Photography show opens at Red Door Gallery...

Red Door Gallery's latest show Meridian - 2 Styles Collide (Sept. 3-12) features the work of two photographers, Alan McCord and Nathan Hiller.

The show includes landscape images of outstanding beauty, as well as travel and portraiture.

McCord focuses on portraits from the water's edge, where Canada's huge landmass meets the Atlantic and the Pacific oceans.

"They are an integral portion of the Canadian mosaic," says McCord.

WATER'S EDGE
ALAN MCCORD

"The most captivating sights within a geographic area are to be found where one environmental community meets another— in this case, where water meets land. These edge communities embody a mix of environmental cooperation, confrontation and symbiosis."

Caledon photographer Hiller's work includes landscapes, travel and portraits. His work has been widely exhibited in juried shows.
