Bid to be Published

Next week lists of old tires and tubes expected for Home Week will be published. They are coming from all over the continent. The High School Reunion, it is conservatively estimated, will number six hundred.

Bought Stock 2236 from Home

Wheat Charles Scott, 6th Line Esquesing, near Limehouse, was absent from his home on Friday last, a man entered his home and stole $236 in cash, which he had placed in a drawer. The police were notified and a man was arrested in Toronto on Saturday charged with the theft.

You'll Get a Ticket

Motorists who ignore the courteous gesture of an oncoming motorist who dims his headlights may be summoned for violation of the Highways Traffic Act, if a recommendation approved by the Police Commission of Toronto is accepted by the government.

Successful Strawberry Social

There was a splendid attendance at the strawberry social held last week on the spacious lawn of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Chalve, under the auspices of Verdun Rebekah Lodge. Tea was served from 6 to 8 followed by euchre and bridge. The winners were: for euchre, Mrs. A. Collins; for bridge, Mrs. J. W. Kennedy.

Successful Strawberry Social

There was a good attendance at the strawberry social held under the auspices of Union Presbyterian Church at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Delson last Friday night. An excellent program was rendered by Harmonica Band and Miss Thompson elocutionist of Toronto; also Joseph Lyons and Wilmar Calton.

If Pink, Ask for Another

Some motorists, we understand, are complaining that the red on their license plates is turning pink or orange, and that the white letters are going pink. If such is the case with your plates, or if the colors in the plate background are turning yellow, write to the department of highways and ask for new ones. The department is prepared to replace fading plates free.

Grandstand Burned

About a quarter to six on Saturday afternoon the grandstand at the Park was discovered on fire and an alarm turned in. The Brigade responded promptly, but the fire had gained such headway that the stand was completely demolished before the flames were extinguished. The stand was built about fifty years ago. The loss is partly covered by insurance. Several beautiful trees were destroyed by the flames. The tables, stands and gates of Esquesing Agricultural Society were stored under the stand and they also are a total loss with no insurance.

MILTON

The death occurred here on Monday evening last of Emily Jane Dewar, wife of Robert J. McInnes, and daughter of the late Duncan and Nancy Dewar, in her seventy-second year. Mrs. McInnes was born in Milton and for many years was organist of Knox Presbyterian Church here.

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. McArthur and family are on a motor trip to Western Canada, where they will visit relatives for several weeks.

Mrs. W. T. Barnard, who underwent an operation in Hamilton General Hospital on Friday morning last, is doing nicely. Her many friends hope she will have a speedy recovery.

Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Galloway and daughter, Miss Clara, of Wild Rose, Sask., are visiting relatives in this district for a month. This is their first trip East in fifteen years. Mrs. Galloway (nee Maggie Stephenson) is a sister of Mrs. Thos. McJannett and A. Stephenson of Milton.

Robt. McJannett visited his brothers Ed. and Jack in Woodstock over the week end. He and his brothers motored down to St. Williams on Sunday.

Stephenson Hagyard, of Esquesing, who recently underwent an operation for appendicitis in Guelph General Hospital, is, we are pleased to say, doing nicely.—Champion.

Prime Electric FENCE

SAVE 50% ON FENCE

For about ½ a rod, figuring all wire, stakes, Central Machine and battery a PRIME ELECTRIC unit fences the farm stock tight. Over 15,000 farmers use this fence. It is a money-maker.

Put It Anywhere

Are you losing valuable feed for lack of quick, easily set up temporary fence? With Prime you string one wire on stakes to hold any stock from growing crops. Prime is a permanent fence which can be moved or expanded at will. Even for temporary fencing it will pay for itself in one season.

MARVELOUS

One unit handles 15 miles wire. It carries a light charge. Contact causes harmless shock. Stock keep away. They graze under or beside it but they don't touch it a second time.

This fence is sold as an absolutely guaranteed practical unit.

VANNATTER-WHEELER WEDDING AT GLEN WILLIAMS

Glen Williams United Church was the scene of a popular wedding Saturday, when Miss Mary Angela, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Wheeler, became the bride of Phares L. Vannatter, son of Mrs. Vannatter and the late A. R. Vannatter of Georgetown. Rev. G. I. Stephenson officiated.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a white silk gown cut on princess lines, bound with narrow stripes of white moire over white bridal satin, and white silk jacket with puffed sleeves drawn to a point at the wrist. Her veil was of tulle and lace, caught with orange blossoms over a headdress of seed pearls, and she carried a nosegay of white roses.

Her attendants were Miss Mary Bludd and Miss Edna Davidson of Glen Williams, Miss Bludd in pale yellow and Miss Davidson in pale pink. They wore long, sweeping gowns of triple sheer georgette, with chaplets of flowers matching their gowns, and bouquets of lily-of-the-valley and rosebuds.

James Evans, Georgetown, was best man, and ushers were Harold Wheeler and Ernest Forgraves of Glen Williams. Mrs. Jack Addy presided at the organ, and during the signing of the register, Miss Betty Speight, of Georgetown, sang "O Promise Me."

The wedding reception was held in the church parlors, Mrs. Wheeler receiving in flowered orchid chiffon, with wide hat of white silk crepe and tiny corsage of lily-of-the-valley and rosebuds, assisted by Mrs. Vannatter, who wore brown georgette, with white felt hat and lily-of-the-valley and rosebud corsage.

On a motor honeymoon trip the bride travelled in white ardee crepe, with full-sleeved red jacket and red accessories and white silk crepe hat with rose veil. On their return, Mr. and Mrs. Vannatter will make their home at Georgetown.

Not So Sure

Lecturer: "Of course you all know what the inside of a corpuscle is like."

Chairman of Meeting (interrupting): "Most of us do, but ye better explain for the benefit of them as have never been inside one."
