Bantam tourney

Lindsay and Markham will open the 15th annual International Bantam Hockey Tournament at Georgetown Memorial Arena Saturday morning with a "C" series game at 7.30 in the morning.

First game for the host Georgetown Gage Stationery major bantams is Tuesday, March 25 at 12.30 p.m. against Niagara Falls.

A total of 36 juvenile teams will be competing in the annual Tri-county juvenile tournament in Milton this year. The tournament has been an annual event in Milton since 1959.

For the first time in its history the Juvenile tournament will be played at the new Milton Memorial Arena and for the first time since its inception, the Milton Juveniles may not be one of the participating teams.

Windows smashed

Vandals caused an estimated total of $504 damage to Eramosa public school last week. Guelph OPP report the occurrences are still under investigation.

Principal, John Hake, summoned the OPP to the school Wednesday morning, March 12 at 8.05 a.m. Investigation revealed damage of four windows and three doors smashed by vandals throwing beer bottles causing estimated damage of $439.

Vandals attacked the school again Wednesday night. The OPP were again called to the Eramosa school, Thursday morning, March 13 when principal Hake reported two more windows had been smashed. Damage in the second incident was estimated at $65.

Millionaires

Milton Juveniles, second place finishers to Georgetown Rotarians in the Tricounty league whipped Markham Millionaires 9-2 Monday night to tie their best of five OMHA Juvenile "A" semi-final series at a game apiece.

Rams seek lacrosse players

Preseason workouts for the Halton Hills Rams Junior "C" lacrosse club will continue at Stewarttown school gym tomorrow (Thursday) night at 7.

Coach Rob Pool is very interested in meeting new faces interested in playing. It doesn't matter whether the boys have even played lacrosse before.

Rams are scheduled to play their league opener in Georgetown Memorial Arena against the Huntsville Hawks, May 15.

A huge sign announcing the start of the lacrosse season in Georgetown has been installed on the back wall of the arena.
