Spilling the pins at Acton Bowling Lanes

(301), Doug Hendsbee 615 (270), Roy Topelko 592 (256) and John Chapman 568 (222). The Busy Bee-Headpins go was a repeat of the Striker-Playmate affair. The Bees won two games, but Headpins with a big middle chukker win grabbed the bonus point for totals. Buzzing the tricounts for the Bees were Jack Glendenning 577 (230), Lynda Russwurm 506 (224), Monique Beaulieu 500 (181) and Hans Hansen 470 (200). Best in Headpins' efforts were Lou Beaulieu 672 (306), Ben Larsen 578 (211) and Mike Noble 513 (185). The Satellites went into the win orbit for a three game win when they met up with the Dynamites. Larry Beaulieu 650 (283), Jim Glendenning 579 (198) and Leo Cassivi headed up the win. Top trio for Dynamites were Kathy Bird 584 (190), Gary Hitchie 531 (189) and Ellen Gooding 528 (189).

League standing: Playmates 40, Strikers 38, Headpins 34, Satellites 31, Busy Bees 30, Dynamites 18.

Acton Mixed

Jan. 10. Blue Chips missed out in the first go with the front-running Streakers, but found the secret of success in the next two to make with a two and totals win. Topping the Blue Chip win trundling were Arlie White 653 (269), Peg Hurdle 597 (261) and Bryon Billing 585 (230). Best in the Streakers' efforts were Jerry Buchanan 550 (226), Laurie Johnson 522 (196) and Bill Boyd 484 (197). Go-Getters were a big winner in the first canto against the Devils, but failed to make it in the next two. They had enough pins in hand however to take the odd point for totals. Devils' top trio were Hank Earle 618 (270), John Higgins 578 (211) and Agnes McGinnis 518 (184). Top tricounters for Go-Getters were Gerry Paley 611 (240), Lenora Vickery 577 (218), George Ulmer 513 (234) and Jackie Higgins 451 (202). Aces were a two and totals winner, Slippery Jacks winning the middle canto. Heading up the Aces' roll were Donna Manto 630 (255), Bill Manto 561 (193) and Doug Vickery 499 (180). Tops for the Slippery Jacks were Don Marro 627 (260), Rupe Harmer 581 (242) and Jane Vickery 551 (241).

League Standing: Streakers 79, Go-Getters 76, Slippery Jacks 75, Devils 61, Aces 54, Blue Chips 53.

Headpin Billies

Triano leagues' coffee mug winners this trip were Dave Campbell, Barry Hunter, Elmer White, Joan Hammond, Jerry Buchanan and Bud Martin—the Annual National Classified Bowling Championship is under way again with the men's house round on February 8 and the ladies' house round on February 16. This is the only tournament where you can become a Canadian champion by bowling against bowlers in your own average class in either Ladies or Men's Divisions. Registrations close January 31, 1975 so if you wish to enter and haven't already done so, contact your league secretary—Joe "Smitty" Pietrangeli of the Lakeview Centre league in his first game last Tuesday had a spare in the sixth frame. This cost him the bowler's dream, a perfect game. All the rest of the frames were strikes, and "Smitty" settled for a 211. That winds it up once again my friendies, so adios amigos and goodnite Concord City.

Friends and co-workers of Constable Bill Bourne of Milton OPP attended a stag in his honor Friday night at Halton Sportsmen's Association clubhouse on Steeles Ave.

Const. Bourne joins a special detachment at Sioux Lookout this week.

Appointed to GRCA

Mayor William G. Holman of Fergus, Reeve Norman Roszell of Puslinch Township and Archie W. Beattie of R.R. 2, Elora, were re-appointed to the Grand River Conservation Authority last week for three-year terms.

Their appointments were made at two meetings called by James S. Bauer of Waterloo, authority chairman.

Mayor Holman and Reeve Roszell will again represent the town of Fergus and the townships of Erin, Eramosa, Guelph, Puslinch and West Garafraxa.

Under provincial legislation, these municipalities are grouped together for conservation purposes. Based on their population, the six are entitled to two representatives on the 40-member authority.
