Smash and grab nets cigarettes

Police are investigating a smash and grab involving a "significant" quantity of stolen cigarettes from Preston's Lucky Dollar convenience store in Glen Williams early Tuesday morning.

At about 4:20 a.m., two male suspects in dark clothing forced their way into the business, took several cartons of cigarettes and fled shortly after southbound on Confederation St.

Anyone with information is asked to call Det. Const. Matthew Floyd of the HRPS at 905-878-5511 ext. 2113 or the Halton Crimestoppers Hotline at 905-825-8477.

DUMPED CHEMICAL CAUSE ODOUR COMPLAINTS

Firefighters responded to an unknown odour investigation on Killaloe Crescent on Sunday, Aug. 2. On scene, staff met with the homeowner who reported a smell of a chemical in the basement area.

Crews took readings with the gas detector in the home, and no readings were found. Other neighbors on the street reported the same smell inside their homes.

Crews checked the sewers on the street, readings were found. It is suspected that someone in the area had dumped a chemical in the drain. The source could not be determined. Homeowners in the area were advised to flush their floor drains. The Town of Halton Hills Public Works Department was notified of the findings and they will investigate further.
