Local artists featured in Cultural Centre exhibit

Two new exhibitions are currently on display at the Town of Halton Hills Cultural Centre.

In the Sisnett Lobby, Celebrating Light: Recent Work by Halton Hills Artists pays tribute to 2015's designation as the International Year of Light. Featuring light-themed works in a variety of media such as painting, fabric and stained glass, the show will be on display until March 1. Many of the works will be offered for sale.

In the Helson Gallery, Selections from the Helson Collection features highlights from this outstanding collection of historic Canadian and European art given to the Town by Frederick Helson. The exhibition includes works by Canada's noted Group of Seven and will be on view until April 4.

The Helson Gallery is open Wednesdays, Fridays, Saturdays and Sundays: 1-5 p.m. and on Thursdays: 1-8:30 p.m. Admission is free.
