—Georgetown's Memorial Day Service will be held at the Cenotaph on Sunday, Nov. 9th, at 12.30 noon. Further details next week.

—S. P. Chapman brought in a tomato plant this week which, when measured, topped nine feet in length.

—Bingo, Wednesday, Nov. 5th, 8 p.m., at the Legion Hall, sponsored by Georgetown W.A. to the Lorne Scots. Entire proceeds for Lorne Scots Overseas.

—All children living in Georgetown, under the age of 11 years, and whose fathers are overseas are asked to leave their names at Chapman's Drug Store so that they may be included in the Legion Christmas Tree party.

—The Glen Community Club will hold an old time dance in the Town Hall, Glen Williams, at 9 o'clock on Friday, Oct. 31st. Proceeds for Christmas cheer for Glen soldiers. Admission 25c each.

—Two regular size articles for the price of one, plus only one cent! Seems unbelievable, but it's true. Next week, Wednesday, Thursday, Friday and Saturday, Nov. 5, 6, 7 and 8. Four big days. Over 300 bargains.—Robb's Drug Store, The Rexall Drug Store.

—All children under 11 years of age living in Georgetown whose fatoers are overseas will be looked after at the Canadian Legion Christmas Tree. Lucky draw tickets are now being sold by Legion members with five prizes valued at $36.00. Get your tickets now!

—Blessings seem to come in pairs to Mr. and Mrs. Henry Wilson, of Ashgrove. Last week a Durham grade cow at their farm gave birth to twin calves. It was the third pair of twins born to the animal, and the eleventh pair of twins born to cows at the Wilson farm since 1918.

—The regular meeting of the Women's Institute will be held on Wednesday, November 5th, at 3 p.m. at the home of Mrs. M. L. Near, George Street. Misses Charlotte McCullough and Irene Leslie will give a demonstration of first aid work.

—On view in the Herald window are some branches from a raspberry bush which bloomed this week. Mrs. John Shepherd, Victoria St., who brought them in, reports that she picked enough for breakfast this morning, and that several more berries are ripening on the bushes.

—Anniversary services will be held in Balinafad United Church, Sunday next, November 2nd, at 11 a.m. and 7 p.m. Standard Time. Rev. R. B. Dobbs, M.A., D.D. of Toronto, General Secretary of The United Church of Canada, will preach at both services. Special musical numbers will be furnished by Mrs. F. J. Shortill, Lambert Brothers, of Rockwood, and the Misses Aitit, of Hillsburg.

—An urgent appeal comes from Red Cross headquarters for new or good used blankets for England. Blankets may be left at the local Red Cross rooms in the Post Office. If you have no blankets to donate, remember that $2.00 buys a new one. Cash donations may be given to Mr. G. W. McLintock or Mrs. P. B. Coffin. Act to-day, and do your bit for blitz victims.

• The response to last week's sale was terrific. At 1.30 a.m. there were so many articles still to be sold that the Committee decided to hold a concluding sale on the above date.

• Additional donations are still welcomed. Telephone No. 8, the Georgetown Herald, and tell us what you are donating. Then bring your donation to the Herald Office next week.

• Watch next week's Herald for a full list of articles to be sold.
