HEADPIN HILITES

Most progressive bowler of the week was Jean (Acton Mixed) Geberlein. Jean strung 208-209-210 — Major league banquet scheduled to go May 24th, at the Acton Meadows Club — we cannot vouch for the authenticity of it, but the rumour doth persist that, if the Acton Meadows' team does not win three games this week, Jim Timleck and Ray Toth are to do a bit of streaking. If this be so, Heaven help the sailors on a night like this — that winds it up once again my friendlies, so adios and goodnite Concord City.

Churchill

Swedish visitor for Baptism

By Mrs. Fred MacArthur

Churchill Community Church Sunday morning worship service and Sunday School was very well attended on March 17. Rev. A. W. Fosbury's sermon text was "Jesus of Nazareth Passeth By," and "God's House."

Churchill friends and relatives wish to extend their deepest sympathy to Edith, Mrs. Elliott, in the death of her husband last Friday. George Elliott passed away in St. Joseph's Hospital, Guelph, after a lengthy illness. Funeral service was at Wall's funeral home. Interment was at Woodland Cemetery, Guelph.

A baptismal service was held in Churchill Community Church on Sunday afternoon when the pastor Rev. A. W. Fosbury, B.A., B.D. baptized Ashley Lawrence Peter Fray, infant son of Michael and Christine Fray. Godparents were a sister, Mr. and Mrs. J. Wegman of Acton. Mrs. Fray's mother, Mrs. G. Noren of Stockholm, Sweden, also was present with other close friends. An afternoon luncheon was served after at their home on Churchill Road North.

Mrs. A. W. Fosbury spent the weekend visiting with Dr. and Mrs. C. Bayliss, Melinda and Julie in Willowdale. On Sunday Rev. Fosbury joined Mrs. Fosbury and visited with (Kay) Mr. and Mrs. Cross, Craig and Brett in Lorne Park, where she held a baby shower for Sandy, their daughter-in-law Mr. and Mrs. Don Fosbury of Brampton.

Mr. and Mrs. Ken Vincent and baby Chris of Peterborough spent the weekend with the baby's grandmother, Mrs. Mary McEachern and Mr. Angus McEachern — the first visit for baby Chris.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Kerr, Jeffrey and Christine, visited on Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Knox of Hampton, also with her grandfather Howard Malcolm who is a patient in Ajax Hospital, and also with her grandmother, Mrs. William Knox, at Fairview Lodge at Whitby.

On Monday Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Lindsay and family of Orangeville visited with Mr. and Mrs. Bob Kerr and children.

Guests on Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Don Anderson, Donald and David, were Mr. and Mrs. Jack Vanatter of Fenelon Falls.
