Georgetown Won From Brampton Thursday Night

BUT GIVE WAY TO MILTON ON SATURDAY AFTERNOON

Brampton Intermediate baseball team took another beating at the hands of the Paper boys on Thursday night last at the park here, with a 6 - 5 score. Wheeler and McMann pitched excellent ball, but support on both teams was not up to the mark. A good game of ball, however, was marred by an argument between Brampton players and the umpire. The umpire eventually having Allan and Thompson escorted from the park by Chief Marshall. Umpire Seddon used excellent judgment in quelling the argument, and thereby showing that the umpire must have full charge of a game. We hope such a scene will not occur on the Georgetown sandlot again, and that players will show greater respect to the official of the game.

On Saturday, July 4th, Georgetown ball team went to Milton, where they met defeat under a 5 - 3 score. The game was very close up until the 8th innings, when Georgetown seemed to break under the strain and Milton scored three runs while Georgetown were satisfied with one. Alcott pitched a rare game all the way, and looks like a comer in his field. London was the opposing hurler. Had a little inside baseball on the part of Manager Scott been used, it might have won a ball game.

THIS AND THAT IN SPORT.

We failed to take in the last couple of baseball games, thinking perhaps we were a jinx to the local club and would give them a break, but as usual they had a loss on their hands . . . so what's the use. Guess we might as well see them all.

* * *

However, Alcott is showing up well on the mound and maybe by play-off time he will be pitching championship ball along with McMann.

* * *

Hoare looks like the pick of the outfielders in the league this year.

* * *

Andy Ritchie will not be in the game for sometime, owing to his badly sprained ankle.

* * *

A number of the players report having charley-horses in their legs. Maybe a little more practice would take out the kinks.

* * *

Ye Scribe joins in saying "Congratulations" to Clarence Benham, clever outfielder of the local nine, who joined the ranks of the benedicts last week.

* * *

The local club go to Acton to-night and here's hoping they give us something to write home about next week.

* * *

Page the Acton Free Press: "Glad you enjoy reading our column." P.S.—"The complaint is contagious we notice."

* * *

On Saturday Georgetown will play at Brampton, at the big celebartions there. It is a league game, however.

* * *

The Juvenile team does not seem to have much better luck this year than the intermediates. They were defeated by Acton last night 11 to 7.

BUT ONCE

But once I pass this way,
And then—no more;
But once—and then the silent door
Swings on its hinges—
Opens—closes—
And no more
I pass this way.
So while I may
With all my might I will essay
Sweet comfort and delight
To all I meet upon the Pilgrim way.
For no man travels twice
The Great Highway
That climbs through darkness up to light.
Through night
To day.

—John Oxenham.
