—Schools are booking many special events during June.

Y's Men are collecting all this week for the auction sale Friday.

Hockey awards presented Sat.

The Legion hall was filled with gentlemen of all ages Saturday night for the Acton Minor Hockey Association banquet and presentations. All the boys were dressed in their best for the awards presentations which culminate the season in all categories of Novice, Atom, Pee Wee, Bantam, Midget and Juvenile in the Waterloo-Wellington league.

The guest speaker was NHL referee Bruce Hood who told the boys of the possibilities of making a full-time, well-paying career in hockey, either in playing or refereeing.

President Noel Weir was master of ceremonies and thanked the executive, managers and coaches for the time spent and effort they had put forth during the past season.

Presentations

The Most Valuable Players trophies were presented in each category. These players are picked by other players, coaches and managers of their respective teams.

Honored as Most Valuable Players were Mike Hudson, Novice; Mike Hendsbee, Minor Atom; Brian Demone, Atom; Gordie McArthur, Minor Pee Wee; Mike Marshall, Pee Wee; Rick Gooyers, Minor Bantam; Scott Malcolm, Bantam; Joe Gardin, Midget and Jeff Townsley, Juvenile.

Trophies

Special trophies were presented to players nominated by the coaches and managers and chosen by the executive.

Dave McGilloway was presented with the John Kentner Memorial trophy as the Most Outstanding Player.

Randy Smith was given the Doc Harkley trophy as the Most Valuable Defenseman.

Mark Duval accepted the Lady Byng trophy given by Acton referees to the Most Gentlemanly Player with Ability.

A tie between David Anderson and Andy Ellerby of the Major Pee Wees resulted in two trophies being given this year, to the Most Outstanding Goalies. This is the Acton Free Press trophy.

Gordon Springle was given the Wendy Legate Memorial trophy as the Most Improved Atom.

Harold Townsley, coach of the Major Bantams, was given the Ed Owens trophy for the Coach or Manager Contributing the Most to Minor Hockey.

Men's softball

Rain dampens park but four teams play

Halton Hills Electric went to town on Family Cleaners to the tune of 16-8 and Station Hotel outgunned Van's Welding 12-7 at the park in Acton Men's Softball Association play.

Ledger's IGA and Halton Hills Catering will have to wait because of last Sunday's rain.

Frank Daly pitched the electricians to a come from behind win. The cleaners led in the fourth inning by an eight to three margin. Electric got back into the game starting with Ken Owen's fifth inning homer. Bob Jarrett added his first of three runs as did Lyle Prueter, John Duffield and the pitcher.

The game tied in the sixth inning, Jim Cole brought in the first of his pair of runs, while Frank Daly, Hugh Forbes, Fred Ostlund and Steve Steeves added singles. The cleaners never caught up.

Jerrett and Cole rounded off the electricians scoring in the seventh inning. Owens, Prueter and Cole registered the double-H's first runs early in the game.

J. Richard homered twice for Family Cleaners. Ed Wood hurled for the team. Left-fielder Russ Doyle got the team's first run in the second inning. Ron Nicolucci homered while E. Hayten and Doyle got singles. The cleaners finished their game in the fourth inning on runs by Nicolocci and Richard.

Jeff Inglis got Station Hotel off to a good start with a home run in the first inning. He added a single in the sixth. Bryan Lawrence scored a fifth inning run. Jim Whitmill registered runs in the second and fifth frames. Ron Jarrett connected for a home run in the fifth.

Plate

Brent McEachern collected three runs for Station. Jim Cooney stepped to the plate for a pair of runs while Bill Lee and Robbie Townsend got singles.

Chris Tennent was on the mound for Van's and struck out eight Station men. Tennent also hit a pair of homers.

Rod McEachern got a seventh inning run for Van's while catcher Ed Hillier got ones in the first and last innings.

Jim McNabb waited until the last round to score with a homer.

First baseman Rick Coe also got a single for Van's.

Squirt girls please officials

Acton squirt girls of the minor ball association defeated Omagh 20-3 in the season opener.

Kim White hurled for Olympia Drive-In during the first four innings. She was the winning pitcher. Teresa Dunn took over in the final inning.

After leading 2-1 at the end of the first inning, Acton burst forth with ten runs in the second frame.

Squirt team coach Pop Main and manager Garry De Bruyn said they were very pleased with the showing the girls made in the season debut.

The girls were sporting new caps courtesy Morse Hardware and Gord Dawson.

A-girls win '76 opener

Gail's Golf peewee girls A team won its season opener 16-8 over Limehouse last Friday.

Patty McClure, who got the team's only home run, struck out 17 Limehouse batters for the win.

Monarchs' Kurtz early top scorer

New commer Larry Kurtz is the leading scorer on the Monarch's midget lacrosse team.

In two games so far this season Kurtz has five goals. Shane Withers has three and Todd McIntyre a pair. Tim Spurril and Dave McGilloway have singles.

The Monarchs host Owen Sound tonight at 8:30 p.m. at the community centre.

The league is divided into north-south sections. Acton is grouped with Guelph, Six Nations, Stratford, Woodstock and London. In the north are Owen Sound, Elora, Fergus, Orangeville, and Kincardine.
