PAULS PLEAD — PEOPLE PAY

PAUL DEROO (at the mike) and Paul Baker (at right) give an attentive crowd 'the pitch' at the Mystery Auction booth at the GHS bazaar at the high school Thursday night, and it paid off. People responded and the coffers of the student council were replenished for another term. Assisting are Beverly Wilkinson and Anne P[illegible]

ACCLAIMED IN ESQUESING

GEORGE CURRIE — WILFRED LESLIE — WALTER LINHAM

SITTING COUNCILLORS Wilfrid Leslie and Walter Linham will be joined by [illegible] lors George Currie on the 1962 Esquesing council. They were acclaimed to office at Monday's nomination meeting in Stewarttown.

259 Donors Swell Local Blood Bank

Two hundred and fifty-nine donors enabled the Georgetown Branch of the Canadian Red Cross to replenish the Toronto Division blood bank in a big way through their donors clinic held Monday in the Knox Presbyterian Church hall.

In fact, 268 offered blood to the clinic but the number of actual pints received was decreased by nine rejects.

Supervisor of Blood Donor Services in Toronto, Mr. J. B. H. Goodfellow visited the clinic during the afternoon and later sent a letter of congratulations complementing the branch on the success of the clinic.

Chairman of the clinic was Mrs. John Ferguson, Public Relations Chairman was Mrs. Jack Nieuwhof, the canvassing convener was Mrs. Mills and Mrs. K. H. York handled the secretarial work.

The committee was assisted in general work by Mrs. Mourltzen, Mrs. Crawford, Mrs. Hancock, Mrs. Rolfe, Mrs. Garland, Mrs. Jones, Mrs. Burns, and Miss Rosemary Jordan. The registered nurses assisting were Mrs. Brick, Mrs. Hogan, Mrs. Frost. Dr. B. J. Bebenek was on call.

The typists were Mrs. Wallace, Mrs. Bragg, and Mrs. Woods, through the courtesy of Smith and Stone, and Mrs. Lyttle. Typewriters were on loan from Walter Pope, Accountant, and Smith and Stone. Coca cola was donated by the Coca Cola company and the Women's Auxiliary of Knox Presbyterian Church provided doughnuts and refreshments.

Transportation to and from the clinic was taken care of by Mrs. Kirby, and Chief Harold Gilmer of the Volunteer Ambulance Service and volunteers set up the necessary facilities. The Kinsmen's service club donated in a body.

A branch spokesman said the success of the clinic was only possible through combined efforts of the clinic chairman, public relations chairman, conveners, committees, volunteers, depot staff, and of course the splendid response of the donors through their churches, service clubs, etc.

ATTEMPT

Would-be burglars were unsuccessful in a break-in attempt at Delrex Restaurant last weekend. The front door had been worked on but the culprits were apparently scared off.

Neighbours Have Showers for Bride

Prior to her marriage to Donald Gerald Brown, Miss Jane Wardlaw was a guest at two showers in her honour in town.

Mrs. Thomas Herbert entertained a group of friends at a miscellaneous shower. An hour of games and contests followed opening of the gifts, with Mrs. Maurice Herbert assisting the hostess with games and lunch.

Another group of friends gathered at the home of Mrs. Norman Lounds for another miscellaneous shower. Mrs. Newton Ruddell assisted in conducting several contests and a buffet lunch followed.
