On Monday afternoon Gretchen Bradley, daughter of Reg. Sgt. Major and Mrs. Balfe Bradley, had a delightful party on the occasion of her 6th birthday. Betty Boscoe, Lawrence Boscoe, Joan Harrington, Jacqueline Lucas, Bobby Lucas, Carol Feddon and Marilyn Warrens, all enjoyed an afternoon of games followed by the birthday supper.

Dr. and Mrs. George Paul of Toronto were guests at the home of Dr. and Mrs. R. T. Paul over the week end. Also visiting at the same home were Messrs. Douglas Andrew and Christopher Tubbs, who are attending Ridley College, St. Catharines. Douglas' parents are missionaries in Honan Province, China, his father being Archdeacon Andrew, while Christopher's father is the Bishop of Chester, in England.

On Thursday night, Miss Alice Cuttigan entertained twenty-five friends and neighbours at a miscellaneous shower in honour of Miss Stella Lane, bride-elect. A large white bell filled with colorful, was suspended from the ceiling and when the bride entered she was really "showered". She was then seated on a beautifully decorated chair, where she received many lovely and useful gifts. The evening was spent playing Pit, and euchre, after which the hostess, assisted by her sister and mother, served lunch.

The Marathon Bridge sponsored by the Countess of Strathmore Chapter, I.O.D.E. had a fine start last Wednesday night with eighteen tables playing. Mrs W. O. O. Thompson and Mrs D. W.
