Georgetown Swimmers Best In Tri-Town

Cool Night, Crowd Sparse For Meet

Their time was probably slowed considerably by goose-pimples but Georgetown swimmers, nevertheless, stroked their way to a convincing win in the first tri-town competitive aquatic night Thursday at the pool in front of a sparse crowd.

Local swimmers from 10 to 18 churned their way to 6 firsts, 11 seconds, and 3 thirds for 43 points, 12 more than Brampton, their closest challengers. The third team, Orangeville collected 21 points.

Those who did show up to watch the contest, saw free style races, the breast stroke, back crawl, relays and other swimming styles, but got a special kick out of a skin diving demonstration which filled the intermission entertainingly while the competitors caught their breath and sought shelter from the unseasonal chill.

Here's how they finished in each event:

Girls 10-12 Free Style — Claudia Teague, Georgetown; Linda Teague, Georgetown, Marlene Ferris, Brampton

Boys 10-12 Free Style — David Swales, Brampton, Jack Kemshead, Georgetown, Brian Van Norman, Orangeville

Decorated As Nurse In World War One

Decorated in World War I for her service as a nurse, Mrs. J. P. Girvan died at her home, Wildwood Lodge, near Georgetown on July 24th.

The former Jean Elizabeth Sword, she was born at Bognor, Ontario, the daughter of William and Maria Allison Sword. She was educated in Owen Sound, trained as a nurse and went overseas with the First Contingent Canadian Expeditionary Force in 1914 and served in France. She received the Royal Red Cross decoration, the 1914-15 Star and two war medals.

She was married in London, England on July 13th, 1917 to Brigadier J. P. Girvan. They lived in Toronto until choosing Wildwood Lodge for retirement in 1947.

She was a past regent of the 48th Highlanders Chapter of the IODE and for many years was active in church work at St. Michael's and All Angels Church in Toronto. She attended St. George's Anglican Church in town.

Her husband died a year ago and she was also predeceased by a son, John M. Girvan, killed in an accident in Argentina in 1957. One son, K. M. Girvan of Scarborough survives.

Rev. John McMulkin was assisted by Bishop George Snell of Toronto in conducting a private funeral service on Thursday in St. George's Church. Burial was in Greenwood Cemetery, Georgetown.

Midget Baseball In Halton Play-Offs

On Sunday, July 29th, Georgetown Midgets played host to the Hornby Midget ball club. The two rival clubs battled nine innings to a 2-2 tie. Wayne Davison was on the mound for the local crew against his former team mates and pitched a nice no hit ball game. Georgetown hit the score sheet first in the second inning, scoring one run on two hits and one Hornby error. The game remained extremely close as both ball clubs played heads up ball. John Monkman singled in the sixth inning, was sacrificed to second by Russ Bradley and was driven home on a single by Wayne Davison. In the eighth inning, Davison gave up his ninth walk of the game and for the first time since the first inning, they really threatened. The runner came in to score on a subsequent walk, a passed ball, and a perfect squeeze bunt that left Georgetown no alternative but to go to first and get the man. Hornby came on in the ninth inning to tie the ball game on two walks, a fielder's choice and a key error to Georgetown. Naylor on the mound for Hornby gave up only one hit in the final three innings, thus holding the local boys bats in check.

Hornby had two runs on no hits, committed two errors and were issued twelve walks. Georgetown had two runs on seven hits and one walk and committed two errors. Big bats for Georgetown were Russ Bradley and Wayne Davison with two hits each, and Alister Blair, John Monkman and Mike Cummins with singles each. Georgetown now enters Halton County playoffs against Oakville Halton Tile, the first game being in Oakville on Friday, August 5th. Parents and fans, come on out to the park on Sunday and get behind your boys and cheer them on to victory.

Georgetown Lady Was Resident Since 1921

After a lengthy illness Mrs. Edward Barker, 84, died in Georgetown & District Memorial Hospital on July 23rd.

Born in London, England, she was the former Esther Jackson. She later lived at Stockport and Cheshire until coming to Canada in 1919. She had made her home in Georgetown since 1921 and following her husband's death in 1932, she lived with her daughter, Mrs. Harry Logan at 122 Mountainview Road.

She was a devoted member of the Anglican church.

Leaves One Son

She leaves one son John Ernest Barker of Buxton, England; a daughter Alice, Mrs. Harry Logan; two grandchildren and four great grandchildren.

Rev. Ronald Mobley of St. Alban's Anglican Church, Glen Williams, conducted the funeral service last Wednesday at the Harold C. McClure Funeral Home. Pallbearers were Gerald Inglis, Harold Inglis, Blake Inglis, Carl Hill, Gordon Preston and Harvey Garvin. Interment was in Greenwood Cemetery.

Tonight's Game For Third Place

Third place is at stake when the Glen Williams girls ball team invades Omagh tonight. The game will be the last before playoffs get under way sometime next week.

The Glen will be playing either Hornby or Palermo in the first round of the playoffs, depending on how they fare tonight.

Hall Canvassers Meet Good Response

Canvassers soliciting funds for the new community hall at Ballinafad report an excellent response this week.

A barometer indicator has been placed at the main corner in the village to record progress of the campaign and residents have been generous with contributions.

A good sum is still needed to put the campaign over the top and those who have not yet been called upon are asked to give the canvasser a cordial welcome.

ANSWERS
TO SOME QUESTIONS WE GET . . .

QUESTION . . .
MR. GARNER:
What carpet would YOU recommend for our home?

ANSWER
Well, since obviously you expect to live with this carpet for some time, it should have, regardless of price, good characteristics for wear, easy cleaning, crush-proofing and color fastness. And if you wish it also a moderate price, I would suggest our wool and nylon blend, for it combines all these good qualities.
