IN BRIEF

Argument leads to charges

Halton Regional Police were called to the Toronto Premium Outlets on Steeles Ave. Saturday afternoon following a dispute between two drivers over a parking space.

As the argument escalated, one of the drivers allegedly brandished a weapon and quickly left the scene when the other motorist used a cell phone to call police.

No one was injured during the incident.

The suspect was located a short time later by officers on the mall property and a subsequent search turned up brass knuckles.

Charged with carrying a concealed weapon, assault with a weapon and unauthorized possession of a weapon is Wallid Omrani, 31, of Mississauga.

He was released on a promise to appear in court.
