Bishop Dies In West Gave Gifts Locally

Philip Rodger Beattie, the fourth Bishop of Kootenay, British Columbia, died on Friday, September 9th. The burial was held at Kelowna on Tuesday, September 13th.

Bishop Beattie was one of the youngest Bishops of the Anglican Church and was consecrated Bishop of Kootenay on May 1, 1955 in Christ's Church Cathedral, Victoria, B.C.

He was a native of Barrie and was ordained in 1936 and served at Sudbury, St. Catharines and was Dean of the Cathedral in Victoria, B.C. prior to his election as Bishop of Kootenay.

Bishop Beattie is survived by a brother, James Campbell of Cleveland, and four sisters, Mrs. F. J. Carson, and Miss Gertrude Beattie of Toronto, Miss Helen Beattie of Kelowna and Miss Damaris Beattie of Hamilton. The latter is a summer resident of Cheltenham and last year presented St. Alban's Church, Glen Williams with a superfrontal for the Altar.

Prayers were offered at the altar for the bereaved and the Diocese of Kootenay at St. George's Church, on Sunday, September 11th.

Mrs. W. Asseltine Bereaved of Father

Friends of Mrs. W. Asseltine, 54 Byron Street will be sorry to hear of the loss of her father, Frederick William Campbell, who died suddenly on August 31st from a heart attack. Mr. and Mrs. Campbell were well known in Georgetown among the friends of Mr. and Mrs. Asseltine since they attended many of the sport activities here and were staunch supporters of Georgetown teams and the young people.

Mr. Campbell was sixty-seven years old and retired from the New Toronto Fire Department seven years ago. He was born and lived all his life in the New Toronto district and saw a great many changes in that district, remembering when there were only three houses where it is now a thriving suburb of Metropolitan Toronto.

His wife, the former Elizabeth Lonsdale survives him; they were married on October 9th, 1922. Their two children, Mrs. W. Asseltine (Jean) and Keith of Port Credit and seven grandchildren are also left.

Funeral service was conducted at Century United Church in New Toronto and interment was in Glendale Memorial Gardens. A nephew, Rev. Wm. Campbell of Fergus assisted in the service. Members of the New Toronto Fire Department were pallbearers and also formed a guard of honour.

328 New Pupils Start At Georgetown Public Schools

Three hundred and twenty-eight new public school children enrolled when Georgetown's five public schools opened their doors last week.

Reporting at a meeting of the Georgetown Public School Board last Wednesday night the principals of the five schools pooled their attendance figures revealing an increase of 187 over last year. One hundred and forty one graduated in June.

The resultant increase makes the total public school enrolment this year 1,924 as compared to 1,737 last term.

A breakdown shows Harrison with the largest enrolment, 679, up 47 from last year. Wrigglesworth with 418, up 15, Chapel St. with 235, up 29, Park with 296, up 18, and Kennedy with 296, up 46.

and another was broken earlier in the year.

Chapel Street principal Val Stein who reported on the broken fountains also requested repairs to three doors in the school's basement and a leaking main water valve.

Harrison Public School's new principal Harry Knapper who succeeds Harold Henry there was officially welcomed by the board and reported that he is still without a principal's relief teacher. George Kennedy principal Hazen Allen reported that some glass damage occurred at the school as well as minor damage to the fountain.

James Eccles Dies In Guelph Hospital Brother and Sister Here

After a lengthy illness James Alexander Eccles died on September 6th in Guelph General Hospital at the age of seventy nine. Mr. Eccles was born the son of Mary McNevin Eccles and John Eccles on the tenth line where he lived until the time of his marriage in 1912 to the late Wilhelmina Lyons, at which time they took up farming at R.R. 2, Brampton.

Mr. Eccles was active in many farm organizations, particularly the Ploughmen's Association. Mrs. Eccles predeceased him eighteen years ago. Surviving are their children James M. of R.R. 2 Brampton; Georgina (Mrs. Frank Dobson) R.R. 2 Brampton and Jean (Mrs. Wilfred Kirkwood) of R.R. 2, Norval. A brother and sister are also left, Sadie (Mrs. W. A. McClure) Georgetown and Archie of Glen Williams. Seven grandchildren are also left.

Funeral service was conducted at the David A. McClure Funeral Home, Brampton, on Thursday, September 8th at 3.30. Pallbearers were William Reed, Jack V. McClure, Andrew McClure, Harold McClure, Clare Archdekin and Norman Breadner. Interment was in Brampton Cemetery.
