These Plane Building Hobbyists Have Their Heads in the Clouds

Return From Nassau Honeymoon

Dr. and Mrs. Greig in New Home

Dr. and Mrs. Harry Greig have returned from a honeymoon in Nassau, the Bahamas, and have taken up residence at 83 Windsor Road.

Dr. Greig and his bride, Sandra Sproule were married in St John's United Church on June 8th in a ceremony at 6 00 p.m. performed by Rev Ian Fleming. Standards of white snapdragons and white tapered candles in candleabras decorated the church.

The bride wore a floor length gown of French crepe taffeta designed on Grecian lines with fully pleated back, elbow length sleeves and a short train. She wore a pillbox headdress with shoulder length triple tier nylon tulle veil and carried Bacarra red roses.

Kenneth R Harrison was organist and Bill Brush, Milton, sang The Lord's Prayer, Wedding Prayer and O Perfect Love during the service.

Mrs Donald Ford, Kitchener, was matron of honour. Bridesmaids were Miss Betty Jean Anderson, the bride's sister Judy and the groom's sister Betty. Attendants wore castilian rose French crepe taffeta of identical Grecian style, pillbox headdresses and matching shoes. They carried cascade bouquets of Lily of the Valley. Mrs. Ford's bouquet centred with red roses.

Mr. Sproule gave his daughter in marriage in the double ring ceremony. The groom's brother, Gordon of Vancouver, was groomsman. Ushers were Carl Shenk, Richmond Hill, Donald Ford, Kitchener and the bride's brother Ron Sproule of town. Male members of the wedding party wore white dinner jackets and dark trousers.

A reception was held at North Halton Golf and Country Club where the bride's mother received wearing a peacock blue shantung dress with jacket, matching hat and white accessories and a white gardenia corsage. Mrs. Greig received for her son in pale blue brocade, a matching hat and beige accessories. Her corsage was of Johanna Hill tea roses.

For her honeymoon trip, the bride chose an apple green pure silk shantung shift with tailored hip length jacket matching hat and beige accessories and an orchid corsage.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs Stanley Grant Sproule, 47 Byron St and was formerly a TCA stewardess. She now works with her husband in his dental office in the Carretal building. Dr. Greig is the son of Mr and Mrs Charles Greig, R R 1.

Included among wedding guests who came from Alexandria, Virginia and Ottawa was the bride's grandfather, Mr. David Edgar of Ottawa.

Tely Clippings Get Funnelled To Planners

Despite many protestations regarding the unworthiness of anonymous letters, considerable attention was given to one by Council Tuesday night. The mayor said that this one had been sent to his home. Accompanying the letter was a clipping from the Telegram also regarding the taxing of single family dwellings which have been converted to multiple dwellings.

While the letter was not read in correspondence since it was [illegible] it was passed around the Council table.

A motion that the letter and clipping be sent to the Planning Board for study was passed with Coun. Hildebrand opposing. [illegible] anonymous letter [illegible] This one is a very bad style [illegible] be considered [illegible] against any motion [illegible] anonymous letter any importance. Why do [illegible] we feel a motion [illegible] something up to the Planning Board we could have done it with no publicity at all."

"We all agree the suggestion is worthwhile," said Coun. Smith. "If so let's do it. Just because someone hasn't got the guts to sign their name, has no bearing on [illegible]."
