Summer Came Early For Fashion Fans

Summer arrived at the Wrigglesworth auditorium two months ahead of schedule when St. Andrew's United Church women upped the curtain on warm weather wear with a Spring and Summer fashion show Wednesday, April 22.

Ten models displayed the latest gay garments on a stage decorated with large planters of geraniums and ferns. A high school instrumental quartet, the Starlighters, played during an interlude.

Cotton Brothers fashions were worn by Mrs. Marjorie Kasdale, Mrs. Betty Belfast, Mrs. Mary Zorge, Miss Sylvia Norton, Miss Jeanette Smith, Miss Karen Norton, Miss Beverley Wilkinson, Miss Darlene Walker, Mrs. Bernice Mark, and Mrs. Laura Moss.

Mrs. Connie Johnston was commentator, and background music was by Rev. Kelvin Johnston. Refreshments were served after the parade of fashions.

The audience were treated to previews of raincoats, two piece dresses, spring coats, sheaths and full skirts. Sportswear, two and three piece sets, culottes, slim sets, and beachwear were particularly tempting.

Furs were worn with evening gowns to complete the effect. The high point was the showing of outfits for the spring bride, bridesmaid, and bride's mother.

The ensembles were complemented by jewellery from Barber's Jewellers and shoes by Congdon's, and hair styles by Christell; hats by the Evelyn Shoppe.

Other credits: Mrs. D. Ward, programs; C. Fisher, lighting; Steinberg's and I.G.A., coffee equipment; G & S Television, public address system; Robert Gougeon Furnishings, runner and furnishings; Beaver Lumber and Zorge Construction, ramp; Rosedale Floral, floral decorations; Studio Girl, make-up.

Quite a few people could more closely stick to a thinning diet by paying cash for groceries.
