TOWNSHIP TO ALLOW 6% ON TAX PREPAYMENT

The municipality of Nelson have at a recent meeting of their council amended their tax collection by-law and the ratepayers now have the privilege of paying up to 90% of their previous year's tax at any time during the year and on all such payments the township will allow interest at the rate of 6% from date of payment to December 15th. The idea is not an experiment, as it is already in operation in several places in Ontario and is receiving strong support from the ratepayers. WOMEN'S INSTITUTE

Last week was a very busy but profitable one for many of the members of the W. I. The regular meeting was held on Tuesday at the home of Mrs. J. Maiser. This was one day earlier than usual as sewing classes were planned for the latter part of the week.

A euchre party held during February with Mrs. C. Webster as convenor, netted $10.80 to the funds. Another party of the same nature was planned with Mrs. Howard Meisner as convenor.

A letter of appreciation was received from Capt. Baker of the Canadian National Institute for the blind, thanking the members for their contribution to that cause. A very interesting feature of this letter was that it was written entirely by a blind girl.

The Rev. A. N. Firth, who was the speaker of the afternoon spoke on the McMaster University Hymn. The remarks were prefaced by a talk on some of the better known hymns and their origin. The hymn "Jesus, wonderous Saviour" was written by the late Chancellor McGregor of McMaster and was adopted by the Senate of the University as the hymn of that institution. The music was written by Dr. Vogt the founder of the Toronto Mendelssohn Choir. So beautiful was the exposition and so interested were the audience that a request was made to have a quartette sing the hymn at the next meeting.

Mr. Frith humorously remarked before beginning his talk that this was his first opportunity to address an Institute meeting, and that if he had to wait as many years to receive another invitation it would be his last. At the close of his talk he was assured that, if his listeners had their way, it would only be the first of many such invitations. Every woman present felt much indebted to Mr. Frith for bringing such a beautiful hymn to their notice and for stimulating afresh the interest in the history of hymns.

In answer to the roll, many splendid Economy Wrinkles were given. Next month the meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Ralph Tripp and the answer to the roll will be grandmother's sayings.

A very interesting cake cutting demonstration conducted by Mrs. Thos. Anderson and Mrs. D. Livingstone was another feature of the program. During this demonstration Mrs. Anderson made reference to several cakes, etc. that so interested the members and there was almost a general demand for the recipes for the same. A suggestion was made that these be typed out and sold to members at five cents a set. The proceeds to go to the Institute funds.

A vote of thanks was passed by the meeting to be extended to Mr. Young for his kindly assistance in advertising the Course.

After refreshments had been served and a vote of thanks tendered to the hostess the meeting adjourned.

SEWING COURSE WELL ATTENDED

The Sewing Course held under the auspices of the Women's Institute last week was most successful. The course which covered three afternoons was held in the Library on Wednesday and Thursday afternoon from 2 p.m. to 5 p.m. and in the Sunday school room of the Baptist Church on Friday from 1.30 to 5.30 p.m. with one hour recess to allow the members of the class to attend the Day of Prayer held in the auditorium of the church.

Miss Collins, Department of Agriculture instructress, combined a very bright and happy personality with a marvellous ability to teach the subject designated to her in a way that was easily understood by all her pupils. On the first day, the subjects covered were: shrinking of materials, pressing the shrunken materials, cutting and making of fabrics which stretch easily, basting, cutting and the use of bias. Hints on making belts and cuffs, hemming circular skirt and covering buttons.

On Thursday, Miss Collins covered such subjects as mitred corners, hemstitching by machine, rat tail buttonholes, applying lace by hand, different types of seams nd their uses, trimmings, buttonholes and pockets.

On Wednesday and Thursday, Miss Collins was kept busy at the sewing machine demonstrating the making of each of the different items. The articles were passed around so that the students might see the different steps required. On Friday there was a little variation in the proceedings, as rules were given for cutting patterns for a skirt and kimona blouse. Two skirt patterns for different members of the class were cut, as a practical demonstration of this lesson. Later a dress was cut from a commercial pattern and fitted. During this part of the lesson various adaptations of patterns were suggested and some finishing touches demonstrated.

At the close of this lesson the members of the class expressed to Miss Collins their appreciation of her service. In the whole three days there was not a dull minute and every member of the class of thirty, felt each day she had learned something to make that day count. Many expressed a desire to have a longer course at the earliest date possible to secure one. The cost to the local Institute was very small, when compared with the results. The expenditures are not expected to exceed $100, and if one were to judge by the remarks made by the students the course was worth many hundreds of dollars to those who took advantage of it.

There was not one who took part who did not feel that the course was worth far more than the small registration fee and the sacrifice entailed to be present at the classes.—Com

SCOUT NEWS

The most successful meeting in many weeks was held last Wednesday evening. There were sixteen Scouts present, not including the senior leaders. After a snappy inspection by the Scoutmaster, the troop was divided into two groups for the purpose of studying Tenderfoot and Second-class tests. After twenty-minutes of Scout work in the corners, the Scouts enjoyed nearly an hour of games, several of which included patrol competition. At about 9.15 o'clock the meeting came to a close at the lowering of the flag. During the evening's competition the Beavers beat the Foxes by one point, and with eight determined and hard-fighting members, they are in a position to continue their attack upon their traditional opponents.

During the evening three new recruits applied for membership in the troop and these boys will be voted upon in four weeks time. The newcomers are Tenderfoots: A. Armstrong, J. Moulger and L. Maynor and the troop is very happy to see that they are taking an interest in Scouting. Some of the older Scouts have made remarkable progress in signalling, first-aid, etc, and the interest which the Troop as a whole are showing in their Scouting activities promises for the coming summer a well-running Scout Troop of which any Scoutmaster could be justly proud.

On Saturday ten of the boys enjoyed an all day hike to the sixth line. Before leaving they divided into two patrols and when one group laid a trail the other patrol endeavored to follow it. The two patrols met about dinner time and the meal was cooked in the quarry behind the fox farm of Major Gousen's. The afternoon was spent in playing games in the surrounding bush, and the boys enjoyed themselves immensely. Just about leaving time one of the wise Foxes won for himself the distinction of being probably the first bather for 1933, when he sank up to the shoulders in a deep puddle, conveniently near the bush. However, the temperature of the water proved to be colder than he had anticipated, and it was necessary to build a large fire and dry the victims clothing before proceeding homeward. Nothing further occurred to mar the beauty of the day and the Troop arrived home about six o'clock with no casualties.

Here and There

Coal from Alberta mines for 1932 totalled 4,370,010 tons, an increase of 300,000 tons over 1931.

A cod with a silver spoon engraved "C. P. R." in its stomach was caught recently at the fish float, Port Alberni, B.C. The spoon probably fell overboard from one of the company's coastal liners.

A trip that formerly took two days over rough trails is now done in 20 minutes by airplanes when fish from Northern Manitoba lakes are transported to rail head for distribution all over Canada and the United States.

One of the largest sailings of the cruise season was recorded recently when the Empress of Australia sailed from New York on a Mediterranean cruise with a list of 450 passengers. Many socially prominent Canadians were on board.

The National Sea Fleas Hockey Club's tour of Europe overcame all hitches and sailed recently from Halifax by Canadian Pacific liner Montcalm. They are the Allan Cup holders and will play in London, Paris, Berlin and Prague.

Twenty-six year old veteran of the northern British Columbia and Alaska route, the old Princess Royal, once the pride of the Canadian Pacific's B.C. Coast Steamships fleet, has been sold out of the service to the Island Tug and Barge Company.

Edmonton's recapture of the Carnival Throne, the Edmonton Hustlers' triple victory in the ladies' hockey series, and spectacular ski jumping by youngsters of 12 to 15 were the outstanding features of the Banff Winter Carnival recently concluded. Miss Violet Davis, of Edmonton, was crowned the 1934 Queen.

Canada's fifth annual mid-winter golf tourney, over the spring-like fairways of the Oak Bay Victoria Golf links for the E. W. Beatty Trophy, started February 21 with an entry list of 75 men and 45 women. They came from England, Scotland, United States, British Columbia and the Prairie Provinces.

Fish caught in the sea fisheries of Canada in 1932 totalled 711,917,500 pounds valued at over $11,000,000. Of the total catch British Columbia accounted for 327,631,500 pounds; Nova Scotia, 184,788,800 pounds; New Brunswick, 99,594,800 pounds; Quebec, 67,164,300 pounds and Prince Edward Island, 23,739,000 pounds.

The Place Viger Hotel, Montreal, centre for thirty-odd years of the French-Canadian political, legal and social life of the Province of Quebec, has been given a further lease of life under Canadian Pacific direction until October 1. It was to have closed its doors permanently January 31, but many and powerful representations brought about the respite.
