CPI is a world-leading, high-tech electronics company that designs, manufactures, and markets a diverse range of products for diagnostic medical imaging and satellite communications for television, Internet, and data transmission. We are seeking new talent to add to our team in our Georgetown location.

Technician (day shift)

You will assemble, test, and troubleshoot prototype circuits, RF amplifiers, and mechanical parts, perform tests and evaluations of electrical systems or prototypes, prepare test data for engineering review, troubleshoot and replace electrical circuitry, tune solid state power amplifiers, and assist in the design and preparation of documentation. Knowledge of microwave and RF circuits is required. We are seeking a technician/technologist who has graduated from community college.

Inspector (day shift)

You are able to inspect all documented inventory parts and products utilizing simple jigs, tools, appropriate measuring instruments, documentation, and appliances, interpret all quality standards, detect defects, assist in resolution and raise non-conformance reports, and maintain inspection records, in addition to performing routine mechanical assembly operations. Your ability to read drawings and understand and follow engineering inspection schedule and M-spec documents.

Assembler (day shift)

You are able to perform a variety of routine mechanical assembly operations, use hand and power tools, and inspect subassemblies, parts and/or assemblies, perform soldering, and assemble solid state RF amplifiers and circuit boards. There is a potential for candidates to progress to electrical adjustment and testing.

Assembler (casual basis – day & afternoon shift)

You are able to perform a variety of routine mechanical assembly operations, use hand and power tools, and inspect subassemblies, parts, and/or assemblies. Previous electro-mechanical assembly experience is an asset. This employment opportunity provides a flexible lifestyle.

In exchange for your talents, we offer a competitive package that includes a comprehensive range of benefits, a friendly and stimulating work environment with an in-house fitness facility, and the opportunity to apply your skills with an industry leader.

Please apply to:
Human Resources, CPI Canada Inc., 45 River Drive, Georgetown, ON L7G 2J4
e-mail: hrcanada@cpil.com fax: (905) 877-2658

We value all applicants; however, only those selected for interviews will be contacted. CPI values the contributions of a diverse workforce and is proud to be an Equal Employment Opportunity Employer.

No Agencies please.
