OBITUARY

MRS. MITCHELL COOPER

Georgetown lost another well-known and respected citizen on Saturday last, Aug. 8th, when death claimed Janet Henderson, dearly beloved wife of Mitchell Cooper. Mrs. Cooper was born in Scotland 76 years ago and came to Canada when quite young with her parents. She was married to Mr. Cooper nearly 60 years ago. Mrs. Cooper had been a resident of Oakville, Everton and Acton, before coming to Georgetown some forty years ago. Deceased was a loving wife and mother, a good neighbor, who will be greatly missed by those who knew her best. She is survived by her husband, three sons, William, Albert and Milton; two daughters, Mrs. R. L. Thornhill and Mrs. H. L. Aldrich, and a sister and brother in the United States.

Mrs. Cooper was a member of the Presbyterian Church, and the funeral on Monday afternoon, which was private, was conducted by Rev. E. G. Baxter, in the absence of her pastor. The pall-bearers were:—Messrs. W. C. Anthony, W. T. Evans, Harold Cleave, Wm. Barber, John Reid, Elmer C. Thompson. Interment was made in Greenwood Cemetery, Georgetown.

HELENA N. V. MOORE

Last week there was buried in Georgetown cemetery one of the old citizens, Helena N. V. Moore, wife of Mr. John B. Morton. She was the fifth daughter of the late James Moore and Agnes McCosh, born in Georgetown in 1857, educated in the local schools and at Whitby College, married to John B. Morton some forty years ago. The family resided in Marmora until thirty one years ago when they moved to Stirling, where she spent the balance of her life. Surviving are her husband and four daughters, Miss Agnes Morton and Mrs. H. B. VanDellen of Cleveland, Ohio; Mrs. James Watson of Madoc; Mrs. Harry Myles of Tweed; one brother, Mr. John T. Moore, Baby Point Road, Toronto, and one sister, Mrs. R. D. McMaster of Stirling, and seven grandchildren. She was a devoted wife and loving mother.

W. C. BARTLETT

A member of Brampton town council for several years and a retired merchant, W. C. Bartlett died Sunday in his 55th year while holidaying at Wasaga Beach. He was a shoe merchant for 20 years until his retirement a year ago when his son, John, succeeded him. He was a son of the late William Bartlett and resided virtually all his life in the town with the exception of a few years he spent in business in Toronto. He was a keen bowler and curler and belonged to the local club. He was also a member of Brampton Baptist Church and Ionic Lodge, A.F. and A.M., and the Lions Club. He is survived by his widow, formerly Lydia Kleinsteuber; two sons, Dr. W. W. Bartlett, M.O.H., John, Brampton; a daughter, Shirley, and four brothers and five sisters.

Two Women Seriously Injured When Hit by Car

MISS H. HARRISON AND MRS. A. M. GRANDY TAKEN TO COLLINGWOOD HOSPITAL

The community was shocked on Monday to learn of the serious accident which occurred at Wasaga Beach, on Saturday, when Miss Hazel Harrison, Georgetown school teacher, and Mrs. A. M. Grandy of Osterville (formerly of Georgetown) were injured.

Miss Harrison and Mrs. Grandy are both in the General Marine Hospital at Collingwood, where they were taken after the accident. Miss Harrison suffering from a possible fracture of the skull, and Mrs. Grandy with a compound fracture of the right leg.

The two women were walking along the sands of Wasaga, near the main road, when a car allegedly driven by Wilfrid Lawrence of Rowalmere Ave., Toronto, who was later charged with criminal negligence, loomed out of the darkness and caught both pedestrians in its path.

Mrs. Grandy leaped to one side but the fender struck her a glancing blow throwing her to the road. Miss Harrison did not have time to get out of the way and the car struck her full force, driving her a distance of twelve feet. Miss Harrison was knocked unconscious, while Mrs. Grandy tried desperately to go to her companion's assistance.

At the time of going to press we are pleased to report that the condition of both Miss Harrison and Mrs. Grandy is somewhat improved, and that they are doing as well as can be expected under the circumstances.

The summer meeting of the Auxiliary was held on Tuesday afternoon in the Sunday school room, when the young ladies had charge of the program with Miss Isabel Wrigglesworth in the chair. An impressive devotional period was taken by Miss Ruth Giffen, reading the last chapter of St. John's gospel and bringing out many beautiful thoughts in her explanation; prayer followed. Miss Marion Miller favored with a solo, after which five of the girls took us on a visit to some of our missionaries on vacation in Africa, China, India and Trinidad. A pleating instrumental was played by Miss Joy Ruddell. Then Miss Zela Graham took the study chapter on "Education in Africa." At this time a duet was sang by Misses Hazel Riddell and Edith Wrigglesworth. Mrs. Nurse closed the meeting with prayer.

Miss Joy and Betty Ruddell have returned from a pleasant holiday at Ripley.

The services next Sunday will be in charge of the young people from Bethel United Church.

Acton Take First Play-Off Baseball Game 26 - 6

COUNTLESS ERRORS AND WEAK BATTING WAS GEORGETOWN'S DOWNFALL

Play in Acton To-night

Way it is, ball game, or cricket match?
Knock, Knock, Knock.
Pray, what's that?
Nothing but the echo of the Acton bat.

Now if you were the home-town reporter what would you say about the game?

Any phrases we might have used to express the par excellence of the potential champions of Georgetown were rudely rammed back into our throats by a barrage of base blows the savagery of which reminded one of main street in Chicago on the 4th of July. We had scarcely settled ourselves in our cushioned official seats when we were rudely awaked from a championship dream by a staccato of base blows ruining near and far, sometimes too near our boys, for they seemed quite harassed when called upon to handle the ball. Was it hot? Seven errors would make it appear so.

The score? Oh, yes, Acton 26, Georgetown 6. Hits—Acton 24, Georgetown 11. Errors—Acton 1, Georgetown 11.

McMann, Alcott and Walters offered very little to mystify the Acton bombers. McMann, if he had been accorded any kind of support would have given Georgetown an even chance of beating Acton. Acton was retired in the first with no damage but after two were down in the second his support wobbled and 3 runs came across. In the third his defence blew again and "Deity" in disgust walked from the mound. Alcott came in to pitch and lasted till the fifth and was nicked for 5 hits and 4 runs. Walters replaced him in the fifth and before the side could be retired 10 runs had been recorded. Georgetown scored 2 runs in the third on hits by Chaplin, Ritchie and Ward, and 4 in the seventh; Ritchie singled, Woods walked and Ward hit to third and all hands were safe when Ritchie beat Morton to the base. "Tudor" Beaumont then cleared the racks with a beautiful long drive to centre. It was the longest hit of the game and went for three bases. They retired in order in the eighth and ninth, Ritchie with 2, Ward with 2, including a double, Beaumont with a triple and double and Woods with a two base blow were the heavy hitters for the Scottmen.

Acton displayed a snappy brand of ball and a powerful collection of clouters. If their pitching stands up they have a good chance of winning the championship.

Losing pitcher, McMann; double plays, Walters unassisted; left on base Georgetown 11, Acton 13. Time 2 hours. Umpires—Leeds and Ryder at Preston.

HOME LINERS

The heavy sluggers for Acton were N. Morton (who belied the idea that moundsmen are weak with the hickory) with 5 hits in 6 trips; Tyler with 4 in 7, including 2 doubles; J. Waterhouse .500 in 6, and Manager Walters with 3 for 7. Anderson and Terry smacked the other extra base plys, each having doubles to their credit.

* * *

Georgetown was at fault 11 times in their defensive work and although it is hard to foretell the consequence of errors it is not difficult to surmise that this many errors would bring in as many runs or more. In addition it has a disheartening effect on the pitcher and demoralizing effect on the team as a whole, not to mention the fan's point of view.

* * *

The diamond was in its best condition and no excuses can be attributed to the playing field, as Acton fielded flawlessly except one miscue by Walters at second.

* * *

Is bunting a lost art? Many times a bunt along the line would have caught Acton flat footed. It would appear also that Acton had a good opportunity of practising their bunting while enjoying such a good lead.

* * *

The local boys go to Acton to-night and we can only hope that the day of miracles is not past. The picture looks dark, but a reverse score tonight would put Georgetown on top of the sporting picture in Halton.

All-Stars Eke Out Win Over Guelph Maple Leafs

The largest crowd of the baseball season turned out to the Benefit Game in the park here last Thursday night, when Guelph Maple Leafs (senior) were defeated by the Halton County League All-Stars. The game was called at the end of the sixth innings owing to darkness, and the score was 7 - 6. It was the best game of baseball seen in Georgetown this year.

This benefit game was held in the interests of Al Ritchie who was injured in a league game early in the season, and was incapacitated for some time. All players gave willing of their services, and the sporting populace of Georgetown and surrounding communities turned out in fine style to lend their financial as well as vocal support. The thanks of Al and the local club goes out to all who assisted.

George Hainsworth of the Toronto Maple Leaf Hockey Club, acted as umpire, and after the game made many friends in Georgetown, who welcome him back to our fair town soon again.

Both teams played heads-up ball and gave the crowd some anxious moments. Guelph drew one run in the first innings, but the All-Stars went to bat and succeeded in reaping two. There were no runs in the second, but in the third Guelph went into the lead when they scored two more. It was the All-Star's innings in the fourth for they managed to get on top again when they romped the racks three times. Each team scored one in the fifth and the first half of the sixth saw Guelph tie up the score, when the All-Stars errored badly and allowed two runs. However, they redeemed themselves in the last half to win the game from their tenlors 7 to 6.

Hammond did the hurling for the Maple Leafs, while Wheeler, McMann and London all took a hand for the All-Stars. The All-Stars had 13 hits, while Guelph counted 5. There were no errors in the game as recorded by the official scorer.

(a)—Batted for Wheeler in 4th.

THIS AND THAT IN SPORT.

Oh, Hum!

↑ ↑ ↑

Another week has rolled up and over.

↑ ↑ ↑

And once again we might remark that nothing very exciting to Georgetown has happened.

↑ ↑ ↑

The Georgetown Paper Boys were in a play-off game here Saturday, but that didn't mean a thing.

↑ ↑ ↑

Nobody around here seems to give two hoorahs whether there are play-off games or not.

↑ ↑ ↑

There was a time when the local business places almost closed down to see a play-off game, but now you nearly have to take the gas wagon around to drag anyone out.

↑ ↑ ↑

Not in years has Georgetown been in a play-off which was witnessed by such a poor crowd.

↑ ↑ ↑

And no wonder!

↑ ↑ ↑

Did anyone ask the score . . . 26 - 6. . . . And the errors almost kept pace with the score . . . 11 errors.

↑ ↑ ↑

It took three pitchers to finally get the game over (after the fans had nearly all gone home) . . . McMann, Alcott and Walters.

↑ ↑ ↑

But you can't blame the pitchers, for after all they had little or no support. It must have been an off day (which they have too many) or else Acton was just too good for them. But they have a chance to come back tonight if there is any pep left in them.

The local nine need to take some pointers off the Acton and Milton teams in regards to putting some life in the game.

↑ ↑ ↑

No, we don't want to "pan" the home team, but what else can you do when they make such costly errors and throw the game to their hottest rivals. Even some of the best in our opinion gummed up the works. In other words the truth must come out.

↑ ↑ ↑

Maybe to-night will be a different story—here's hoping . . . and maybe it won't! If it is we will take it all back.

↑ ↑ ↑

The hitting is up to snuff—always has been. But the fielding and pitching. Oh me!

↑ ↑ ↑

Are there any pitching prospects After all it's pitching that counts more than anything else. It is our guess that Harry Woods might try his hand. He had quite a wup at one time.

↑ ↑ ↑

It must have hurted "Pat" up to see his efforts go for naught. At one time he would have stood the Actonites on their heads.

↑ ↑ ↑

The Waterhouse boys are certainly smart fielders.

↑ ↑ ↑

"Tudor" located his batting eye when he tripled to deep centre with the bases populated. He hit a double too. Good work "Tudor."

↑ ↑ ↑

"Benny" seemed to be connecting oftener and harder and accepted 10 chances and no mistakes.

↑ ↑ ↑

Charlie McNally was hard to keep down, although Anderson tried hard to sit on him.

↑ ↑ ↑

Ed Hoare had a long run for his errored chance and it was a toss up, but the official scorer gave it as an error. Ed had one hit.

↑ ↑ ↑

L. Ritchie and Chaplin were hitting fair, but the fielding . . . oh my!

↑ ↑ ↑

GEORGETOWN'S DEMISE

The sun was shining clear o'er head,
The birds in the trees were gay,
The papers had been carefully read
For to-day Acton and Georgetown would play.

The diamond was in A1 shape,
The players were full of pep (?)
But how the opponents hung the crêpe
And put an end to Georgetown's rep.

Tudor, Woods and Ward of course,
And don't forget the amiable "Pat,"
Tried their best to stem the worse
But Acton responded with the bat.

And when the smoke of battle cleared
Our broken dreams we could not fix,
And though for Georgetown we cheered
Yet those Actonites beat us 26 - 6.

(—Apologies to Mosgrove McGruffey).

↑ ↑ ↑

The thanks of Al Ritchie is extended to the fans who attended the benefit game staged last Thursday. Al is back on the ground again with his two feet, and was on the lineup in the Saturday game. The fine sportsmanship of the players of the different clubs of the league in coming to Georgetown and the Guelph Maple Leafs and participating in the game was greatly appreciated.

↑ ↑ ↑

Milton Ladies' Lawn Bowling Club held a mixed doubles tournament Saturday when the following clubs were represented in the competition which was keen at all times: Brampton, Preston, Crediton, Acton, Islington, Georgetown and Milton. The winners: 1, Mr. Hawke and partner of Preston, 3 wins plus 16; 2, Thomas Davis and partner of Brampton, 3 wins plus 14, aggregate 42; 3, J. Kennedy and partner of Georgetown, 3 wins plus 14, aggregate 40.

Max Schmeling and Joe Louis each received $140,915.14 for their 12-round heavyweight fight at the Yankee Stadium recently. Official figures revealed the actual paid attendance was 39,872 and the gross receipts $595,872.01, of which $447,372.01 came in at the gate while the remainder—$53,500—was paid for radio and motion picture rights.

Maybe if the Spaniards went in strongly for lacrosse and football and hockey they wouldn't need to indulge in civil war to get the scrap out of their systems. Of course they have bull-fighting, but not enough of them have the opportunity of becoming matadors.
