

...Show has Opening Reception tonight

Over 20 years Hiller has produced "Caledon Collection"— a series of photographs of Caledon and the surrounding area. In this show he adds portraiture to the mix. He portrays women outside traditional studio settings and artificial lighting, preferring instead to use outdoor locations, unusual spaces and in an aura created through dance.

Halton Hills Cultural Round Table Executive Director Beatrice Sharkey is impressed with the quality of the work, saying, "We are so fortunate to be able to see and buy work of this calibre without having to visit far-flung Toronto galleries. Buying original art is important. By doing so, we sustain one of the cultural cornerstones of human existence as well as filling our home with beautiful and meaningful objects for years to come."

The Opening Reception will be held tonight (Sept. 3), 6-8 p.m. at the Gallery, 127 Mill St.
