

Police investigate rash of thefts

Halton Regional Police report a recent rash of break and enters have occurred in Georgetown whereby suspect(s) have entered private residences through an unlocked door.

In the area of Maple Ave. and River Dr., three residences were entered early Tuesday morning in which entry was gained through an unlocked patio sliding glass door.

A purse, cash and coins were taken. In one incident, the homeowner confronted a male suspect standing inside the sliding doors.

The suspect is described as:

- Male, white
- less than 6 feet, average build
- round face
- beard with a thin mustache
- round eyes, light in colour
- hair was dark in colour, and slightly curly
