LOOK OUT BELOW!

The job of dropping bombs with deadly accuracy from dizzy heights is a highly specialized one requiring months of training. To-day in R.C.A.F. schools of the British Commonwealth Air Training Plan spotted throughout Canada thousands of keen-eyed young men are learning to do this job and do it well. These photographs were taken at the Bombing and Gunnery School in Jarvis, Ontario. The top pictures shows a Fairey Battle bomber cruising over Lake Erie where tiny buoy targets await the eagle eye of the Bombardier below, who is ready at the bomb sight in the belly of the plane with his thumb tense on the bomb release.

ASHGROVE

Mrs. Francis Thompson entertained the ladies of the Women's Institute for the September meeting. A splendid paper on "Canada's Part in the War," was prepared and given by Mrs. Frank Wilson. The motto: "Loyalty is among the first virtues," and the roll call, "A leader in war activity," added to the theme of the meeting. Reta Fisher demonstrated flower arrangement, and Mrs. C. B. Dick and Mrs. N. C. Wrigglesworth favored with a vocal duet. Mrs. Gerald Graham and Miss Reta Fisher were chosen as leaders to represent our Institute at the nutrition course to be held in Milton. Mrs. Horace Barnes, Mrs. Cecil Wilson and Mrs. Russell Hepburn assisted the hostess in serving lunch at the close of the meeting.

DRESS UP WAR SAVINGS STAMPS

Have you seen the new War Savings Stamps. They are now dressed up, in keeping with things they make possible when purchased regularly by Canadians—planes, tanks, ships, guns, sailors, soldiers, airmen and nursing sisters. The illustrations are done from factual photographs from all branches of the armed services. According to information from the War Savings Committee the sale of stamps and certificates makes a large contribution to the war effort—about one million dollars worth per month. The new stamps, eight designs in all, are described as follows:—

A sailor standing guard on a jetty with a warship, and an airplane far in the background, and the naval ensign flying nearby.

An aircraft on the ground with two airmen, in flying togs, walking into the foreground.

A destroyer plowing through the sea with a flying boat overhead.

A heavy tank in action with turret gun firing, enemy shells bursting overhead and an aircraft in the background.

A two-motored bomber plane flying into the foreground just after the take-off.

A close-up of the three nursing sisters in uniform with a background of wounded being placed in ambulance.

An infantryman standing guard over two armed and armored motor vehicles.

A heavy anti-aircraft gun and its crew in action on a coastal promontory with an aircraft flying in the background.

HAVE YOU BEEN TO A CORN ROAST YET?

Most people get to at least one corn roast in the fall, and we attended ours last Friday evening. Corn roasts, like other social events, have their own particular form of enjoyment — and usually its the delicious corn, to say nothing of the happy associations. Associations with people you meet almost everyday, but with whom you are drawn a little closer in a friendly sort of way. Last Friday's roast was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Clarke, Cedarvale Farm, where a number of young folk gathered for the evening's outing. Prior to the serving of corn, weiners and rolls, and coffee, community singing was led by Rev. R. C. Todd, with Jack Little, of Brampton, playing the accompaniment on the guitar. At the close all expressed their appreciation to Mrs. Harvey Clarke and Mrs. Howard Wrigglesworth, who were joint-hostesses for the affair.

Bride: I do hope you keep your cows in a pasture.

Milkman: Yes, madam, of course we keep them in pasture.

Bride: I'm glad, I've been told that pasteurized milk is the best.

JACK MINER IN PICTURES AT 76

It seems that ever since we were in knee-trousers, the name of Jack Miner has been prominent when one thinks of birds. But when we picked up a paper the other day and read where Jack Miner was going to appear in pictures—we wondered just how old he is. We can remember away back when we attended public school and belonged to a well organized bird club and wore a button and had all the other requirements . . . . they don't have bird clubs now . . . . how it was the thrill of a life-time to hear Jack Miner speak when he gave an address at the Presbyterian Church here. And then, several years later to hear he "is in pictures"—well, we began to investigate. Thus doing we found that Jack Miner was 76 last April 10th, and is enjoying the best of health at his home at Kingsville, Ont. One of this famous naturalist's honors on his birthday was the Canadian press statement that he was the "best known citizen in Canada, and the fifth best known in the U.S.A." But getting back to the picture angle, Jack Miner will appear in "Snow Goose," with the story being built around him and his bird sanctuary. It will have an entirely Canadian background based on the Paul Gallico story, and produced by Gabriel Pascal, who says there is something "almost supernatural" about the way Jack Miner gets along with the birds. Canadians await its production.

HOW TO PRESERVE A HUSBAND

Now that the ladies are busily engaged canning fruits, etc. we thought some might be interested in knowing how to "can" a husband. Here is the recipe:—Be careful in your selection. Do not choose too young, and take only such as have been reared in good, moral atmosphere. When once decided upon and selected, let that part remain forever settled, and give your entire thought to preparation for domestic use. Some insist on keeping them in a pickle, while others are constantly getting them into hot water. This only makes them sour, hard and sometimes bitter. Even poor varieties may be made sweet, tender and good, by garnishing them with patience, well sweetened with smiles, and flavored with kisses to taste. Then wrap them in a mantle of charity, keep warm with a steady fire of domestic devotion, and serve with peaches and cream. When thus prepared they will keep for years.

THE LAND OF BEYOND

Have ever you heard of the Land of Beyond.
That dreams at the gates of the day?
Alluring it lies at the skirts of the skies,
And ever so far away;
Alluring it calls: O ye the yoke galls,
And ye of the trail overfond,
With saddle and pack, by paddle and track,
Let's go to the Land of Beyond!

Have ever you stood where the silences brood,
And vast the horizons begin,
At the dawn of the day to behold far away
The goal you would strive for and win?
Yet, ah! in the night when you gain to the height,
With the vast pool of heaven star-spawned,
Afar and agleam, like a valley of dream
Still mocks you a Land of Beyond.

Thank God! there is always a Land of Beyond,
For us who are true to the trail;
A vision to seek, a beckoning peak,
A farness that never will fail;
A pride in our soul that mocks at a goal,
A manhood that irks at a bond,
And try how we will, unattainable still,
Behold, it our Land of Beyond!
