MEMORIAMS

FENDLEY — In loving memory of a dear husband and father, Frank Fendley, who passed away Sept. 19th, 1961.
"It's not the words, they are few,
It's not the golden memory we keep of you.
Each flower and leaf may wither,
Each evening sun may set,
But the hearts of we who loved you
Are the ones who never forget
—Sadly missed by wife and family.

PALMER—In loving memory of a dear son, Thomas Arthur Palmer, who died, result of a car accident September 19, 1953.
In my heart your memory lingers,
Always tender, fond and true,
There's not a day, dear Tom,
That I do not think of you.
If love could save, thou hadst not died.
—Loved and remembered always, Mom and Alvin.

NDP Party to Choose Candidate Sept. 27

Election interest in the riding has increased with an announcement from the Halton New Democrats that the date of their nominating convention has been set for September 27.

William Gillies of Oakville, the president of the Halton New Democratic Association, announced after an N.D.P. Council meeting held in Milton on Sept. 13, that the date had been set, the convention to be held in Milton on September 27.

Members present at that meeting felt that chances were increasingly good for the fortunes of the New Democratic Party in the riding with finances and organization at an all time high.

Suffers Head Injuries When Knocked Down

Ten years old Memo Senga of Huttonville was admitted to hospital late Wednesday afternoon after an accident in Huttonville at the Credit River bridge.

According to Chinguacousy police, Senga rose his bicycle out of a driveway onto the road where it was hit by a car driven by a Georgetown man, Edward Stone.

Senga suffered head injuries when he was knocked down. He was rushed to Peel Memorial Hospital, Brampton.

The accident is still under investigation.

SOCIAL and PERSONAL

Mr. Arnold Brill, who has lived for several years in Paris, France, is in Toronto visiting with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. David Brill.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Tyers, 24 Tyers Ave. are back home again after spending the summer months at their cottage at Hawkstone.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Gray of Galt and their three children, Kathy, David and Andrew have taken up residence at 26 Rexway Drive. Mr. Gray is employed by E. W. Bliss & Co.

Mr. and Mrs. Hans Baumgartner, 35 Park Ave. returned home recently from a visit to their Austrian homeland. It was their first trip back after coming to Canada nine years ago. They spent most of their time with relatives, including his mother at Wies and Mrs. Baumgartner's mother at Graz.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Brunner and children, recently returned home from a trip to California. Highlights of their trip were visits to Reno, San Francisco, Las Vegas, and the Hoover Dam. In Garden Grove, California, they were guests of former residents of town, the McConkeys and of other former residents the Rusks, in Anaheim, California.

Mrs. Arthur Herbert, 6 Guelph St. spent the summer months in Britain. She visited with her brothers and sisters in England and Scotland, staying at Harwell, England and Ayr, Lanark and Peebles, Scotland. She was impressed with her visit to the Canadian military cemetery in Harwell which she describes as beautifully kept.

Friends in town will be interested to know that a former resident, Mrs. C. B. Dayfoot is now living in Toronto at 15 Hazelton Avenue. Mrs. Dayfoot had lived in Victoria B.C. for some years since leaving town, then went to San Fernando, Trinidad for the past few years to live with her missionary son Arthur and his family.

Mr. and Mrs. Don Marlene, and Faye; Mr. and Mrs. Barr and Cathy Saxe, motored to the Four Season Motel, Toronto, Sunday to hear William Sears, world traveller, lecturer and author of several Baha'i books. His most recent publication is Thief In The Night and is obtainable at Georgetown Library.

Mrs. Muriel Barr, Normandy Blvd., and Miss Cathy Saxe, Charles St., spent a few days recently at the Davison Baha'i School near Flint Michigan during Senior Youth Week.

Mrs. Alex Fraser of Stevensville is visiting with her mother and sister, Mrs. J. McDougall and Miss Janet McDougall, 16 Chapel St. E. Her son Brian enrolled at the Univerhity of Toronto this week, where he will study for his B.A. degree in English and history. Brian topped his Grade 13 class at Fort Erie high school after receiving his earlier education at Ridgeway High.

Mr. and Mrs. Lou Pankenin, 36 Mill St., with children Barbara and Reni, returned last week from a three week trip to Europe. They rented a car and toured from Amsterdam down the Rhine, visited parts of Switzerland, Lichtenstein and Austria, then their native East Germany and Berlin. They visited with Mr. Pankenin's mother and brothers in Marzstret. The town has been renamed since the war, and was Chemnitz when the Pankenins lived there.

ENGAGEMENTS

Mr. and Mrs. C. Stanley Pishburn of Norval, Ontario, announce the engagement of their daughter, Sharon Lyne to Mr. Paul Arthur Atkinson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Atkinson of Brampton. The marriage to take place on Saturday, October 9th, 1965 at three-thirty in the afternoon in Norval United Church.

The engagement is announced of Doris May, daughter of Mrs. William Mitchell, Limehouse, and the late Mr. Mitchell, to Mr. James G. Evans, son of Mrs. Florence Bowman of Toronto and the late G. Evans. The marriage will take place in Rexdale United Church on Saturday, Oct. 9th, at 3.30 in the afternoon.

Plan Hallowe'en Party For Stewarttown Kids

Members of Esquesing W.I. met at the home of Mrs. Murray Thoms with 15 members and a visitor answering roll call with "Read it, say it sing it." The Bible reading was taken by Mrs. Bruce Beckett. Mrs. W. R. Lawson and Mrs. Robert McDonald are the committee in charge of the fall fair display. Commemorative spoons were displayed. A euchre party was planned for the evening of Oct. 15.

Members agreed to hold a hallowe'en party for the village children which will be on the Saturday evening. The entertainment committee will convene it. Mrs. George Atkinson and Mrs. Herb Reid assisted the hostess with lunch. A birthday cake made by Mrs. Reid was in honour of Mrs. M. Thoms and all sang happy birthday.

The opening fall meeting of St. John's Guild was held at Mrs. J. C. Murray's home on Sept. 7, with eleven members present. Money was received from the make-believe tea and the sale of cook books. More books were distributed and may be purchased from guild members.

A donation was made to the Action group which is holding a rummage sale on Oct. 16. Members were reminded to prepare for the annual bazaar and bake sale which will be held as usual the first Saturday in November. A harvest congregational supper was suggested, but no action was taken. A pot luck luncheon concluded the meeting.
