Couple arrested after struggle with police

A Georgetown man wanted for failing to attend court was arrested along with his common-law wife following a scuffle with Halton Regional Police Friday morning in Georgetown.

Officers on patrol in the area of Guelph St. and Maple Ave. spotted a man wanted on bench warrants for drug and other criminal offences.

The officers attempted to arrest the suspect and a struggle ensued, with the man's common-law wife allegedly becoming involved.

None of the officers were injured.

Charged with assault with intent to resist is Steven Collins, 35.

He was held for a bail hearing that was expected to take place Friday.

Melissa Poff, 36, also of Georgetown, is charged with obstructing a peace officer and was released on an appearance notice.
