Flu Bug Kayoes Debut Of New Raider Goalie

Curiosity, that undefinable characteristic that proved lethal to the cat worked in the opposite direction on ticket sales Friday night when a crowd of close to 400 filed into the John Street arena partially to witness the Raiders take on the league trailing Port Credit Sailors and parially to size up the highly-rated Raider newcomer, Barry Smith.

Instead of a breezy Raider win and Smith the clientele were served up a tight see-saw struggle with a grand rough-house finale and Lockhurst at his puck stopping best much to the frustration of the PCs who had to settle for a 5-4 defeat.

Smith's debut was postponed by the flu bug.

The slow burning fuse fanned by some questionable officiating reached the powder keg at about 19.44 of the third period. Blake Inglis and Clement were the first to clash. Cracker Evans piled on after the pair went to the ice. Jerry Inglis and company rushed in to haul Evans off, but big Dave Voyce beat him there.

NORM LOCKHURST

What little hair Evans has left came out in Voyce's fist when the blonde rearguard used the vanishing fuzz as a handle to jerk the Cracker's head back and chuck him under the chin. The Port Credit coach chased the rest of his team off the bench with a stick when the brawl started to swing in the Raiders' favour, but Raider coach Scotty Patterson opened the gated and evened things up.

Milne put Port Credit out in front from Evans and Clements at 6.05 of the first period, only to have Junior Beaumont tie it on a pass from Roy Luyben, a minute and a half later. Wayne Thompson from Bud Varey and George Grasby made it 2-1 at 1.18 of the second, and Doug Richardson from linemates Jr Beaumont and Blake Inglis netted number three at 2.12. Blackie Graham from McCrea at 2.37 and Cuddy from McNeil at 7.38 pulled the Sailors even before the end of the period.

Richardson counted his second goal at 7.42 of the third from Blake Inglis, and Jerry Inglis triggered the winner from brother Blake at 11.30. Evans from Graham and Clement notched Port Credit's fourth at 11.48.

115 Men, 75 Ladies Join To Make Top Curling Season

More people have indicated an interest in curling than at any time in the town's history, with opening of a new curling rink which will be operated in conjunction with North Halton Golf and Country Club.

The men's section has some 115 members, and the ladies 75. Men have been assigned Monday, Tuesday, Thursday and Friday evenings for their schedule, the ladies take over the rink Wednesday nights and Tuesday and Thursday afternoons.

Regular schedules started this week. On Sunday, members had a "get acquainted" mixed jitney, convened by Stewart Phillips and Mrs. Ernie Curry, with a large turnout both afternoon and evening.

Mr. Phillips is convening the men's schedule, with Joe Chapman, Earl Olson, Ernie Curry and Don Barrager on his committee. Jean Ruddell is ladies' convener, assisted by Mrs Harold Wheeler, Mrs. Bob Reeve, Mrs. Trevor Williams and Mrs Sam Mackenzie.

The ladies broke the bonspiel ice Thursday with an invitation affair and the men are planning one for February 13th. A week later a mixed bonspiel is planned.

Bantams Set Back By Milton 5-3

Juveniles Tie, Lose In Week's Two Games

Brampton Juveniles were the opportunists last Wednesday when they pounced on Georgetown mistakes to down the locals 6 to 3 at Brampton.

The hosts tallied early on goals by Hunter and Thompson but Georgetown bounced back to tie just as quickly on goals by Ballingal from Riddall, and Riddall unassisted.

Last Thursday a goal by Butterworth with just 15 seconds to go gave Oakville a 3-all tie with the Georgetown Juveniles. Henderson from Riddall, and Ferguson from Riddall opened the scoring for Georgetown. Chalmers and Callon tallied to tie the game, and in the third period Lindsay took a pass from Riddall and Lawson to put Georgetown ahead until the goal by Butterworth.

Oakville plays Georgetown Thursday in the first game of the play-offs.

Novices Play Hard But Lose To Milton

A pair of defensive lapses enabled Milton to down the local Jr. A all stars 2-1 in a Novice game at Milton Saturday.

The local reps played hard-hustling hockey from the drop of the puck and but for the miscues the game could just as easily gone the other way.

Georgetown's goal famine was ended on a tally by Frank King with assistance from Red McFarlane, Ricky Peavoy and Billy Neal who shared the Georgetown netminding both turned in steady performances.

February 10th has been set aside as open hockey night at the John Street arena, the hockey action to get under way about 7 p.m.

OLDTIMERS ASSOCIATION

HUCKLEBERRY POINT

At the beginning of this century some farm land on Hamilton Bay was called Huckleberry Point. This land became the site of part of The Steel Company of Canada, Limited.

Instead of farm land supporting a few families there is now at Huckleberry Point Canada's largest steel-making plant employing 11,000 of the Company's 16,000 employees. This year Stelco marks its 50th year of supplying steel for Canadians.

What happened at Huckleberry Point has happened in hundreds of towns and cities across the country. Canadian manufacturing now employs nearly 1,400,000 persons. These turn out the materials for a growing economy while their families provide markets for the products of Canadian farms, forests and mines.
