OMHA CLINIC HERE

REFS WILL GO BACK TO THE BOOKS

GEORGETOWN OMHA REFEREES Mac Korzack, Garry Perkins and Don Jarvie turn it up in this dramatic demonstration of one of the many hockey infractions that the Ontario Minor Hockey Ass'n. will be dealing with in a clinic here Tuesday, Dec. 15th. Some fifty referees from every town in the Tri-County league are expected to attend. Unlike the tongue-in-cheek pose above, the clinic conductors will be dead serious in their work to standardize officiating throughout the league.

Junior Beavers Bunched In Tie for Third Place

Georgetown Beavers of the OHA Junior C Central League are bunched in a three-way third place tie after a win and a loss on the week-end - but they could be alone in second place after their weekend double bill with the tail-enders.

Preston Pals were anything but as they thumped Georgetown 6-1 in Preston Saturday night, but Beavers overpowered Dundas in their Sunday afternoon home game, 9 to 4.

The even split left them with 12 points on 6 wins and 5 defeats, and tied with the two clubs they just played, Dundas and Preston.

They trail New Hamburg and Hespeler by 2 points and are 6 points back of Simcoe at the top.

Paris, the club Georgetown Beavers meet Sunday here and Monday in Paris, has a 1 and 9 record.

Doug Selby and rearguard Wayne Ruddall were the red hot Beavers Sunday. Selby scored three times and Ruddall counted three goals and two assists in spearheading the Beaver attack.

Jan Popiel, Glen Cooper, and Rod Presawood registered the other Georgetown goals. Bundy scored twice and Rooney and Evans once each for the losers.

Beaver able to get on the score sheet in Preston. He scored from Selby and Ruddall to spoil the shutout. Preston snipers were Hansen (3), Russell (2), and Werbery (1).

Ten Complete Course in Hunter Safety Training

The fourth class this fall to complete the Hunter Safety Training program conducted by Department of Lands and Forests instructors here successfully passed testing at the Georgetown Anglers and Hunters building near Ballinafad Saturday, Nov. 28.

In the class were Gary Glaude, David Carter, John Graff, Gord Layton, and Cecil Peacock of Georgetown, George Sheppard, Pete Deforest, and Neil Bird, Terra Cotta, and Merle Harrison and Steven Coy, Acton.

They were given the instruction and examination by Don Hancock, R.R. 1, Glen Williams and Ron Challenger, Georgetown.

The training and testing lasts approximately six hours. The written part of the exam includes some thirty questions on gun handling.

Don Hancock and Ron Challenger administer safety instruction and gun handling for all Georgetown and Esquesing residents seeking their first gun license or to replace a lost license.

Beavers Win Tuesday Now Have 7-5 Record

Georgetown Beavers downed Hespeler 4-2 in Hespeler Tuesday night to give themselves a 7 wins 5 losses record in the OHA Junior C Central League.

Terry Hay led the way with two goals. Doug Selby and Ron Malcolm scored the others for the winners.
