IN BRIEF

Firefighters battle dumpster fires

Halton Hills Fire Department (HHFD) put out two dumpster fires on the July 4-5 weekend.

On Saturday, July 4, at 7:20 a.m. firefighters responded to the report of a dumpster on fire on Deer Run Crescent. Halton Regional Police were on scene upon arrival where a large garbage bin was found on fire. The dumpster was next to a garage and a large propane tank.

The homeowner was using a garden hose to try and get the fire under control.

Agent was applied and debris was pulled from the dumpster to assist with the extinguishment.

Once the fire was knocked down staff blanketed the bin and debris with foam.

On Sunday, July 5, at 3:45 p.m. firefighters responded to the report of a dumpster fire in the area of Danby and Mountainview Roads. Halton Regional Police were on scene upon arrival.

Crews knocked the fire down and assisted site personnel with the overhaul.
