Gas leak prompts road closure on Tuesday

Union Gas workers responded to cap a natural gas leak Tuesday afternoon that closed Mountainview Rd. S.— a major artery through Georgetown— in both directions at Hungry Hollow for hours.

An excavator belonging to a construction crew working in the southbound lanes of Mountainview at Eden Place apparently struck an eight-inch main just before 3 p.m.

There was a loud hissing noise coming from the site as members of the Halton Hills Fire Department stood by and Halton Regional Police officers maintained the road closure.

Traffic was diverted at Barber

Dr. to the south and Delrex Blvd. on the north side, with major traffic tie-ups occurring for hours.

Police said the road was reopened at midnight.

JABBED WITH A FORK

A Georgetown man is facing assault charges after an argument became physical Tuesday evening at Dominion Gardens, with a young male being jabbed with a fork.

Halton Regional Police responded to a call on Harding Dr. in which two young males were in the midst of a dispute.

One of the men had been stabbed with a fork but was not seriously injured.

Charged with two counts of assault and one count of assault with a weapon is 20-year-old Cody Croft-McLeod.
