Two At a Time New Visiting Regulation

The Visitors Control system will go into effect at the Georgetown and District Memorial Hospital on Monday.

Operated by volunteers of the Hospital Auxiliary under the Co-ordinator of Volunteer Services, Mrs. George Hewson, the system will limit the number of people visiting a patient at any one time, to two. A 'tab' system will be used whereby the auxiliary worker at the control desk will keep a list of every patient with two coloured tabs beside each name. A tab will be removed as each visitor checks through the desk. When a visitor leaves one of the two tabs will be replaced and another visitor may then be allowed to see the patient.

The desk will be at the entrance corridor at the edge of the lobby and everyone visiting a patient will be required to notify the volunteer on duty of the name of the patient they are visiting. When a patient has two visitors others will be asked to wait in the lobby until one visitor has checked out.

In the case where a visitor wishes to see more than one patient the system will be modified.

The system will not be employed initially during the weekday afternoons, but will be in effect each evening and on weekends. In the evening it will be operating from 6:30 until 8 o'clock.

Hospital administrator Graham Gilmoly said the control system is being employed to insure that the patients are given the utmost consideration. Immediate family will be given priority.

At least twenty auxiliary volunteers are needed to operate the system properly. Right now Mrs. Hewson has no problem since the number registered to assist is adequate, however she foresees a shortage of help with the coming of summer holidays. Anyone interested in becoming a volunteer may do so by calling Mrs. Hewson, at 877-3454.

CELEBRATE SPRING WITH A LIGHT DESSERT

To bring a breath of spring to mealtime, desserts made with convenient instant pasteurized powdered skim milk are ideal. Carnation Company Limited's home economists suggest Sunshine Squares. Low in calories, light in texture, delicate in flavour . . . this chiffon dessert heralds the arrival of spring on your dinner table.

SUNSHINE SQUARES
(MAKES 49 PIECES)

3 envelopes unflavoured gelatine
½ cup cold water
2 cups sugar
2 tablespoons honey
¾ cup lemon juice
½ cup ice water
½ cup instant pasteurized powdered skim milk
2 tablespoons lemon juice
Chocolate and colored decorettes and crystalline sugar

Add gelatine to ½ cup cold water in large mixing bowl. Stir together sugar, honey and ¾ cup lemon juice in 2-quart saucepan; stir constantly over medium heat until syrup reaches rolling boil. Boil for 5 minutes without stirring. Remove from heat. Stir into gelatine until smooth. Cool at room temperature to consistency of thick syrup (45 to 60 minutes). Stir occasionally.

Pour ½ cup ice water into mixing bowl. Add skim milk powder and whip until soft peaks form (3 to 4 minutes). Add 2 tablespoons lemon juice and whip until very stiff (about 3 to 4 minutes). Beat into gelatine mixture; blend until smooth. Pour into buttered 9-inch square pan. Chill 1 hour. Cut into 49 pieces (7 cuts on each side). Roll in decorettes or crystalline sugar.
