"THAT'S WHERE IT WILL BE," says P. Graham Bell, centre, as he reviews a blueprint of the new building planned by his firm in the Delrex industrial area. Rex Heslop, developer of this part of town, and Alan Weatherstone, general manager of the firm, are also surveying plans for the plant which is planned for September occupancy. Photo by Jay's Studio

Mother and Daughter Banquet Fly-Up Ceremony is Feature

St. John's Hall was the scene of the annual mother and daughter banquet put on by the 8th Georgetown Brownies and 3rd Georgetown Guide Pack, on Tuesday, May 10th. Approximately 150 girls, their mothers and leaders Brown Owl Mrs. Lloyd Sweezie, Tawny Owl Mrs. E. Benedict and Captains Mrs. B. Cannell and Mrs. Bob Wyatt attended.

Mrs. W. A. K. Howat, president of the Brownie and Guide Auxiliary chaired the evening and proposed a toast to the Queen. Brownie Jane McFarlane and Guide Carroll Farnell toasted the mothers on behalf of their respective groups and Mrs. Earl Lince and Mrs. Ivan Hay responded. Mr. Cecil Ford brought greetings from the Session of St. John's.

In a Fly-Up ceremony which followed, Jane McFarlane received her wings to become a guide. Both Brownies and Guides took part in the ceremony and also enjoyed a film on the life of the Queen entitled Royal Destiny. Thanking the Brownies, Guides and mothers, Mrs. Wyatt reminded the girls of the Motto and Promise and closed by reciting "Somebody's Mother." She offered special thanks to Rev. Morgan McFarlane. Mrs. Howat thanked the ladies of the Scout auxiliary who served.

Mrs. Keith Barber thanked the leaders for their work with the girls and taps brought the program to a close.

Head table guests included Rev. and Mrs. Morgan McFarlane, Captain Mrs. B. Cannell, Captain Mrs. R. Wyatt, Brown Owl Mrs. Lloyd Sweezie, Tawny Owl Mrs. E. Benedict, Mrs. K. Howat and Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Ford.

Crown Gloria Latimer Acton Posture Queen

Gloria Latimer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ron Latimer of Limehouse, was crowned posture queen at Acton high school. Members of the school's girls' athletic society staged a posture contest in observance of Posture Week.

The contest was held throughout the day and Gloria and the 'posture king' Alan Hayward of Acton were crowned during a dance after school.

The students were under surveillance during the day and points for slouching, not walking erect and not maintaining good posture generally, were subtracted from each offender's score.

Ella Jersey is Classe Leader

Once again, the herd of H. J. Watt, St. Marys, Ont. is represented in the Class Leaders in the Jersey breed for the month of April, for Canada. This time it is Golden Spring Daisy's Betty, who, as a seven year old produced 14,281 lbs. of milk and 815 lbs. of fat. She went on for 365 days and produced 16,035 lbs. of milk and 924 lbs. of fat, the second highest Jersey record made in Canada this year. She was milked twice daily.

In the senior four year old class, the leader is Marlu Supreme Model, a cow purchased at the Marlu Sale in New Jersey in 1959 for $6,000.00 by Mr. J. H. Molson of Montreal. Quebec Model produced 13,550 lbs of milk and 762 lbs of fat, breaking the all time Canadian record for butterfat production as a senior 4 year old in 305 days on 2 x milking. She replaces the cow, Donalda Volunteer Rosemary, that has led this class since 1947, when she produced 746 lbs of fat with an average test of 7.75%.

The junior four year olds are led by the well known Rock Ella herd of Kenneth Ella & Sons, Hornby, Ontario, where Rock Ella Xenia Star produced 9,413 lbs of milk and 584 lbs. of fat.

The senior 3 year-olds find their leader in British Columbia, where Valtallina Star Dream, owned by R. A. Anderlini, Aldergrove, B.C., produced 11,877 lbs of milk, and 657 lbs. of fat. Avonlea Raleigh Suzanna leads the junior 3 year-olds with 12,215 lbs. of milk, and 654 lbs. of fat. Suzanna is a daughter of the superior sire Brampton Busy

Beacon, and from the long distance producer, Avonlea Records Suzanna, who has nearly 7,000 lbs. of fat in her life time, and is still going strong. Suzanna is owned by Featherstone Bros., Oakville, Ont.

H. J. Watt of St. Marys, Ont. has another leader. This time it is in the senior 2 year old class. Thames Mount Lady Beacon, a daughter of the bull Brampton Standing Beacon, who has over 100 tested daughters, is the leader with 11,338 lbs. of milk, and 594 lbs. of fat.

Don Head Farms, Richmond Hill, Ontario, have the high junior 2 year-old on Don Head Belleboy Etta, with 10,690 lbs of milk and 514 lbs of fat.

K. E. Haas, Woodbridge, Ontario, has the high senior yearling with Karandale Conrad's Cleo, a daughter of Nance's Dreamer, producing 6,972 lbs. of milk, 413 lbs. of fat.

Medical authorities do not advise the application of beefsteak to a black eye.

Why Stay in School?

All teen-agers capable of absorbing an education should stay in school until they graduate. The problem often is to convince them why. Sun Life's leaflet, "Why Stay in School?" explains the challenge, the tremendous promise and the increased future income that are theirs with a completed high school education. If you have teen age children, you should get a copy of this booklet for them. "Why Stay in School?" and other booklets in the Values in Education series, offered as a public service by Sun Life Assurance Company of Canada, are available without charge or obligation. Just mail the coupon below.

Rodeo Proceeds to Boost Lions Hospital Donation

Shades of Dodge City!

Georgetown's own western and middle wild.

A rodeo, complete with wild horses, cowgirls, cowboys, western bands, chuckwagons and all is being brought to town by the Lions Club and the week prior to the show itself will be proclaimed Western Week. The friendly invasion of horses and rodeo contestants from all over Ontario and the U.S. is scheduled for early June.

On the morning of the events, a gala parade will wind its way through town to the fair grounds, where some 75 contestants will match skills at bronc riding, bull dogging, etc. throughout the day. Barbeques and square dancing are just part of the grand wind up in the evening.

During the week Georgetown will make its transformation. According to a Lions spokesman the merchants are adding to the western theme with cowboy garb and buckboards, and chuckwagons will become familiar vehicles on local streets.

Proceeds are earmarked for the hospital fund.

Doctor of Divinity Degree for Cameron

Ross K. Cameron, George town-born Toronto cleric, will now be known as Dr. Cameron.

He was one of five Presbyterian ministers from Canada and overseas who received the honorary degree of Doctor of Divinity at the Knox College convocation on April 26th at the University of Toronto.

Dr. Cameron, a Knox graduate, has been chaplain of the 48th Highlanders of Canada since the second war. During the war he served as a chaplain in the Royal Canadian Air Force.

Son of the late Rev. and Mrs. R. F. Cameron he attended public and high school here. His father died while serving as minister of Knox Presbyterian Church. First deciding to be a druggist, he worked in Watson's Drug Store, started his pharmacy course, then decided to follow his father in the ministry.

His first charge was at Streetsville, and he was at Rogers Presbyterian Church in the city until the war. When he returned from active service he became minister at his present church, Dovercourt Presbyterian. He is a patron of the Georgetown Hospital Building Fund.

Several members of the Lawson family, with whom he lived after his mother's death, were present at the convocation to see Dr. Cameron awarded his high honour.

Weavers Witness Work At Wildwood Seminar

The annual seminar for this area was held May 8th at the home of Mrs. Earl Trow, Wildwood Manor, sponsored by the Georgetown Weavers Guild. Ladies from Oakville, Burlington, Waterloo County and Guelph attended.

Lloyd Marshall director of the Community Programmes Branch, Oakville, displayed the collection of weaving books from "The Eleanor Batkin Library" given by Mr. Batkin for the use of the weaving guild in the area.

An informal talk by Mrs. Helen Gregor, teacher of Crafts at the Ontario College of Art on "what to do with what you know" highlighted the meeting. Mrs. Gregor used coloured slides to show the exquisite use of colour and design in weaving techniques for drapery, wall coverings, rugs, etc. The pictured work was that of her pupils.

She also showed some samples of her own work and discussed the method employed. The work brought by the individual weavers was later displayed and admired.

Prior to Mrs. Gregor's talk, a business session was conducted by the area president, Miss Laura Treble, and Miss Eileen Muff, weaving consultant for Provincial Community Programs Branch of the Department of Education of Ontario. Afternoon tea was served by the Georgetown Guild.

St. George's Servers At Guelph Conference

One hundred and eighty Jr. Servers representing many parishes in the Anglican Diocese of Niagara convened at St. George's Anglican Church, in Guelph recently.

The afternoon was informative and a practical work was illustrated. The boys viewed the filmstrip 'What is my Life for?' This was followed by a demonstrated Eucharist and a discussion and question period.

Evensong was conducted in the church and the group were served a delicious supper by the Havergal bible class in the main auditorium. Boys attending from St. George's were S. Arthur, S. Petto, D. Meades, B. Kaye, B. Smith, R. Eves, J. Knight, A. Petterson, R. Bell, R. Parry, D. Underhill, J. English. The sessions were under the direction of the Chaplain, the Rev. C. Raymond of St. Columbus Church, St. Catharines.

Truant Rotarians Will Say "Cheese Please"

Even sausages are too good for Rotarians who miss meetings according to Acton Rotarians who have challenged their local counterparts to an attendance competition for the month of June, the winners to be treated to steak dinner by the losers, who — it says here — will be subjected to the unimaginable torment of sitting at the same table with a slightly limp cheese sandwich.

With the possibility of such an excruciating fate hanging over their heads, Georgetown Rotary executive urged every member to attend the June meetings at any cost, when they met Monday night for their regular dinner meeting at the North Halton Golf and Country Club. It was their opinion that it will take close to 100% attendance to earn the plates with the gravy.

The happiness of your life depends upon the quality of your thoughts.
