 years ago at Dennington, England, a Tudor house has just been taken down and rebuilt at Princess Risborough, Bucks, a distance of 130 miles.
