HALTON FARMERS CLUBS BECOME INCORPORATED UNDER THE NAME OF MILTON DISTRICT CO-OPERATIVE

For a number of years past farmers clubs in Halton have been very successful in purchasing many of the requirements of their members and marketing the products which they produce.

During the past four years Milton United Farmers acting as buying centre for most of the other clubs in the county have been very successful. Their business turnover showing an increase in 1936 of 105% over the previous year.

With the growing need for co-operative enterprise and the success of these clubs it was decided to incorporate as a Co-operative under the name of Milton District Co-operative, with head office at Milton, amalgamating the commercial business of practically all the clubs in the county and surrounding district.

This Co-operative will operate on a plan and principle similar to that of the Rochdale Pioneers of England with One Member one vote, strictly democratic control, and the net surplus in each years operations to be divided among the members in patronage dividends in proportion to the amount of business done by each member through the Co-operative.

Those who are interested or who wish to become members may get full details from any of the following directors: Malcolm McNabb, Georgetown; Geo. Nurse, Georgetown; Lykle deVries, Georgetown; Milton Bird, Georgetown; Frank Stark, Milton; Edward Baldwin, Milton; Archie R. Bervice, Milton; Robt. Heatherington, Freemuth, and Victor Lawrence, Oakville.

At the annual meeting of Milton United Farmers it was unanimously decided to transfer the accounts, stock and equipment, assets and liabilities of Milton United Farmers to Milton District Co-operative. The accrued surplus to be placed in the reserve fund of Milton District Co-operative.

At the close a hearty vote of thanks was extended to Miss Bennett for her excellent talk. During the evening Misses Helen Brown and Helen MacDonald played a piano duet. The meeting closed with the Young People's benediction.

Religious Celebration at Holy Cross Church

On Sunday, May 9th, the congregation of Holy Cross Church, is holding a big religious celebration to commemorate the Centennial Year of Georgetown. May 3rd is the Feast Day of the Church, viz: "The finding of the Holy Cross by St. Helena, and thus is most fitting that this celebration should take place on the Sunday within the octave of the feast. May 9 all the congregation will receive Holy Communion at 9.00 a.m. mass, and the first communion will be made by the children on that day. Each family will take their turns in continual prayer at the church in thanksgiving, and to ask the blessings of God upon Georgetown and its citizens. At 3 p.m. the solemn closing will be held, with a special jubilee sermon and Solemn Benediction. A number of priests will be present to take part in this religious centennial celebration.

On Monday night, 5.30 to 7.30, a Centennial and Coronation supper will be held. All the citizens of Georgetown are invited to attend, along with all the old boys of Georgetown.

NEW GROUP FORMED BY UNITED CHURCH GIRLS

The young ladies of Georgetown United Church held a very enjoyable evening last Friday, when they entertained at a luncheon in the basement of the church. The social was held for the purpose of forming a new club for the young ladies, which will be known as the "Sevens Club." Seven was the predominant number throughout the evening; seven being seated at a table, seven items on the menu and the program was divided into seven parts. Mrs. Overend, the originator of the club, illustrated the signifiance of the number, showing its relation to the phases of the moon, the number of planets and its historical associations, such as the "seven sleepers of Ephesus" and Shakespeare's "seven ages of man."

Those taking part in the program were: Mrs. Wm. Cromar, Mrs. H. Wheeler, Misses E. Bird, M. Peller, E. Roney, B. Speight, E. McEnery and Master Joe Wilcox.

Those holding number seven tickets were presented with daffodils. A very happy evening was closed with the singing of Auld Lang Syne.

W. C. T. U.

On Friday, April 11th, the W.C.T.U. met at the home of Mrs. Arthur Reeve, Arletta St., the president, Mrs. A. R. Vannatter in the chair.

The subject of devotional study, taken by Mrs. Reeve, was "The Christian view of Personal Liberty" based on I Cor. VIII, summed up in Moffat's translation thus: "Therefore if food is any hinderance to my brother's welfare, sooner than injure him I will never eat flesh as long as I live, never!"

Following a short business period, the gathering was addressed by Mr. Ralph Ross, who gave an extremely interesting and inspiring talk on the life of Florence Nightingale, illustrative of the recreating reforming influence which may radiate from the life of one, wholly possessed by the spirit of the good Samaritan. The speaker's detailed account of Miss Nightingale's long eventful life, filled to capacity with service to the sick and suffering at home and abroad, closed with the thought so fitly expressed by the poet Longfellow in reference to the "Lady with the Lamp:"

Where'er a noble deed is wrought,
Whene'er is spoke a noble thought,
Our hearts, in glad surprize
To higher levels rise.

The study of the life of this type of brave, heroic womanhood, reminded us once again of those heroes listed by the New Testament writer, "who, through faith, subdued kingdoms, wrought righteousness out of weakness were made strong, waxed valiant in conflict, turned to flight the armies of the aliens,"—a message timely indeed for W.C.T.U. members.

The president expressed to the guest speaker the very sincere thanks of the gathering for his intensely interesting, helpful address, and also to Mr. Gordon Alcott who had briefly presented to the Union some matters of interest in connection with boys' work.

A vocal duet by Misses Isabel and Muriel Stephenson, accompanied by Miss Helen McGowan, all of Lithehouse, was much enjoyed by all present, as was also a pleasingly rendered recitation by Miss Augusta Hauptman, whom we were so glad to welcome to our circle for the first time.

The May meeting, at which the annual reports will be presented, and the new executive chosen, will be held at the home of Mrs. C. Preure, Arlette St.

LEISURE

What is life, if, full of care,
We have no time to stand and stare?
No time to stand beneath the boughs
And stare as long as sheep or cows.
No time to see, when woods we pass,
Where squirrels hide their nuts in grass.
No time to see, in broad daylight,
Streams full of stars, like skies at night.
No time to turn at Beauty's glance,
And watch her feet how they can dance.
No time to wait till her mouth can
Enrich that smile her eyes began.
A poor life this, if, full of care,
We have no time to stand and stare.
—W. H. Davies.

TURBULENT REIGN OF MARY STUART FILMED

"Mary of Scotland," RKO Radio's adaptation of the famous Maxwell Anderson play, takes advantage of one of history's most vivid lives in presenting Katharine Hepburn as the reckless ruler who risked life and throne for brief romance with the Earl of Bothwell.

Fredric March portrays the bold and arrogant Bothwell, wooer of the reckless Scottish beauty. Hers was a career as turbulent and colorful as any creation of fiction. She lived and loved as she chose in spit of her ruthless barons' determination to dictate not only her state policies and religion but her romantic life as well.

John Ford, winner of the 1935 Academy directorial Award for his work on "The Informer," directed. Pandro S. Berman produced.

This outstanding picture will be shown at the Gregory Theatre, Georgetown, on Tuesday and Wednesday, April 20 and 21. Don't miss seeing it.
